Operatives, Made a Great
Throng.

SEBRING IS ALMOST DESERTED

The Bulk of Its Population Coming on
the Excursion—Baseball and Other Amusements Make the Day Enjoyable.

The annual outing of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters,
held at Rock Springs today, was a success in every sense of the word. No
less than three special trains came
to the city, and every one was well
loaded with operatives and their friends, who came prepared to thoroughly enjoy the day.

The first train arrived on the New Cumberland branch at about 10 o'clock,
and contained people from Wheeling,
Tiltonville and Steubenville. On the Ohio side two trains arrived, bringing
visitors from Alliance, Sebring, Salem,
East Palestine, Beaver Falls, Rochester and Beaver. Another train brought
a large delegation of potters and their friends from New Castle. It was during the afternoon that the crowds began to gather at the park. Eight cars
were operated on the East Liverpool
and Rock Springs railway all day,
commencing at 9 o'clock this morning, and the same number will be run
all evening.

The crowds which arrived on this side of the river, instead of going to
the park at first, began making a tour of East Liverpool, where friends
met friends. There was a general
hand shaking all the morning, and as many of the visitors have friends and
relatives in this city, the day was spent at their homes. There were more than 2,000 visitors in the city,
but as all the East Liverpool potters
were closed at noon, the crowds at
the park were greatly augmented.

From one of the committeemen in charge of the outing the following list
of visitors was obtained:

Wheeling sent a delegation of 386,
many of whom were mill workers.
Tiltonville delegation was composed
of about 50, while less than that number were at the park from Steubenville. New Castle brought several hundred to the park, while Sebring
locked up the town and threw the key
away. Nearly 700 people came from that town. The visitors from Lisbon
numbered several hundred, while East Palestine sent over about 175. A large delegation was present from Salem,
probably 200 persons. Welisville was present in all its glory, but the crowds
from there did not commence to arrive until after noon.

During the afternoon a baseball
game was scheduled to be played between the jiggersmen and pressers of East Liverpool, the club from New Cumberland deciding not to play. This was a disappointment, but still a good game was expected.

SUNDAY BALL GAME

Not Enjoyed By Residents of Pleasant
Heights, Who Want Playing Stopped.

A large crowd of young men and a
few older ones annoyed the residents
of Pleasant Heights yesterday by engaging in a game of base ball. There were about 20 of the men and the game was carried on with as much
hilarity and profanity as if it had been
any other day than Sunday.

An effort was made to stop the ball
playing, but no attention whatever was paid to the repeated requests on the part of the residents. An effort will be made to induce the police department to send a man to that locality another Sunday.

CHILDREN'S DAY

Observed at the Christian Church—A Beautiful Cantata
Presented.

The annual Children's day exercises
of the Sunday school of the Christian church were held last evening. The church was profusely decorated with flowers, palms, etc., and was thought
by many persons to be more beautiful than ever before. A cantata entitled "Beside Many Waters" was participated in by about 25 or 30 children,

and occupied the entire service hour.
A ribbon drill in the cantata was a special feature.

The entire exercise was one of great success, the children having been previously drilled by a committee of
which Miss Mary Lloyd was chairman.
The exact amount of the Children's
day offering is not yet known.

BOY AT WEST POINT GOT A SE-RIOUS WOUND.

They Were Hunting Ground Hogs
With a Rifle And the Weapon
Was Discharged.

Lisbon, June 2. — (Special) —
Harry Grimes, aged 12, son of Reuben
Grimes, of West Point, was accidentally shot in the face yesterday by James Lewis, a playmate. The boys were hunting ground hogs, when in some way the gun, a 22-caliber rifle, was discharged.

The bullet entered Grimes' right
cheek, passed through his mouth and
came out at the nose, causing an ugly wound.

AN INDIGNANT WOMAN

Wants the Law's Aid Because She
Was Called a Long
Reacher.

Boiling over with rage, her hair
floating madly in the air, her eyes
gleaming fiercely and her entire make-
up presenting that of a caged animal
just freed, an unknown woman of perhaps 30 years went dashing into Squire McCarron's court this morning
and the awful tirade of words and phrases propounded by her made the
sedate justice of the peace crouch far
below where his dignity dictates.

She wanted Mrs. T. Eisenhuth, of Ravine street, arrested for calling her a
"Hoop-poler," a "Rubber neck," a
"Long Reacher," and other names. The squire did not take the case.

HIGH VALUATION

Placed By Appraisers on the Property
of the Fort Wayne
Railroad.

Lisbon, June 2. — (Special) —
The Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago
railroad was appraised at Canton Saturday by the auditors of counties
through which it passes. The main line was appraised at $28,000 per mile,
a higher appraisement than that of any
other railroad in the state, being $8,000 higher than the Lake Shore,
which is considered as good a road.

The rolling stock was appraised at $7,500 per mile; the second track at $8,000 and the sidings at $4,000. The buildings in Columbiana county were valued at $30,285, and the county's portion of the total moneys and credits
at $11,150.

TAKEN TO JAIL

Mrs. Alice Rutter, of Salem, Makes a Partial Confession.

Salem, June 2.—Mrs. Alice Rutter
made a confession that will probably
prove her an accomplice in the crime
of infanticide, and was taken to the county jail. She wanted her youngest child to go with her, but this was refused. It is said that she has threatened suicide. Al Rutter is in jail as an accomplice.

The coroner has not yet returned his
verdict.

Order of Sale Issued.

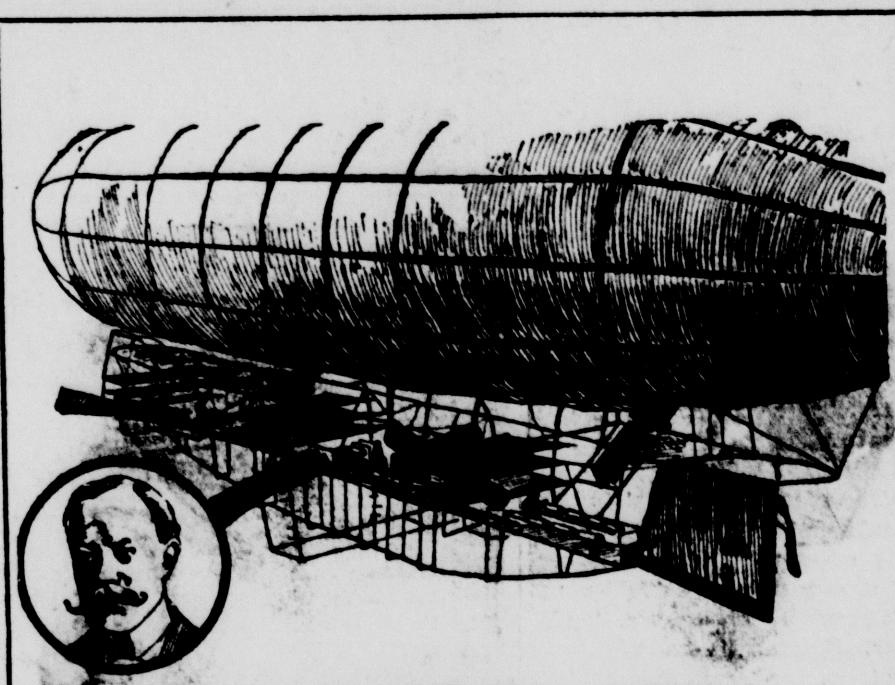

Lisbon, June 2. — (Special) —
In the case of Mary R. Welsh vs. Catherine W. Sell, the common pleas court
found that the estate of Jacob W.
Sell, late of Salem township, could
not be partitioned and ordered the
sheriff to sell the property, consisting
of 35.96 acres of land subject to the homestead of Catherine W. Sell, consisting of the house and three-quarter
acres of ground.

Train Jumper in Jail.

Lisbon, June 2. — (Special) —
John Jenkins was lodged in the county jail yesterday charged with train
jumping at East Palestine.

THE NEW AIRSHIP OF F. A. BARTON.

The British war department is having built a new airship invented by Dr. F. A. Barton, who admits that his machine will surpass Santos-Dumont's "antidiluvian type" as the most recent electric car surpasses the old horse drawn vehicles. He is ready, he says, to run Santos a race from London to Edinburgh, 400 miles, on a wager of $50,000, but the Brazilian says that Dr. Barton must make his flying machine fly before he will design to acknowledge him as a competitor. The Barton machine is fish shaped, divided internally into four compartments, with a driving mechanism consisting of six screw propellers, each 17 feet in length, coupled to three motors. Its total length is 104 feet, with a deck width of only 1-2 feet. It is intended to carry a crew of five, one man at each of the three motors, one at the steering gear and an aviator proper. The machine has all the latest improvements, such as water ballast, safety netting, petrol for fuel, etc.

NEW CUMBERLAND SUFFERS BIG LOSS

An Incendiary Fire Saturday Morning Destroyed Ten Buildings.

INFECTED BY SMALLPOX

A Building Was Probably Intentionally
Burned And the Destruction of Others Followed—The Total Loss Likely to Exceed $5,000.

New Cumberland, June 2.—Property
worth $5,000 or more went up in flames
and smoke Saturday morning. The
buildings burned were:

H. A. Cassidy's residence, facing the railroad. Three houses belonging to David Ward, on Pearl street. Row of three one-story houses on Chester
street. House and millinery store, the property of the late Mrs. Headley, occupied for years by Mrs. Headley, and
of late by Mrs. Green. Jack Melvin's
livery stable.

The buildings burned were all old
ones. The residences burned would average in value $700 each. Not all
were insured.

The fire started about 2 a. m., in
the row of vacant houses on Chester
street. It is supposed to have been
the work of an incendiary. An attempt was made by some one to burn
these houses last Monday night, but
the fire was discovered before it had gained much headway. It was so far under way Saturday morning that the firemen could not control it. They centered their energies in saving property across the street. It was only checked when everything in the block

The old houses burned fast and the occupants were able to get only a part of their household goods out.
Those who lost their homes and the
contents of their houses are quartered
with friends. The property destroyed
belonged chiefly to people of limited
means and the loss to them will mean
great hardship.

The building where the fire started
was not tenanted. It had been used as quarters for smallpox patients and
for that reason is thought to have
been set on fire.

WHOLESALE POISONING

Dogs Suspected of Chicken Stealing
Slaughtered on Fairview
Street.

On Fairview street yesterday there
was a case of wholesale poisoning. A short time ago dogs killed 48 chickens
in one night. The owners of the chickens swore vengeance. This morning a mother dog and a large litter of pups
were found dead in the road. There,
by the roadside, they are still lying.

More Picnics Booked.

Manager J. Howard Maxwell continues to make additions to his already
long string of picnics for Rock Springs
park, and no less than four more have
been booked within the last week.
Louisville, O., merchants have secured
a date, while others are from Wheeling carpenters; Christian church, Al-
legheeny and the Junior Mechanics of Pittsburg. This makes a total of 60
picnics that have been booked so far,
and there are many more to be heard
from.

HAPPY CHILDREN FILLED THE PARK

A Day of Unalloyed Enjoyment for
3,000 East Liverpool School
Pupils.

FREE RIDES WERE GIVEN

On the Street Cars and on the Merry-
go-round and Roller Coaster—No Accidents or Mishaps to Mar Their Pleasure.

Probably 3,000 school children, a great many of them accompanied by
parents or relatives, enjoyed the free
outing provided for their benefit on Saturday by the management of the Rock Springs park and of the East
Liverpool & Rock Springs street railway. It was a beautiful day, and nothing occurred to prevent unalloyed
pleasure.

Never was an outing of more success. All day long the East Liverpool
school children had the freedom of the
park, running up hill and down dale,
until eventide, when little feet began
to become tired, and then there was
a longing for home.

Games of all sorts were played during the morning and afternoon, while
in the afternoon there was a basket ball contest and a base ball game. Of course the main attraction for the children was the merry-go-round and
the roller coaster. About 3 o'clock
Saturday afternoon the park management distributed a number of tickets
to the children for the merry-go-round
and roller coaster. When this fact became known they crowded around the
man with the tickets, and within half
an hour all the complimentary tickets
had been distributed. There was little to mar the pleasure of the day. Every one seemed contented and the children only wished that more days like Saturday would come about once a month.

During the afternoon a little child
was seen running down the hillside
near where the old bowling alley
stood. The child fell, its dress was soiled and the mother, seeing this,
called the child to her. The woman,
who was inside the old alley, reached
over the railing, commenced to chastise the little one, much to the disgust of a number of older persons who were watching the affair. The woman
first hit the child on the head, then on
the arm, and although the little one
was crying piteously, she pulled the
child's right ear so hard that it almost
lifted the little one from the ground.
Then the crowd began to yell at the
woman, who soon made a retreat to another part of the building, evidently
ashamed of her actions.

But most of the mothers were there
to see that the children enjoyed themselves. There were picnic luncheons
in profusion, and the woods and beautiful grounds were alive with happy
little ones all day long.

PASTOR RE-ELECTED

Rev. W. H. Gladden Chosen for the Fourth Year of the Second Term.

At the annual congregational meeting held yesterday in the First Methodist Protestant church, the present
pastor, Rev. W. H. Gladden, was called

THE SUPREME COURT TO TEST WILLIS TAX LAW'S VALIDITY

to that pulpit for the fourth year of a second pastorate. The meeting was one of the largest held by that congregation in recent years.

The annual conference meets the first of September in Knoxville, a suburb of Pittsburg. That church is already making elaborate preparations
for the approaching conference. Next Sunday in this city a delegates to the conference will be elected and instructed.

THE PEACE TERMS

UNDER WHICH THE WAR IN AFRI-CA CEASES.

Boers Not to Be Taxed For Cost of War—Rebels to Be Disfranchised.

London, June 2.—(Special)—Secretary Balfour announced in the house
of commons today the terms of peace.
The Burgher forces lay down arms
and hand over all rifles, guns and munitions of war in their possession or
under their control. All prisoners are
to be brought back as soon as possible to South Africa without loss of liberty or property. No action is to be taken against prisoners except
where guilty of breaches of the rules
of war. Dutch is to be taught in schools if desired by parents and used
in courts if necessary.

Rifles are allowed for protection.
Military occupation is to be withdrawn
as soon as possible, and self government substituted. There will be no
tax on the Transvaal to pay the cost
of war. Fifteen million dollars is to be provided for re-stocking Boers' farms.

Rebels are liable to trial according
to law of the country to which they belong. The rank and file will be disfranchised for life. No death penalty.

BAKERS ORGANIZE

AND ADOPT A UNIFORM SCALE
OF PRICES.

Bread And Pies Will Be Eight Cents Each at Whole-
sale.

The boss bakers of this city last Thursday evening held a meeting at Anderson's bakery on Sixth street and
decided to form an association similar
to that which was recently formed by
the butchers. While practically every bakery in the city was represented, a permanent organization will not be formed until Wednesday evening,
when another meeting will be held and
permanent officers elected.

Commencing today every baker in
the city will not sell a large loaf of bread at wholesale for less than eight
cents, or buns and small cakes for less than eight cents. Pies will also be wholesale at eight cents. The retail price of all breadstuffs will remain the same as heretofore.

INTERESTING SERVICES

Organ to Be Dedicated And Large
Class Confirmed at St. Stephen's.
Bishop to Be Present.

The new organ will be dedicated and confirmation services held at St. Stephen's Episcopal church tonight. The organ will be dedicated by Rt. Rev. W.
A. Leonard, D. D., bishop of the Ohio
diocese. The dedication sermon will be preached by Rev. Dr. Hinkle, of Steubenville.

This service will be followed by confirmation, when a class of 40 candidates will be presented by the rector.
The service will commence promptly
at 8 o'clock. Special music by the large vested choir will be furnished.

W. A. Tarr Once More Arrested For
Drunkenness and Wife Beating.

Lisbon, June 2. — (Special) — Infirmary Director W. A. Tarr is in trouble again. Saturday after he was acquitted of the charge of assault and
battery, he celebrated by getting
drunk, after which he went home and
again got into trouble with his wife.
She promptly had him arrested, and
he lay in jail Sunday. She claims
that he struck her and threatened to
do her serious harm, and that she was afraid to have him at large. He will be given a hearing this evening.

Stark County Corporations With $11,000,000 Capital Claim
It Is Unconstitutional.

A TEMPORARY INJUNCTION

Is Issued Restraining the State
From the Collection of the Tax.

DOUBLE TAXATION IS ALLEGED

By the Companies to the Suit—Large
Class for Bar Examination at Columbus—The Socialist Party's
State Ticket.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, June 2.—The suit filed in common pleas court Saturday by about 50 Stark county corporations to test
the validity of the Willis law, imposing a tax of one tenth of one per cent,
will be taken to supreme court for
final adjudication as soon as possible.
The plaintiffs allege that the law is unconstitutional on the ground that it
imposes double taxation, and that it is
in conflict with the constitution of
Ohio and of that of the United States.
Attorney General Sheets, as the attorney of Secretary of State Laylin,
will file answer in the case at once,
and will ask that it be dismissed, on
the ground that it does not state facts
sufficient for a cause of action. A temporary injunction has been issued,
restraining the secretary from paying
the money collected into the state
treasury. All annual fees paid by domestic corporations for profit under the Willis law will be retrained by him until the decision of the suit, so
that in the event of the invalidity of
the Willis law, the annual fees so paid
by all such corporations may be refunded.

The aggregate capital stock of the plaintiff companies approximates $11,- 000,000. The Morgan Engineering company, the Review and Leader, of Al-
lance, and the News Democrat of Canton, are among the plaintiffs in the suit.

Theodore Adams, of Columbus, who
has been nominated for secretary of state on the Socialist Labor party, is
the man who narrowly escaped being mobbed in this city for giving utterance to seditious sentiments upon receiving the news of the assassination
of President McKinley. Samuel Bor-
ton, of Salem, is the party's nominee
for judge of the supreme court. He was on the ticket a year ago. He is a stone mason, and while credited to Salem, resides at Valley, about five miles
southwest of that city.

A class of 250 applicants will appear
before the state board in this city
tomorrow to take the examination for admission for the bar. It is believed
the examination this time will be unusually severe.

Senator William E. Decker, of
Paulding, will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for secretary
of state. His is the first name mentioned.

GOOD PROGRESS MADE

The Y. M. C. A. Athletic Park in Chester Will Soon Be Finished.

If work continues without interruption as it has for the past ten days the
Y. M. C. A. park in Chester will be completed before the time contracted
for. All of the rough grading will be finished in a few days and the contract
for the high board fence surrounding
the park will be let this week. When
this is completed the park will be
practically ready for a formal opening,
but it is not likely that the opening
will take place until the Fourth of July, when the Homestead base ball
team may be the attraction.

Manager Wright is in communication with them and hopes to be able to have them on the above date. As before announced the members of the association are using the grounds of Rock Springs park for the playing of
their games and have now several interesting games scheduled.

Wednesday evening the second team
will cross bats with the Carroll club,
and an exciting contest is assured.

buildings burned were:

H. A. Cassidy's residence, facing the
David Ward, on Pearl street. Row of
three one-story houses on Chester
street. House and millinery store, the property of the late Mrs. Headley, occupied for years by Mrs. Headley, and
of late by Mrs. Green. Jack Melvin's
livery stable.

The buildings burned were all old
ones. The residences burned would
average in value $700 each. Not all
were insured.

The fire started about 2 a. m., in
the row of vacant houses on Chester
street. It is supposed to have been
the work of an incendiary. An attempt was made by some one to burn
these houses last Monday night, but
the fire was discovered before it had gained much headway. It was so far
under way Saturday morning that the firemen could not control it. They
centered their energies in saving property across the street. It was only

occupants were able to get only a
part of their household goods out.
Those who lost their homes and the
contents of their houses are quartered
with friends. The property destroyed
belonged chiefly to people of limited
means and the loss to them will mean
great hardship.

The building where the fire started
was not tenanted. It had been used
as quarters for smallpox patients and
for that reason is thought to have
been set on fire.

WHOLESALE POISONING

Dogs Suspected of Chicken Stealing
Slaughtered on Fairview
Street.

On Fairview street yesterday there
was a case of wholesale poisoning. A short time ago dogs killed 48 chickens
in one night. The owners of the chickens swore vengeance. This morning a
mother dog and a large litter of pups
were found dead in the road. There,
by the roadside, they are still lying.

Manager J. Howard Maxwell continues to make additions to his already
long string of picnics for Rock Springs
park, and no less than four more have
been booked within the last week.
Louisville, O. merchants have secured
a date, while others are from Wheel-
ing carpenters; Christian church, Allegheny and the Junior Mechanics of Pittsburg. This makes a total of 60
picnics that have been booked so far,
and there are many more to be heard
from.

HAPPY CHILDREN FILLED THE PARK

A Day of Unalloyed Enjoyment for
3,000 East Liverpool School
Pupils.

FREE RIDES WERE GIVEN

On the Street Cars and on the Merry-
Accidents or Mishaps to Mar Their Pleasure.

Probably 3,000 school children, a great many of them accompanied by
outing provided for their benefit on Saturday by the management of the
Liverpool & Rock Springs street rail-
way. It was a beautiful day, and nothing occurred to prevent unalloyed
pleasure.

Never was an outing of more success. All day long the East Liverpool
school children had the freedom of the
park, running up hill and down dale,
until eventide, when little feet began
to become tired, and then there was
a longing for home.

Games of all sorts were played during the morning and afternoon, while
ball contest and a base ball game. Of
course the main attraction for the
children was the merry-go-round and
the roller coaster. About 3 o'clock
Saturday afternoon the park management distributed a number of tickets
to the children for the merry-go-round
and roller coaster. When this fact became known they crowded around the
man with the tickets, and within half
an hour all the complimentary tickets
had been distributed. There was little to mar the pleasure of the day. Every one seemed contented and the children only wished that more days like Saturday would come about once a
month.

During the afternoon a little child
was seen running down the hillside
near where the old bowling alley
stood. The child fell, its dress was
soiled and the mother, seeing this,
called the child to her. The woman,
who was inside the old alley, reached
over the railing, commenced to chastise
the little one, much to the dis-
gust of a number of older persons who
were watching the affair. The woman
first hit the child on the head, then on
the arm, and although the little one
was crying piteously, she pulled the
child's right ear so hard that it almost
lifted the little one from the ground.
Then the crowd began to yell at the
woman, who soon made a retreat to
another part of the building, evidently
ashamed of her actions.

But most of the mothers were there
to see that the children enjoyed themselves. There were picnic luncheons
in profusion, and the woods and beautiful grounds were alive with happy
little ones all day long.

Rev. W. H. Gladden Chosen for the Fourth Year of the Second Term.

At the annual congregational meeting held yesterday in the First Methodist Protestant church, the present

THE SUPREME COURT TO TEST WILLIS TAX LAW'S VALIDITY

to that pulpit for the fourth year of a
second pastorate. The meeting was
one of the largest held by that congregation in recent years.

The annual conference meets the
first of September in Knoxville, a suburb of Pittsburg. That church is already making elaborate preparations
for the approaching conference. Next Sunday in this city a delegates to
the conference will be elected and instructed.

THE PEACE TERMS

UNDER WHICH THE WAR IN AFRI-CA CEASES.

Boers Not to Be Taxed For Cost of War—Rebels to Be Disfranchised.

London, June 2. — (Special) — Secretary Balfour announced in the house
of commons today the terms of peace.
The Burgher forces lay down arms
and hand over all rifles, guns and munitions of war in their possession or
under their control. All prisoners are
to be brought back as soon as possible to South Africa without loss of liberty or property. No action is to be taken against prisoners except
where guilty of breaches of the rules
of war. Dutch is to be taught in schools if desired by parents and used
in courts if necessary.

Rifles are allowed for protection.
Military occupation is to be withdrawn
as soon as possible, and self government substituted. There will be no
tax on the Transvaal to pay the cost
of war. Fifteen million dollars is to
be provided for restocking Boers' farms.

Rebels are liable to trial according
belong. The rank and file will be disfranchised for life. No death penalty.

BAKERS ORGANIZE

AND ADOPT A UNIFORM SCALE
OF PRICES.

Bread And Pies Will Be Eight Cents Each at Whole-
sale.

The boss bakers of this city last Thursday evening held a meeting at Anderson's bakery on Sixth street and
decided to form an association similar
to that which was recently formed by
the butchers. While practically every bakery in the city was represented, a
permanent organization will not be
formed until Wednesday evening,
when another meeting will be held and
permanent officers elected.

Commencing today every baker in
the city will not sell a large loaf of
bread at wholesale for less than eight
cents, or buns and small cakes for less
than eight cents. Pies will also be
wholesale at eight cents. The retail
price of all breadstuffs will remain the
same as heretofore.

Organ to Be Dedicated And Large
Class Confirmed at St. Stephen's.
Bishop to Be Present.

The new organ will be dedicated and
confirmation services held at St. Stephen's Episcopal church tonight. The organ will be dedicated by Rt. Rev. W.
A. Leonard, D. D., bishop of the Ohio
diocese. The dedication sermon will be preached by Rev. Dr. Hinkle, of Steubenville.

This service will be followed by confirmation, when a class of 40 candidates will be presented by the rector.
The service will commence promptly
at 8 o'clock. Special music by the large vested choir will be furnished.

W. A. Tarr Once More Arrested For
Drunkenness and Wife Beating.

Lisbon, June 2. — (Special) — Infirmary Director W. A. Tarr is in trouble again. Saturday after he was acquitted of the charge of assault and
battery, he celebrated by getting
again got into trouble with his wife.
She promptly had him arrested, and
he lay in jail Sunday. She claims
that he struck her and threatened to
do her serious harm, and that she was
afraid to have him at large. He will
be given a hearing this evening.

DOUBLE TAXATION IS ALLEGED

By the Companies to the Suit—Large
Class for Bar Examination at Co-
State Ticket.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, June 2. — The suit filed in
common pleas court Saturday by about 50 Stark county corporations to test
the validity of the Willis law, impos-
ing a tax of one tenth of one per cent,
will be taken to supreme court for
final adjudication as soon as possible.
The plaintiffs allege that the law is
unconstitutional on the ground that it
imposes double taxation, and that it is
in conflict with the constitution of
Ohio and of that of the United States.
Attorney General Sheets, as the attorney of Secretary of State Laylin,
will file answer in the case at once,
and will ask that it be dismissed, on
sufficient for a cause of action. A
temporary injunction has been issued,
restraining the secretary from paying
the money collected into the state
treasury. All annual fees paid by domestic corporations for profit under
the Willis law will be restrained by
that in the event of the invalidity of
the Willis law, the annual fees so paid
by all such corporations may be re-
funded.

The aggregate capital stock of the
plaintiff companies approximates $11,- 000,000. The Morgan Engineering company, the Review and Leader, of Alliance, and the News Democrat of Canton, are among the plaintiffs in the
suit.

Theodore Adams, of Columbus, who
has been nominated for secretary of
state on the Socialist Labor party, is
the man who narrowly escaped being
mobbed in this city for giving utter-
ance to seditious sentiments upon re-
of President McKinley. Samuel Bor-
ton, of Salem, is the party's nominee
for judge of the supreme court. He was on the ticket a year ago. He is a stone mason, and while credited to Salem, resides at Valley, about five miles
southwest of that city.

A class of 250 applicants will appear
before the state board in this city
tomorrow to take the examination for
admission for the bar. It is believed
the examination this time will be un-
usually severe.

Senator William E. Decker, of
Paulding, will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for secretary
of state. His is the first name mentioned.

The Y. M. C. A. Athletic Park in Chester Will Soon Be Finished.

If work continues without interruption as it has for the past ten days the
Y. M. C. A. park in Chester will be completed before the time contracted
for. All of the rough grading will be finished in a few days and the contract
for the high board fence surrounding
this is completed the park will be
practically ready for a formal opening,
but it is not likely that the opening
will take place until the Fourth of July, when the Homestead base ball
team may be the attraction.
Manager Wright is in communication with them and hopes to be able to have them on the above date. As before announced the members of the
association are using the grounds of Rock Springs park for the playing of
their games and have now several interesting games scheduled.

Wednesday evening the second team
will cross bats with the Carroll club,

EAST END

LOST CHILDREN

SEVERAL CAUSED MUCH ANXIETY TO THEIR PARENTS.

A Little Girl Walked From Chester to East End And a Boy From Wellsville.

From the manner some people of the East End talk, none of their children will be able to attend the public school picnic next year, if there is one. Some of the children became lost Saturday, and did not return to their homes until 11 o'clock in the evening. Mrs. Smith, residing on Railroad street, opposite the Laughlin pottery, allowed her two young children to go to the outing, and about 10 o'clock Saturday morning one of the children, a little girl, lost her ticket. She had spent all her money except five cents, and this she was compelled to pay for bridge toll. The child walked from the park over to the bridge, and there paid the only money she had for toll. The child, penniless, was then compelled to walk to her home in the East End.

An eight-year-old son of Mrs. Smith, when he arrived at the Diamond, became bewildered and got on a Wells-ville car. Not until he reached Wells-ville did he discover his mistake, and then he was compelled to walk home. At the Jethro bridge he met a little boy whom he knew and there sufficient car fare was obtained to allow his return to the East End.

A little child of Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell, of the East End, also got lost when he alighted from a car in the Diamond, and at 11 o'clock he was found wandering up the Calcutta hill.

The claim is made that the officials of the schools should have had some person at the cars to direct the smaller ones to their homes when they arrived in the city, and by so doing avoided trouble and anxiety.

DUMPING OF GARBAGE

Must Receive Township Trustees' Attention, as it is Outside the City.

While much has been said about the dumping of garbage in the vicinity of the powder house of the American Sewer Pipe company, on Lake's Run, it may be interesting to learn that this garbage was dumped or buried outside the city limits, and the matter is beyond the jurisdiction of the East Liverpool board of health. It is now up to the township board of health, which is composed of the township trustees. A few days ago Sanitary Officer Burgess made an investigation of the matter, and finding it to be outside the city limits, notified the township authorities.

THE FIRST CARS

Run Over the New Extension as far as the State Line Yesterday.

The East Liverpool railway company yesterday operated cars over the new East End extension as far as the state line, the extension being completed this far.

The company will commence next Sunday to run regularly over this part of the road, and would have commenced this morning, but some repairs have to be made to the track before regular operations are commenced.

Travel on this road yesterday was unusually heavy.

Children's Day Services.

An interesting program is being arranged by the children of the Neville Institute Sunday school for the children's day exercises next Sunday afternoon. The same service will also be observed in the Erie street M. E. church and a program is being arranged. Sunday evening baptism service will also be observed.

Suit of Baker vs. Moates.

The case of Baker vs. Moates, which was to have been heard before Justice L. W. Carman Saturday evening, was deferred until tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, when the case will be tried by a jury. Baker seeks to recover $24.

Quarterly Conference.

The quarterly conference of the Erie street M. E. church was held Saturday evening. Dr. C. E. Manchester, presiding elder of the Steubenville district, presided. At the service last evening the quarterly communion was observed.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

The Federal Building and Loan association today removed to its new quarters in the Dixon property on Mulberry street. The main office has all the appearance of a bank.

The tribe of Ben Hur of the East End and of East Liverpool will attend a memorial service in a body next Sunday morning at the Second M. E. church. The sermon will be delivered by Rev. George W. Orcutt.

Rev. Mr. McVey, of Lawrence, Mass., yesterday conducted both morning and evening services at the Second U. P. church. A meeting of the congregation of this church will be held on Wednesday evening to call a pastor.

The next meeting of the Prohibition Alliance of the East End, will be held next Thursday evening at the residence of Archie Searight on Pennsylvania avenue next Thursday evening. Several new members are to be admitted.

EXCITED WARM DEBATE

Committee Cut It to $100, But Rev. J. G. Reinartz Got It Up to $200.

New Castle, Pa., June 2.—At the sessions of the Pittsburgh synod of the Evangelical church here Saturday the appropriation of $400 for the Wilkinsburg congregation caused a warm discussion. Rev. J. L. Smith wanted to have the appropriation cut out. The appropriation was finally agreed upon unanimously.

The question of the East Liverpool appropriation brought about another warm fight. The committee had reduced it to $100 from $225. The pastor of the East Liverpool congregation was here to protest against the reduction. He said the cost of living had increased 30 or 40 per cent during the last few years, but instead of the church raising his salary to meet the demand, it sought to reduce it $100 a year.

The pastor, Rev. J. G. Reinartz, said: "My credit is at stake in that town. I have been able to meet my obligations, but if my salary is reduced I will not be able to do so. Rather than lose my credit I would leave the ministry and dig dirt."

The discussion revealed the fact that Rev. Mr. Reinartz had received a number of calls from other churches, all offering him more salary than he receives in East Liverpool, and one offer even doubling this amount. He has been in East Liverpool for 16 years, and has built the church from 8 to 173 members. They have a fine church property, but are not yet self-supporting. The discussion became very warm, but was finally settled by an almost unanimous vote favoring an appropriation of $200 for this year.

GRADUATING CLASS

Commencement Exercises Last Week at East Palestine and Columbiana.

The commencement exercises of the graduating class at East Palestine were held Memorial day evening. The class numbered 12. The address was delivered by Prof. F. J. Roller, of the Niles public schools. The following are the names of the graduates: Clifford W. Allcorn, John S. Atchison, H. Edward Crowl, Sadie Early, Eliza A. Fleming, Myrtle Frankland, Minnie Harding, Harold D. Lincoln, Maude Pancake, Earl Lincoln, Grace Suthern, William A. Suthern.

The graduating exercises of the Columbiana high school were held Thursday evening. The class is composed of nine members, as follows: Ralph Mellinger, Leon Houlette, Roy Weaver, Earl McCurry, Vera Windle, Aldine Metzler, Iva Renkenberger, Clarence Rupert and Mabel Caughey. The class address was made by Charles C. Bow, a prominent attorney of Canton.

SALINEVILLE

Salineville, June 2.—Memorial services were conducted May 25 by Rev. Messrs. Dean, Grimm and Rader at the United Presbyterian church. In a union service, Rev. Mr. Dean, of the U. P. church, preached an able and patriotic sermon. The G. A. R. and a number of ex-soldiers occupied front seats. The Memorial day services Friday were well carried out.

Mrs. John C. Haverfield, of Cadiz, after a brief visit at the parental home in this town, has returned to her family.

Miss Cassie Harvey, a colored young lady of Hayti, fell and fractured both bones of her ankle. Dr. Blazure, of the East End, reduced the fracture. At last accounts she was doing well.

Miss E. Anna Thompson, after a 10-days' visit among her East Liverpool and Salineville relatives, has returned to New York city.

DECLARED STRIKE UNFAIR.

Thompson Said It Would Make Independent Furnaces Pay More For Production Than Combine.

Youngstown, O., June 2.—The furnacemen's strike, affecting all the independent and the Republic Iron and Steel company's furnaces in the Mahoning and Shenango valleys, began yesterday morning. The Hubbard furnace, the only one in operation yesterday, closed down last night, throwing, all told, 3,600 men out of work.

No United States Steel corporation mills were affected, but President McMahon, of the union, asserted that some of them will be closed within a few days.

President Thompson, of the Republic Iron and Steel company, said yesterday that the strike is an unfair one to that company, the union forcing the independent furnaces into a position which requires 50 per cent greater cost for production than the United States Steel corporation pays.

No word has been received from the Pittsburgh and Ohio river districts, although four Pittsburgh furnaces may be closed down today.

Four Dead; One Reported Dying.

New York, June 2.—Max Kasten, 32 years old, and Mrs. Lydia McKrow, the same age, lost their lives yesterday in a fire which swept away many buildings at Rockaway Beach. Thomas S. McKrow and his 5-year-old son, Frank; Martin Hanson, 28, an Morris Kasten, 75, were injured and taken to the hospital in Long Island city. Several hours later young McKrow died and the father was reported to be dying. The body of a man was found burned to a crisp in one of the buildings. He is supposed to have been a candy maker. A number of persons received slight burns. Loss estimated at about $120,000.

EXCITED WARM DEBATE

Committee Cut It to $100, But Rev. J. G. Reinartz Got It Up to $200.

New Castle, Pa., June 2.—At the sessions of the Pittsburgh synod of the Evangelical church here Saturday the appropriation of $400 for the Wilkinsburg congregation caused a warm discussion. Rev. J. L. Smith wanted to have the appropriation cut out. The appropriation was finally agreed upon unanimously.

The question of the East Liverpool appropriation brought about another warm fight. The committee had reduced it to $100 from $225. The pastor of the East Liverpool congregation was here to protest against the reduction. He said the cost of living had increased 30 or 40 per cent during the last few years, but instead of the church raising his salary to meet the demand, it sought to reduce it $100 a year.

The pastor, Rev. J. G. Reinartz, said: "My credit is at stake in that town. I have been able to meet my obligations, but if my salary is reduced I will not be able to do so. Rather than lose my credit I would leave the ministry and dig dirt."

The discussion revealed the fact that Rev. Mr. Reinartz had received a number of calls from other churches, all offering him more salary than he receives in East Liverpool, and one offer even doubling this amount. He has been in East Liverpool for 16 years, and has built the church from 8 to 173 members. They have a fine church property, but are not yet self-supporting. The discussion became very warm, but was finally settled by an almost unanimous vote favoring an appropriation of $200 for this year.

DECLARED STRIKE UNFAIR.

Thompson Said It Would Make Independent Furnaces Pay More For Production Than Combine.

Youngstown, O., June 2.—The furnacemen's strike, affecting all the independent and the Republic Iron and Steel company's furnaces in the Mahoning and Shenango valleys, began yesterday morning. The Hubbard furnace, the only one in operation yesterday, closed down last night, throwing, all told, 3,000 men out of work.

No United States Steel corporation mills were affected, but President McMahon, of the union, asserted that some of them will be closed within a few days.

President Thompson, of the Republic Iron and Steel company, said yesterday that the strike is an unfair one to that company, the union forcing the independent furnaces into a position which requires 50 per cent greater cost for production than the United States Steel corporation pays.

No word has been received from the Pittsburgh and Ohio river districts, although four Pittsburgh furnaces may be closed down today.

Four Dead; One Reported Dying.

New York, June 2.—Max Kasten, 32 years old, and Mrs. Lydia McKrow, the same age, lost their lives yesterday in a fire which swept away many buildings at Rockaway Beach. Thomas S. McKrow and his 5-year-old son, Frank; Martin Hanson, 28, an Morris Kasten, 75, were injured and taken to the hospital in Long Island city. Several hours later young McKrow died and the father was reported to be dying. The body of a man was found burned to a crisp in one of the buildings. He is supposed to have been a candy maker. A number of persons received slight burns. Loss estimated at about $120,000.

MAY FLOOD MINES.

Order For Pumpmen and others
to Go Out Went Into Effect
This Morning.

TEST OF THE UNION STRENGTH.

If the Employers Can Keep the Water Out of Their Workings, the Strike of the Anthracite Miners May Be Lost.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., June 2.—At 7 o'clock this morning the order of the United Mine Workers of America calling out all the stationary engineers, firemen and pumpmen, unless the companies granted them an eight-hour day at present wages, went into effect, and no one can foretell the outcome of the new movement. Victory for either side will be of immense advantage, and both parties to the controversy are striving with all the power at their command to win. If the union succeeds in shutting down the pumps the mine properties will suffer damage that may reach into millions of dollars, and if the employers should be able to keep the water out of their workings without the aid of organized labor it means that the power of the union in the anthracite region has reached its limit and that all help in the effort to force the mine owners to grant the demands of the great army of 147,000 men must come from some outside source. The mine workers say they will preserve the property of the companies if the engineers, pumpmen and firemen are given what they ask for, and the companies say they will permit no outsiders to fix the hours and wages of their men. Neither side last night showed the slightest disposition to yield, and in the words of one mining superintendent, "It is a fight to the finish." President Mitchell said last night that it is the first time in the history of his organization that the union was compelled to call out this class of employees and thus endanger the safety of the mines. In all other instances, he said, the demands of the men were granted.

Non-Union Men in the Region.

Practically all the non-union men to be employed are now in the region. The companies say that the number of those who have volunteered to fill strikers' places has been surprisingly large, and that no difficulty has been encountered in selecting good men. An army of approximately 3,000 armed coal and iron policemen, sworn in under a law of the state of Pennsylvania, was in the field last night, ready to protect these men and the mining properties. There are also scattered through the coal country, it is said, 1,000 men who are doing secret work for the companies. Every colliery in the coal belt has either a board or a barbed wire fence around it. At some of the mines "camp" cars are lying on the sidings for the accommodation of non-union men, most of whom will live within the colliery confines during the suspension. Hazleton, Pa., June 2.—The scene that occurred here Saturday night upon the arrival of a deputation of special officers was repeated at 7:30 o'clock last night, when about 20 officers, in charge of a coal company agent, boarded a trolley car at the Hazleton house for Freeland. The streets of the city were crowded and when the officers came into sight about 500 men rushed at them, hissing and yelling. It was feared that the crowd would attack the officers and trouble would undoubtedly have occurred had not Chief of Police Ferry and four of his men held the excited strike sympathizers back until the car left. As the car started the yelling and hissing was resumed. Two of the imported men remained in the city, and as they proceeded through the crowd under police protection to their hotel they were also hooded.

Servant Girls Wouldn't Serve Them.

The ten servant girls at the Hazleton house, where some of the officers are quartered, were prevailed upon immediately after this episode to quit and they left their posts with declarations that they would not wait upon the imported men.

NICARAGUA CANAL BILL.

It Is to Come Up After the Philippine Bill Is Disposed of in the Senate.

Washington, June 2.—Under the terms of the unanimous agreement reached last Wednesday the senate will vote at 4 o'clock Tuesday on the bill providing a form of civil government for the Philippine islands, and the entire intervening time of the senate's sessions will be devoted to 15-minute speeches on the bill. The senate will meet at 11 o'clock today and tomorrow for the purpose of giving additional time for the discussion. A large number of short speeches will be made, but no order for their delivery has been agreed on.

Canal Bill to Come Up.

The general understanding now is that on Wednesday, after the disposal of the Philippine bill, the Nicaragua canal bill will be called up and made the regular order of business. There will be an effort made to substitute for the Nicaragua bill the bill introduced by Senator Spooner, leaving to the discretion of the president the selection of an isthmian canal route, and its champions are claiming a majority of the senate will support them. The friends of the Nicaragua route and also the advocates of a policy that would leave the president discretion as to routes now say there is no necessity or prospect for prolonged debate. A number of speeches, however, already have been announced. Senator Hanna will speak at length for the Spooner bill, as will Senator Kittredge. Among those who have indicated their purpose of addressing the senate in the interest of the Nicaragua route are Senators Harris, Mitchell, Foster, of Louisiana; Turner and Morgan.

The present understanding is that the Cuban reciprocity bill will not be discussed during the week. That measure is still in committee, but probably will be reported on Tuesday or Wednesday, its terms having been practically agreed on by the Republican members of the committee, and Senator Platt, of Connecticut, chairman of the committee, having indicated his purpose to lay the bill before the full membership at an early day. The bill agreed on provides for a straight reduction for five years of 20 per cent of the duty on Cuban goods coming into the United States without imposing conditions as to immigration and labor laws, or, indeed, any other conditions.

Republican Senators to Caucus.

It is the present intention to have the Republican senators caucus on the bill when reported, with the hope of making it a party measure and of thus avoiding the division in the party ranks which was experienced over the question in the house of representatives. The naval and District of Columbia appropriation bills probably will be reported during the week, but their immediate consideration will depend largely on the readiness of senators to continue the discussion of the canal question.

DECISION ON SHERMAN'S WILL.

Opinion Handed Down Against Mrs. McCallum's Claims.

Mansfield, O., June 2.—Judge Dirham rendered an opinion in construction of the will of John Sherman in the common pleas court Saturday morning. Mrs. Mary S. McCallum, of Washington, Mrs. Sherman's adopted daughter, contended that the devisees of Mrs. Sherman fell to her as sole heir, and did not return to the estate for division under the will of Mr. Sherman. Judge Dirham held against this contention, finding that the devisees and the legacies to the wife fell into the residuum of the estate and were carried by the residuary clauses.

The effect of this is to divide the property which Mrs. McCallum claims as heir of Mrs. Sherman among the six legatees under Mr. Sherman's will, five of the Sherman blood and Mrs. McCallum, the adopted daughter. It amounts to about $35,000. Mr. Sherman gave Mrs. McCallum a marble residence in Washington when she was married. Under the will she received a bequest of $100,000 and by a codicil the Sherman residence in Washington. The residuary clauses are said to carry about $2,000,000 worth of property.

Fire in Hollidaysburg, Pa.

Hollidaysburg, Pa., June 2.—A fire of incendiary origin Saturday night destroyed the Phoenix fire engine house, W. H. Goodfellow's Sons' warehouse, wrecked the Hollidaysburg opera house and damaged the Law-lect business block. The stock of merchandise in Frank Glessner's department store, W. H. Goodfellow's Sons' hardware store and John Law's clothing store were damaged by fire and water. The total loss approximated $41,000.

COUNTY AND NEIGHBORHOOD

John Archibald, of East Palestine, has bought the Noonday newspaper, of Rogers.

Squire George Carson, the oldest resident of Berlin, Mahoning county, is dead, aged 90.

William Curvan, an old soldier from Franklin Square, fell from the high bridge on the Ft. Wayne railroad below Salem and broke his hip.

Major H. B. Ramey, of Warren, was elected colonel of the Fifth regiment, Ohio National Guard, to succeed Colonel D. H. Pond, of Cleveland.

Lewis Farlow, an electrician at the Ohio steel plant, Youngstown, was injured and died a short time after. He was crushed between two cars.

George Holdereith, of Boston, visited his father, John Holdereith, in Salem. It was 20 years since they had met and neither knew the other at first.

The resignation of Rev. C. C. Waite as pastor of the Sharon (Pa.) Christian church has been accepted, and he will preach his farewell sermon June 8.

On petition of Samuel Irwin, a stock holder, William H. Campbell has been appointed receiver for the Buckeye Waterproof Sign company, of Toronto.

The Melbourne brick plant at Malvern was sold to the Crown Clay company, of Akron, for $55,000. The new company will also manufacture conduits and hollow ware.

E. C. Moore, of Painesville, a B. & O. fireman, was pinioned down under a wreck at Youngstown for hours, during which time his leg was nearly burned off. He is likely to recover.

The Greer-Beatty Clay company, which is building a plant on the Beatty farm, near Magnolia, has organized by electing Wallen M. Beatty, president; R. E. Greer, vice president; C. S. Greer, secretary.

Benjamin S. Lawrence, a bridge builder, of Toronto, has married his own stepmother, Hattie Lawrence, widow of his father, who died recently. She is about 30, or nearly the same age as her husband, and it is her third marriage.

Wintering in Colorado And Utah.

The climate of Colorado and Utah has long been world famous, but it is only within recent years that attention has been given to the delightful winter climate of these states. Today physicians all over the United States send their patients to Colorado and Utah to escape the rigors of eastern winters and to benefit by her invigorating atmosphere and health-giving sunshine.

It is not necessary to add an elaborate argument—the conclusion is self-evident and inevitable. The winter climate of Colorado and Utah on the whole presents advantages for the invalid and the pleasure-seeker that cannot fail to command attention.

An erroneous impression prevails that because the Rocky mountains have a high elevation the mercury in the thermometer drops down below zero in the winter season and stops there, and that the snow mounts up with the altitude. The fact is that the average precipitation of moisture in the lowlands of the mountain region during the entire year is only 14.15 inches. With such average precipitation there is practically no danger of snow blockades on the railroads, save at a few points exposed to drifts and these points have been amply protected. This is especially true of the lines of the Denver & Rio Grande and the Rio Grande Western between Denver and Ogden at all seasons of the year. Facts speak for themselves, and the fact is that travel over "The Scenic Line of the World" has gone on with less interruption from snow blockades during the last ten winters than it has upon the majority of railroads in other localities which are popularly supposed to be more free from such delays than the mountain systems. THREE IMPORTANT BILLS.

House Will Likely Act Upon Them This Week.

Washington, June 2.—During the coming week the house probably will act on three important bills which the rules committee decided, some time ago, to bring before that body at the earliest opportunity. These are the anti-anarchy bill, the Pacific cable bill, and the senate irrigation bill. No time limit is to be set on the anti-anarchy bill, consideration of which will be entered on today, but it is not believed that it will occupy more than two days.

A day is to be given to the bill for the government cable to the Philippines and three days to the irrigation bill. In case the general deficiency bill, the last of the big appropriation bills, is ready before the end of the week, the program above outlined may be interrupted, as appropriation bills and conference reports are to have the right of way under the terms of the special orders which the committee on rules has passed.

MAY FLOOD MINES.

to Go Out Went Into Effect
This Morning.

TEST OF THE UNION STRENGTH.

If the Employers Can Keep the Water Out of Their Workings, the Strike of the Anthracite Miners
May Be Lost.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., June 2.—At 7 o'clock this morning the order of the United Mine Workers of America calling out all the stationary engineers, firemen and pumpmen, unless the companies granted them an eight-hour day at present wages, went into effect, and no one can foretell the outcome of the new movement. Victory for either side will be of immense advantage, and both parties to the controversy are striving with all the power at their command to win. If the union succeeds in shutting down the pumps the mine properties will suffer damage that may reach into millions of dollars, and if the employers should be able to keep the water out of their workings without the aid of organized labor it means that the power of the union in the anthracite region has reached its limit and that all help in the effort to force the mine owners to grant the demands of the great army of 147,000 men must come from some outside source. The mine workers say they will preserve the property of the companies if the engineers, pumpmen and firemen are given what they ask for, and the companies say they will permit no outsiders to fix the hours and wages of their men. Neither side last night showed the slightest disposition to yield, and in the words of one mining superintendent, "It is a fight to the finish." President Mitchell said last night that it is the first time in the history of his organization that this union was compelled to call out this class of employes and thus endanger the safety of the mines. In all other instances, he said, the demands of the men were granted.

Non-Union Men In the Region.

Practically all the non-union men to be employed are now in the region. The companies say that the number of those who have volunteered to fill strikers' places has been surprisingly large, and that no difficulty has been encountered in selecting good men. An army of approximately 3,000 armed coal and iron policemen, sworn in under a law of the state of Pennsylvania, was in the field last night, ready to protect these men and the mining properties. There are also scattered through the coal country, it is said, 1,000 men who are doing secret work for the companies. Every colliery in the coal belt has either a board or a barbed wire fence around it. At some of the mines "camp" cars are lying on the sidings for the accommodation of non-union men, most of whom will live within the colliery confines during the suspension. Hazleton, Pa., June 2.—The scene that occurred here Saturday night upon the arrival of a deputation of special officers was repeated at 7:30 o'clock last night, when about 20 officers, in charge of a coal company agent, boarded a trolley car at the Hazleton house for Freeland. The streets of the city were crowded and when the officers came into sight about 500 men rushed at them, hissing and yelling. It was feared that the crowd would attack the officers and trouble would undoubtedly have occurred had not Chief of Police Ferry and four of his men held the excited strike sympathizers back until the car left. As the car started the yelling and hissing was resumed. Two of the imported men remained in the city, and as they proceeded through the crowd under police protection to their hotel they were also hooted.

Servant Girls Wouldn't Serve Them.

The ten servant girls at the Hazleton house, where some of the officers were quartered, were prevailed upon immediately after this episode to quit and they left their posts with declarations that they would not wait upon the imported men.

NERVOUS EXHAUSTION

An Every Day History—High Strung, Nervous, Excitable, Constant Headaches, No Rest at Night, Heart Weak, Appetite Poor, Loss of Weight, Strength All Gone.

Read the following:
Mrs. G. L. Yager, of No. 152 Broadway, East Liverpool, Ohio, says: "Dr. A. W. Chase's medicine are all good. Past experience with them led me to use the doctor's Nerve Pills. I got them at Larkins' drug store, as I was nervous, run down, felt miserable and the heart action was weak and irregular. The medicine made me strong and my nerves steady. The heart action regular and strong, and altogether a different person, as I feel well and healthy again."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50 cents a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine company, Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.

NICARAGUA CANAL BILL.

It Is to Come Up After the Philippine Bill Is Disposed of in the Senate.

Washington, June 2.—Under the terms of the unanimous agreement reached last Wednesday the senate will vote at 4 o'clock Tuesday on the bill providing a form of civil government for the Philippine islands, and the entire intervening time of the senate's sessions will be devoted to 15-minute speeches on the bill. The senate will meet at 11 o'clock today and tomorrow for the purpose of giving additional time for the discussion. A large number of short speeches will be made, but no order for their delivery has been agreed on.

Canal Bill to Come Up.

The general understanding now is that on Wednesday, after the disposal of the Philippine bill, the Nicaragua canal bill will be called up and made the regular order of business. There will be an effort made to substitute for the Nicaragua bill the bill introduced by Senator Spooner, leaving to the discretion of the president the selection of an isthmian canal route, and its champions are claiming a majority of the senate will support them. The friends of the Nicaragua route and also the advocates of a policy that would leave the president discretion as to routes now say there is no necessity or prospect for prolonged debate. A number of speeches, however, already have been announced. Senator Hanna will speak at length for the Spooner bill, as will Senator Kittredge. Among those who have indicated their purpose of addressing the senate in the interest of the Nicaragua route are Senators Harris, Mitchell, Foster, of Louisiana; Turner and Morgan.

The present understanding is that the Cuban reciprocity bill will not be discussed during the week. That measure is still in committee, but probably will be reported on Tuesday or Wednesday, its terms having been practically agreed on by the Republican members of the committee, and Senator Platt, of Connecticut, chairman of the committee, having indicated his purpose to lay the bill before the full membership at an early day. The bill agreed on provides for a straight reduction for five years of 20 per cent of the duty on Cuban goods coming into the United States without imposing conditions as to immigration and labor laws, or, indeed, any other conditions.

Republican Senators to Caucus.

It is the present intention to have the Republican senators caucus on the bill when reported, with the hope of making it a party measure and of thus avoiding the division in the party ranks which was experienced over the question in the house of representatives. The naval and District of Columbia appropriation bills probably will be reported during the week, but their immediate consideration will depend largely on the readiness of senators to continue the discussion of the canal question.

DECISION ON SHERMAN'S WILL.

Opinion Handed Down Against Mrs. McCallum's Claims.

Mansfield, O., June 2.—Judge Dirlam rendered an opinion in construction of the will of John Sherman in the common pleas court Saturday morning. Mrs. Mary S. McCallum, of Washington, Mrs. Sherman's adopted daughter, contended that the devisees of Mrs. Sherman fell to her as sole heir, and did not return to the estate for division under the will of Mr. Sherman. Judge Dirlam held against this contention, finding that the devisees and the legacies to the wife fell into the residuum of the estate and were carried by the residuary clauses.

The effect of this is to divide the property which Mrs. McCallum claims as heir of Mrs. Sherman among the six legatees under Mr. Sherman's will, five of the Sherman blood and Mrs. McCallum, the adopted daughter. It amounts to about $35,000. Mr. Sherman gave Mrs. McCallum a marble residence in Washington when she was married. Under the will she received a bequest of $100,000 and by a codicil the Sherman residence in Washington. The residuary clauses are said to carry about $2,000,000 worth of property.

Fire in Hollidaysburg, Pa.

Hollidaysburg, Pa., June 2.—A fire of incendiary origin Saturday night destroyed the Phoenix fire engine house, W. H. Goodfellow's Sons' warehouse, wrecked the Hollidaysburg opera house and damaged the Law-leet business block. The stock of merchandise in Frank Glessner's department store, W. H. Goodfellow's Sons' hardware store and John Law's clothing store were damaged by fire and water. The total loss approximated $41,000.

Prominent Hotel Proprietor Dead.

Cincinnati, June 2.—A. G. Corrie, aged 61 years, president and principal owner of the Grand hotel and the Gibson house, in this city, died yesterday, after an illness of three months. He had been in the hotel business here more than 49 years, as proprietor of the old Spencer house and the Broadway hotel, in former years, and accumulated a large fortune.

Wintering in Colorado And Utah. The climate of Colorado and Utah has long been world famous, but it is only within recent years that attention has been given to the delightful winter climate of these states. Today physicians all over the United States send their patients to Colorado and Utah to escape the rigors of eastern winters and to benefit by her invigorating atmosphere and health-giving sunshine.

It is not necessary to add an elaborate argument—the conclusion is self-evident and inevitable. The winter climate of Colorado and Utah on the whole presents advantages for the invalid and the pleasure-seeker that cannot fail to command attention.

An erroneous impression prevails that because the Rocky mountains have a high elevation the mercury in the thermometer drops down below zero in the winter season and stops there, and that the snow mounts up with the altitude. The fact is that the average precipitation of moisture in the lowlands of the mountain region during the entire year is only 14.15 inches. With such average precipitation there is practically no danger of snow blockades on the railroads, save at a few points exposed to drifts and these points have been amply protected. This is especially true of the lines of the Denver & Rio Grande and the Rio Grande Western between Denver and Ogden at all seasons of the year. Facts speak for themselves, and the fact is that travel over "The Scenic Line of the World" has gone on with less interruption from snow blockades during the last ten winters than it has upon the majority of railroads in other localities which are popularly supposed to be more free from such delays than the mountain systems. THREE IMPORTANT BILLS.

House Will Likely Act Upon Them This Week.

Washington, June 2.—During the coming week the house probably will act on three important bills which the rules committee decided, some time ago, to bring before that body at the earliest opportunity. These are the anti-anarchy bill, the Pacific cable bill, and the senate irrigation bill. No time limit is to be set on the anti-anarchy bill, consideration of which will be entered on today, but it is not believed that it will occupy more than two days.

A day is to be given to the bill for the government cable to the Philippines and three days to the irrigation bill. In case the general deficiency bill, the last of the big appropriation bills, is ready before the end of the week, the program above outlined may be interrupted, as appropriation bills and conference reports are to have the right of way under the terms of the special orders which the committee on rules has passed.

NEURALGYLINE FOR THE NERVES

relieves neuralgia and other nervous pains. It relieves them quickly. It is absolutely harmless. By quieting the nerves, it removes the cause of all nervous diseases. When your head feels as if thousands of pins were sticking in it, when your night's rest is broken by these awful neuralgic pains, when, on account of your awful suffering, you become moose and cross, when you are tired of your very existence, when, in short, you are in the grasp of that fiendish disease, Neuralgia, buy a box of Neuralgylne.

Take one pill. Twenty minutes after you have taken it, your pains will have vanished as if by magic. You only have yourself to blame now if you continue to have Neuralgic pains, for Neuralgylne relieves pain permanently.

TESTIMONIALS—Every sale of Neuralgylne insures a satisfied customer, who by telling of its merits, makes new customers. Mr. E. F. LILL, Druggist, Canton, Ohio. I recommend Neuralgylne as a permanent cure for Neuralgia and neuralgic headache. W. SCOTT, M. D., Ormond, Florida.

They have been relieved of their awful suffering, as can you. Every first-class druggist in town sells Neuralgylne. Price 50c a box. If you find that Neuralgylne is not as represented, money will be cheerfully refunded. Samples free on request.

There is rejoicing in London and in Pretoria, and there will be rejoicing throughout the world as the news spreads that the struggle between Boer and Briton is at an end. It was, as all the world except the Boers recognized at the start, a vain and useless contest. In the years of warfare they have gained nothing except a reputation for valor, which is indeed small compensation for the lives and treasure sacrificed. However America may sympathize with the republican spirit that started the revolt and kept it alive, the outcome of the struggle is only what the world expected. The Boers are not progressive, and their leaders have been men who typified their people. Their government was primitive. It was also tainted with dishonesty and injustice. There was neither freedom of religion, freedom of education, nor equal rights in the so-called republics. Education, industry and commerce; the reclamation of Africa and the development of its magnificent resources will all move forward faster than would have been possible under the old conditions. Repairing war's waste is a weary and difficult task. But it is not a profitless one. The cessation of warfare and the revival of industry in South Africa will be felt throughout the world. There are old railroads to be rebuilt, re-equipped and put in running order; new railroads to be constructed and provided with rolling stock. Farming implements, building material and countless other things will be in demand, and the outside world will profit by the avenues of trade soon to be opened. The misfortunes of the Boers mean gains for other peoples. This is the history of wars, the world over. But the fact on which the world is most to be congratulated is that peace has been established, and that it is likely to be permanent.

The approaching completion of the great Trans-Siberian railway calls public attention afresh to one of the most colossal engineering enterprises of the century. All that remains to complete the great undertaking is a tunnel through the Hinkan mountains in Manchuria, which is now under construction. When the imperial ukase for the completion of this road was issued in May, 1891, it was estimated that it would cost 24,000,000 rubles, and that it would take five years to build it. It has taken over eleven years to build it, and the cost has reached the enormous sum of 750,000,000 rubles, or about $375,000,000. American interest has been stimulated in this enterprise not only through the important part that American tools and machinery have played in the construction of the road, but because of its effect upon commercial conditions and upon the markets of the world. Whatever may be the result to America, it is certain that the completion of the road will add millions to the wealth of Russia, and stimulate industry in a part of the world where such stimulus is sadly needed.

Commenting on the fact that Congressman Taylor finds it necessary to quit the national legislature in order to make money, the Mansfield

News remarks: "Congressman Taylor, unlike some men who go to congress, does not see his way clear to amassing a fortune on a salary of $5,000 a year." And that is one excellent reason why his absence from the national legislature will be regretted.

Inventor Edison, like Tesla, is not given to boasting. His announcement, therefore, that he has perfected a light, cheap and serviceable storage battery which can be attached to vehicles and do the work of the horse better than any horse possibly could, is bound to attract attention. Edison has invented hundreds of devices and has never fathered a failure.

There is an intimation that ex-Attorney General Judson Harmon, of Cincinnati, is willing to sacrifice himself on the altar of Democracy by becoming a candidate for president. Besides being a gold standard man, he is, in the words of Artemus Ward, "no politician and his other habits are good," so that it is improbable that his party will seriously consider him.

Aguiinaldo is not to be a paramount issue in the coming congressional campaign of the Democracy. That party will attack the trusts and the tariff, under the delusion that they are kindred.

Welcome to the visiting potters! Their East Liverpool brethren understand the art of showing them a good time and will exemplify it with zeal and enthusiasm.

WHAT IS GOING ON IN THE POTTERIES

While the eastern trade journals have been that independent factories generally do a good business.

A good story is going the rounds about a pottery firm whose plant is located not a thousand miles from this city, and one which has not been in business for more than two years. Recently a pottery buyer from New York entered the office of this firm and told of his wants. Knowing the man to be a shrewd buyer, the office man, who was one of the largest stockholders in the concern, said: "Yes, we will sell you all the ware you want for $1,250, even if it's a carload," designating the ware by the gesture of the hand. "Won't give you more than $850," said the buyer, "and that is all." After talking the matter over for a time the deal was made and the ware ordered shipped immediately. A check for the amount was written at once and the buyer left the office. In walking to the station to board a train for the city the New Yorker saw three cars standing near the station, one of them a furniture car, and empty. This was ordered sent to the pottery and soon the packers were working on the car. Finally, seeing that more ware was being loaded into the car than was expected, the man who made the sale commenced counting up the cost of a carload of ware, and the production. He expressed his surprise when it was discovered that it cost the company just $2,500 to produce the amount that was sold for $850.

Business is said to be so good with the New Castle Pottery company that work will be commenced at once erecting two additional kilns. The contract for their erection has been let to Gamble & Surles, of this city, and the work is to be completed not later than July 1. This company is said to be also considering the plan of building another plant of seven kilns for the making of thin china exclusively. The company has been experimenting on this class of ware for several months, and it is reported that all of these experiments have been entirely successful.

At the last meeting of the pottery printers employed in Trenton plants a preliminary organization was completed, and at a meeting that will be held in eastern Brotherhood headquarters next Thursday evening permanent officers will be elected. An application will at once be made for a charter from the Brotherhood. This is said to be the result of the recent convention at Trenton.

All the machinery has been shipped from this city to the new clay mines to be opened up at Henry, Va., by the Blue Ridge Kaolin company, of which D. E. McNicol is president. Charles N. Forster will have charge of the mines for the present. Mr. Forster is also interested with Mr. McNicol. The clay deposits at this mine are very large, and the clay is of an extremely fine nature.

It is said that one firm in the city which has received some large orders from in the vicinity of Scranton, in the heart of the coal trouble at present, had considerable of the business canceled during the week.

Col. Brewer, arrested at Tiffin on a murder charge, is a direct descendant of John Hart, one of the signers of the declaration of independence. He is well known in this city.

A decision has been reached whereby no person but Brotherhood kilnmen shall be employed at the Egyptian pottery at Trenton.

"Chamberet" is the name of a new novelty that is being made by the Taylor Pottery company, of Chester.

A new Westinghouse light and power plant is being installed at the plant of the Wheeling Pottery company.

Brewer is to be placed in Riverview cemetery in that city. It seems this has not met with the approval of some of the Trenton people, who would like to see the tribute in a more public place, or in a business center.

There is said to be a closeness in the purchasing of all pottery materials. "What is the best quotation?" is the first question that is now asked of all salesmen when an attempt is made to sell clays, colors or other materials.

Strikes in various lines of business in other states have had some effect on orders for crockery. While some of the smaller strikes have been settled, the coal strike in Pennsylvania is still holding business back from that state.

On account of the Brotherhood outing at Rock Springs today, none of the locals that meet on Monday evening will get together tonight. The business will be deferred until the next meeting, one week hence.

Manufacturing potters during the past few weeks report collections as being very slow. Some improvement in this condition was seen in May over April, but there is still much room for improvement.

There is rejoicing in London and in Pretoria, and there will be rejoicing throughout the world as the news spreads that the struggle between Boer and Briton is at an end. It was, as all the world except the Boers recognized at the start, a vain and useless contest. In the years of warfare they have gained nothing except a reputation for valor, which is indeed small compensation for the lives and treasure sacrificed. However America may sympathize with the republican spirit that started the revolt and kept it alive, the outcome of the struggle is only what the world expected. The Boers are not progressive, and their leaders have been men who typified their people. Their government was primitive. It was also tainted with dishonesty and injustice. There was neither freedom of religion, freedom of education, nor equal rights in the so-called republics. Education, industry and commerce; the reclamation of Africa and the development of its magnificent resources will all move forward faster than would have been possible under the old conditions. Repairing war's waste is a weary and difficult task. But it is not a profitless one. The cessation of warfare and the revival of industry in South Africa will be felt throughout the world. There are old railroads to be rebuilt, re-equipped and put in running order; new railroads to be constructed and provided with rolling stock. Farming implements, building material and countless other things will be in demand, and the outside world will profit by the avenues of trade soon to be opened. The misfortunes of the Boers mean gains for other peoples. This is the history of wars, the world over. But the fact on which the world is most to be congratulated is that peace has been established, and that it is likely to be permanent.

The approaching completion of the great Trans-Siberian railway calls public attention afresh to one of the most colossal engineering enterprises of the century. All that remains to complete the great undertaking is a tunnel through the Hinkan mountains in Manchuria, which is now under construction. When the imperial ukase for the completion of this road was issued in May, 1891, it was estimated that it would cost 24,000,000 rubles, and that it would take five years to build it. It has taken over eleven years to build it, and the cost has reached the enormous sum of 750,000,000 rubles, or about $375,000,000. American interest has been stimulated in this enterprise not only through the important part that American tools and machinery have played in the construction of the road, but because of its effect upon commercial conditions and upon the markets of the world. Whatever may be the result to America, it is certain that the completion of the road will add millions to the wealth of Russia, and stimulate industry in a part of the world where such stimulus is sadly needed.

Commenting on the fact that Congressman Taylor finds it necessary to quit the national legislature in order to make money, the Mansfield

News remarks: "Congressman Taylor, unlike some men who go to congress, does not see his way clear to amassing a fortune on a salary of $5,000 a year." And that is one excellent reason why his absence from the national legislature will be regretted.

Inventor Edison, like Tesla, is not given to boasting. His announcement, therefore, that he has perfected a light, cheap and serviceable storage battery which can be attached to vehicles and do the work of the horse better than any horse possibly could, is bound to attract attention. Edison has invented hundreds of devices and has never fathered a failure.

There is an intimation that ex-Attorney General Judson Harmon, of Cincinnati, is willing to sacrifice himself on the altar of Democracy by becoming a candidate for president. Besides being a gold standard man, he is, in the words of Artemus Ward, "no politician and his other habits are good," so that it is improbable that his party will seriously consider him.

Aguinaldo is not to be a paramount issue in the coming congressional campaign of the Democracy. That party will attack the trusts and the tariff, under the delusion that they are kindred.

Welcome to the visiting potters! Their East Liverpool brethren understand the art of showing them a good time and will exemplify it with zeal and enthusiasm.

The Ohio Democratic platform is going to be strongly "anti." Why not repeat the Cleveland utterance and declare "We are agin it?"

The volcanoes in Alaska are warming up. Perhaps they will improve the climate up there.

WHAT IS GOING ON IN THE POTTERIES

While the eastern trade journals have been that independent factories generally do a good business.

A good story is going the rounds about a pottery firm whose plant is located not a thousand miles from this city, and one which has not been in business for more than two years. Recently a pottery buyer from New York entered the office of this firm and told of his wants. Knowing the man to be a shrewd buyer, the office man, who was one of the largest stockholders in the concern, said: "Yes, we will sell you all the ware you want for $1.25, even if it's a carload," designating the ware by the gesture of the hand. "Won't give you more than $850," said the buyer, "and that is all." After talking the matter over for a time the deal was made and the ware ordered shipped immediately. A check for the amount was written at once and the buyer left the office. In walking to the station to board a train for the city the New Yorker saw three cars standing near the station, one of them a furniture car, and empty. This was ordered sent to the pottery and soon the packers were working on the car. Finally, seeing that more ware was being loaded into the car than was expected, the man who made the sale commenced counting up the cost of a carload of ware, and the production. He expressed his surprise when it was discovered that it cost the company just $2,500 to produce the amount that was sold for $850.

Business is said to be so good with the New Castle Pottery company that work will be commenced at once erecting two additional kilns. The contract for their erection has been let to Gamble & Surles, of this city, and the work is to be completed not later than July 1. This company is said to be also considering the plan of building another plant of seven kilns for the making of thin china exclusively. The company has been experimenting on this class of ware for several months, and it is reported that all of these experiments have been entirely successful.

At the last meeting of the pottery printers employed in Trenton plants a preliminary organization was completed, and at a meeting that will be held in eastern Brotherhood headquarters next Thursday evening permanent officers will be elected. MADE A BIG HAUL

BURGULARS ROBBED TWO BUSINESS PLACES LAST NIGHT.

Lloyd's Tailor Shop Lost $300 Worth of Goods and Blackburn's Store $25.

Lloyd's tailor shop and Blackburn & Blackburn's novelty store were robbed of property valued at about $325 last night.

The man or men, it is not yet known how many there were, gained an entrance in both instances from the rear windows of the stores by using a glass cutter, and cutting the glass around the catches of the windows.

In Lloyd's shop they succeeded in getting away with four coats, seven or eight pairs of trousers and seven or eight rolls of cloth, amounting in all to about $300. At Blackburn's they stole about $25 worth of cheap jewelry. The Wellsville police have no clue.

COUNCIL MEETING

Will Consider Important Business And Hear Interesting Reports Tonight.

Several very interesting topics are to be brought before council this evening. Reports are to be heard from several committees, the most important being that of the sewer committee which has several matters to report on. It is thought that President Whitacre's suggestion relative to the establishing of a sub-sewer on Lisbon street, a matter which was left in the hands of this committee, will be carried out. This will undoubtedly be the cheapest way for the city to dispose of the question.

Several property owners on this street are anxious to connect their property with the sanitary sewer, and council will not grant permits, because of the sewer being located about 30 feet underground, nor will it allow them to connect with the manholes, holding that this would be protested against by the board of health. The matter will be disposed of this evening.

Some definite action will probably be taken tonight relative to the construction of the city tool house in the West End. As yet only one kind, that of J. S. Kennedy, a local contractor, has been received. This bid specifies the construction of a frame building 30x40 feet and 10 feet high. Shoub's roofing to be used, and the cost to be $385. Other bids will probably be received.

NEW COAL MINES

To Be Opened in Jefferson County on the W. & L. E. Railroad.

The Lone Tree Coal company has commenced work on the openings for two large mines near the Wheeling & Lake Erie railroad, between Mt. Pleasant and Long Run in Jefferson county.

This coal land, which amounts to several thousand acres, was first taken up by Mr. Gallagher, one of the leading promoters in the new enterprise, and was sold by him to Hitchcock & Reese, of Cleveland. Later Mr. Gallagher purchased it again and sold it to E. T. Hitchcock, who is interested in the McMeahan plant, of Toronto.

The mines will be placed in operation as soon as possible and according to present indications the best of coal will be mined from them.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Rankin, of Pittsburgh, returned to their home this morning, after a visit over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Andrews, of Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Carpenter, of Pittsburgh, have returned to their home after a few days' visit with Mrs. Carpenter's father, Thomas Aughlin, of Seventh street.

SORRY LOOKING LOT

SEVEN PRISONERS BEFORE MAY-OR FOR SENTENCE.

Most of Them Got the Customary $5.60—Two Taken to Canton.

A sorry looking lot, seven in all, were before the mayor this morning. He pronounced the words that cost them each $5.60.

Fred Carroll was compelled to pay a dollar more than the rest, having made himself more conspicuous. Officer Mahoney brought him to the jail. In Smoky Row Vance Conkel was found by Officer McDermott and Edward Garrison by Officer Dunn. They were plain drunks. Another inhabitant of this section, Robert Cooley by name, was in the toils. Officer Dunn said he was guilty of throwing stones at and through windows in the Severs pottery. No charge being preferred by the proprietors, he was fined for the drunk only. John Culp and Charles Messer were wandering in a sleepy state around the Diamond when apprehended by Officers Dawson and Morris. They were given a bed in the city bastille and were charged Astor house rates. Mike Cassidy fell into the arms of Officer Aufderheide at 12:30 a. m. and was assessed the full amount.

"Jabbers" Hoskins and Dave Gourley, found fighting in the Diamond the other night, were taken to the Stark county workhouse by Officer Dawson for 80 days.

TO HOUSE A GIFT.

Harvard Plans New Museum For Casts Sent by Kaiser.

The Germanic museum at Harvard university will soon be installed in a building especially designed for the proper display of its growing collection of German art. The need of such a building has been vastly increased by Kaiser Wilhelm's splendid gift to the museum, which was formally presented by Prince Henry on his recent visit to this country.

The Kaiser's gift is almost a complete museum of typical German sculpture in itself, for the collection of casts of which it consists includes examples of the finest accomplishments in this particular side of Teutonic art from the beginning of the eleventh century to the end of the eighteenth.

The Harvard Germanic museum is being built up under the auspices of what is called the Germanic Museum

association, a national organization, of which Carl Schurz is president and President Roosevelt one of the vice presidents. Its collections will not be confined to Germany alone. Beginning with the Roman invasions against the early Germans, the museum will embrace the arts and customs of the Vikings and the early Saxons, thus involving Scandinavia and Denmark, for example, from whom it will gradually narrow down to the Low Countries, German Austria, the German cantons of Switzerland and the present German empire.

The Kaiser's gift, which covers much of this period of time, is more than a mere reproduction of a few architectural and artistic treasures; therefore, it is an important and interesting chapter out of the book of man. Several of the casts are of great size.

The Kaiser's gift was formally presented to the association in form of an album of photographs, and the casts themselves are expected to reach this country next summer.

BURGULARS ROBBED TWO BUSINESS PLACES LAST NIGHT.

Lloyd's Tailor Shop Lost $300 Worth of Goods and Blackburn's Store $25.

Lloyd's tailor shop and Blackburn's novelty store were robbed of property valued at about $325 last night.

The man or men, it is not yet known how many there were, gained an entrance in both instances from the rear windows of the stores by using a glass cutter, and cutting the glass around the catches of the windows.

In Lloyd's shop they succeeded in getting away with four coats, seven or eight pairs of trousers and seven or eight rolls of cloth, amounting in all to about $300. At Blackburn's they stole about $25 worth of cheap jewelry.

The Wellsville police have no clue.

COUNCIL MEETING

Will Consider Important Business And Hear Interesting Reports Tonight.

Several very interesting topics are to be brought before council this evening. Reports are to be heard from several committees, the most important being that of the sewer committee which has several matters to report on. It is thought that President Whitacre's suggestion relative to the establishing of a sub-sewer on Lisbon street, a matter which was left in the hands of this committee, will be carried out. This will undoubtedly be the cheapest way for the city to dispose of the question.

Several property owners on this street are anxious to connect their property with the sanitary sewer, and council will not grant permits, because of the sewer being located about 30 feet underground, nor will it allow them to connect with the manholes, holding that this would be protested against by the board of health. The matter will be disposed of this evening.

Some definite action will probably be taken tonight relative to the construction of the city tool house in the West End. As yet only one kind, that of J. S. Kennedy, a local contractor, has been received. This bid specifies the construction of a frame building 30x40 feet and 10 feet high, Shoub's roofing to be used, and the cost to be $385. Other bids will probably be received.

To Be Opened in Jefferson County on the W. & L. E. Railroad.

The Lone Tree Coal company has commenced work on the openings for two large mines near the Wheeling & Lake Erie railroad, between Mt. Pleasant and Long Run in Jefferson county.

This coal land, which amounts to several thousand acres, was first taken up by Mr. Gallagher, one of the leading promoters in the new enterprise, and was sold by him to Hitchcock & Reese, of Cleveland. Later Mr. Gallagher purchased it again and sold it to E. T. Hitchcock, who is interested in the McMechan plant, of Toronto.

The mines will be placed in operation as soon as possible and according to present indications the best of coal will be mined from them.

PEACE TERMS SIGNED

General Kitchener Cables Good News to the British Foreign Office.

BOERS ATTACHED THEIR NAMES

Prayers of Thanksgiving in All the Churches in London—The People Rejoiced on the Streets, in Hotels, Clubs and Public Houses.

London, June 2.—An official telegram from Lord Kitchener, dated Pretoria, Saturday, May 31, 11:15 p. m., says:

"A document containing terms of surrender was signed here this evening at half-past 10 o'clock by all the Boer representatives, as well as by Lord Milner (the British high commissioner in South Africa) and myself."

The news of peace in South Africa contained in the foregoing dispatch from Lord Kitchener was not expected in London yesterday. Soon after the receipt of the dispatch, however, the news spread to the clubs and hotels and was received with much enthusiasm. The church bells were rung to acclaim the good news. A crowd gathered at the Mansion house and the lord mayor of London, Sir Joseph C. Dimsdale, announced from the balcony that terms of surrender had been signed in South Africa.

Communicated to King Edward. Lord Kitchener's definite announcement of peace was received at the war office at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon and was communicated to King Edward and all the members of the cabinet before it was given to the public. Last night the Sunday evening calm of the London streets was broken by enthusiastic singing, shouting and horn blowing.

The hotels, the clubs, the public houses and the streets were not the only places where the people were actively demonstrating their joy. The peace news was announced in the churches yesterday, and by some congregations it was received with applause. In all the churches of London prayers of thanksgiving were offered and special hymns were sung.

Pretoria, June 2.—A proclamation, which was issued Saturday, in connection with the signing of the peace terms Saturday night, declares that notwithstanding the proclamations of Mr. Kruger that interest on the bonds of the Transvaal republic would be suspended so long as the war lasted, such interest shall begin to accrue June 1.

June 26 and June 27, the days of King Edward's coronation, have been proclaimed public holidays here.

Likely to Help American Trade.

Washington, June 2.—The impression prevailed in official circles last night that the terms of surrender named by the British in their negotiations with the Boers have been very liberal in character, perhaps from the double desire to bring the war to a close and to have this happy event formally proclaimed before the coronation of King Edward in June.

From a commercial point of view the cessation of hostilities will result beneficially to American exports to South Africa, the reports issued from time to time by the foreign commerce bureau of the state department showing that they have suffered considerably since the beginning of the war, several years ago.

FRENCH SAILED FOR HOME.

Splendid Dinner on the Gaulois Before That Vessel Left.

Boston, June 2.—The sentiments of gratitude felt by the members of the mission delegated by the president of France to come to America to attend the unveiling at Washington of the statue of Count de Rochambeau found final expression yesterday afternoon, on the battleship Gaulois, which conveyed the mission to this country, and which late yesterday afternoon left for Lisbon, whence it will go to France.

A dinner was served on the battleship Gaulois, attended by the special representatives of President Roosevelt, representatives of the state of Massachusetts and the city of Boston, the members of the French embassy at Washington and the members of the Rochambeau mission, representatives of the navy and some ladies. Toasts were exchanged. Salutes were exchanged as the Gaulois sailed.

The majority of those who did not return to France will visit the site of the exposition at St. Louis. They left for New York yesterday afternoon. Among these are M. Lagrange, M. Jean Guillemin, M. Robert De Billy, the secretary of the embassy at Washington; the Vicomte de Chambrun, the attache to the French embassy at Berlin; the Count and Countess de Rochambeau and the Count de Lafayette.

M. Croiset, the dean of the faculty of letters of the University of Paris, will first visit Yale university and later proceed to Columbia university, where it is expected he will be given a degree. M. Cambon, the French ambassador, and Mme. Cambon will remain in Boston for several days.

Major Berthelot, the aide de camp to General Brugere, who had his leg fractured at the Charleston navy yard Saturday, was much improved yesterday. He returned to France on the Gaulois.

BUENCAMINO TESTIFIED.

He Said Filipinos Would Like to Have Their Political Status Declared.

Washington, June 2.—Felipe Buencamino, former secretary of state in the cabinet of Aguinaldo, was heard Saturday, for the first time since his arrival, by the house committee on insular affairs. His testimony was in part:

Under the Taft system, he said, the Filipinos have greater liberty than they would have enjoyed under the Aguinaldo government had it been established. Governor Taft was now the ideal of the people. He said the people of the Philippines would like to have their political status fixed, whether they are Americans or Filipinos. He preferred that they should be Americans. The happiness of the people depended upon American sovereignty.

He spoke of the many schools and the improved educational methods, the Filipino families no longer finding it necessary to send their children to Manila, as the local schools were ample. Instead of 1,200 American teachers, he said, there should be 6,000, and the salaries should be doubled in order to secure the best material.

Large Percentage of Illiteracy.

Among the facts he stated were the following: Eighty-five per cent of the people are illiterate and cannot read or write. There are many dialects, which may be reduced to eight main dialects. If education means protection to life, property and rights, then the Filipinos are as well educated as any other people; if it means culture, then they are uncultured.

"Are the people capable at this time of independent self-government?" he was asked.

"It would not be advisable," he said, turning to the map of the archipelago. Russia was near at hand, at Port Arthur; Japan also was near; Australia and other British possessions were nearby. Besides, he said, Great Britain and Germany had on file at the American state department large claims for damages, growing out of the bombardment of Manila, etc. "Suppose the United States abandons us," he said, "then all those claims will be presented against the Philippines, backed up by squadrons."

"Would the Filipinos take independence after eight years of tutelage by the United States?" asked Mr. Patterson, referring to the plan of the minority.

Other Nations Might Seize Islands.

"If the congress so determined, that result would be accepted," answered Senor Buencamino, "but congress would become responsible if the Philippines were devoured by other nations, and the Filipinos would be left to damn the congress for bringing about such a result."

He contended that annexation was the solution satisfactory to the people.

The witness said the Moros would fight to the death to retain their slaves.

U.P. DELEGATES HEARD

Preached in Churches of Pittsburgh, Allegheny City and Suburbs.

NEW MODERATOR IN PULPIT.

He Preached in the Eighth U. P. Church, in Allegheny—Assembly on Saturday Voted Against Change in the Church Doctrines.

Pittsburg, June 2.—Many pulpits in the two cities and suburbs were filled yesterday by delegates to the general assembly of the United Presbyterian church, which is in session in Allegheny. At the Eighth United Presbyterian church, Allegheny, the newly elected moderator, Rev. Dr. J. C. Wilson, preached at the morning service.

By a majority of 70 the United Presbyterian church of America made public proclamation Saturday, through its general assembly, convened in the Eighth church, Allegheny, that its attitude on the question of secret societies, psalmody, close communion, and a host of other radical innovations embraced in the new covenant question would not be changed. In brief, the assembly voted down the new covenant.

The attack on it was of such a vigorous nature and came so unexpectedly that the leading agitators in the new covenant question were thunder struck. The feature of the session was the onslaught of the Rev. Dr. John A. Wilson, of Allegheny seminary.

The request of the Allegheny presbytery to make a distinction between the mode of reception of a baptized person and an unbaptized person was granted.

Members of the Allegheny Theological Seminary Alumni association met Saturday afternoon in the chapel of the building and listened to addresses of reminiscent character.

Catholic Society Officials to Meet.

Cincinnati, June 2.—The national officers and other members of the executive board of the American Federation of Catholic societies will meet at the Hollenden hotel in Cleveland next Sunday to arrange a postponed date for their next national convention, which was to have been held at Chicago, July 15. Owing to that date conflicting with other occasions, it is thought that the national convention may be held in Chicago a month later.

At Sandusky, O., Simon Schlacht, now living in Erie, Pa., who was treasurer of the cemetery board in 1892, was found to have been short $1,300. He sent his check for $2,100 to cover the shortage and interest.

At Upper Sandusky, O., Joe Balduf and Harry Mease, two brothers-in-law, got into an altercation because Mease, it is said, insulted Balduf's wife. The latter was stabbed in the abdomen, but it is thought not seriously.

At Kenton, O., while digging a trench, a cavein occurred, burying A. C. Davis. T. B. Miller, his companion, escaped, and later dug Davis out, finding him not even bruised.

At Springfield, O., Ed Rinker and Warren Kadel, aged 12 and 9 respectively, were bound over to the grand jury in police court for burglarizing Clinger's cigar store.

At Springfield, O., Arthur Staley of Lancaster, died at the hospital, after his legs had been cut off by a Dayton, Springfield and Urbana traction car.

At North Baltimore, O., the young daughter of William Updyke took a dose of turpentine by mistake, and no hopes were entertained for her recovery.

Lou Jonas, a tool dresser, was probably fatally injured by being caught under a mass of wreckage when a derrick fell, at Fostoria, O.

Clarence Carey, aged 27, of Galesburg, Ill., was fatally injured by a Hocking Valley freight train, at Toledo, O.

KAISER'S THIRD SON.

Prince Adelbert a Cadet on a German Naval Training Ship.

Prince Adelbert, third son of Kaiser Wilhelm, in whom much interest has been aroused in America by the report that he would soon follow Prince Henry's example and visit the United States, will not be seen here for the present.

Prince Adelbert is a cadet on the Imperial German training ship Charlotte, and it was expected that he would come to these shores simply as an officer of the navy and in no official capacity. Besides the kaiser's son, there are fifty other cadets on board this training vessel, which is one of a fleet of such ships maintained by the German navy.

On board these vessels the young officers are schooled in practical seamanship, gunnery and all that pertains to the handling of a warship in active service. At the same time their technical studies are continued under a corps of instructors. The idea of the Imperial navy is that the practical knowledge thus acquired will be of great benefit to the embryo captains and admirals in fitting them for their future work.

Prince Adelbert, the third son of the German emperor, is eighteen years of age. He was born at the Marmorpalais, near Potsdam, July 14, 1884. In his tenth year he was entered in both the army and the navy as an officer. He is a lieutenant of the First regiment of the Imperial Foot guards and at present holds active rank in the navy as a lieutenant of the training ship Charlotte.

EXERCISE AND EATING.

Remember That a Tired Stomach is a Weak Stomach.

A good dinner at night is necessary for those whose pleasure or work keeps them up very late. But for ordinary folk who dine at 6 or 7 and go to bed about 10:30 only a light wholesome repast should be taken at the end of the day, when muscles and nerves are more or less exhausted.

A "tired stomach is a weak stomach" is a golden rule to remember. Yet how often one hears people say, "I've been rushing about all day and am tired to death; I must have a big meal to make up for it." You may put the big meal into the stomach, but you cannot make the stomach digest it.

A belief lives strong in the hearts and minds of the majority of mankind, including persons of weak digestions, that a quick, brisk walk taken before a meal gets up an appetite and helps the stomach to digest the food. Now, this is exactly what it doesn't do. Exercise spreads the blood throughout the body. For the proper digestion of food the blood is needed in the stomach. Few realize this important fact.

After a long, exhausting walk, bicycle spin or any severe physical or mental labor take a good half hour's rest in a comfortable armchair or lying on a sofa before you eat a substantial meal.

A Telephone Whistle.

When the earpiece of a telephone receiver is held to the mouthpiece of the transmitter, a more or less shrill tone or whistle is heard in the receiver. This occurs when the apparatus is in good working condition and when the transmitter is on short circuit. This effect is seemingly due to a series of reactions analogous to but much more complex than those which occur in an electric bell when its circuit is closed. A movement of the diaphragm of the receiver toward its magnet tends to weaken the pressure on the carbon of the transmitter, which causes a weakening of the current, allowing the diaphragm to fall away, with the further result that the air column is compressed, increasing the pressure on the carbon again and also increasing current strength, whereby the diaphragm is again attracted, and this action is repeated over and over again.—Cassier's Magazine.

General Kitchener Cables Good News to the British Foreign Office.

BOERS ATTACHED THEIR NAMES

Prayers of Thanksgiving in All the Churches in London—The People Rejoiced on the Streets, in Hotels, Clubs and Public Houses.

London, June 2.—An official cablegram from Lord Kitchener, dated Pretoria, Saturday, May 31, 11:15 p. m., says:

"A document containing terms of surrender was signed here this evening at half-past 10 o'clock by all the Boer representatives, as well as by Lord Milner (the British high commissioner in South Africa) and myself."

The news of peace in South Africa contained in the foregoing dispatch from Lord Kitchener was not expected in London yesterday. Soon after the receipt of the dispatch, however, the news spread to the clubs and hotels and was received with much enthusiasm. The church bells were rung to acclaim the good news. A crowd gathered at the Mansion house and the lord mayor of London, Sir Joseph C. Dimsdale, announced from the balcony that terms of surrender had been signed in South Africa.

Communicated to King Edward.

Lord Kitchener's definite announcement of peace was received at the war office at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon and was communicated to King Edward and all the members of the cabinet before it was given to the public. Last night the Sunday evening calm of the London streets was broken by enthusiastic singing, shouting and horn blowing.

The hotels, the clubs, the public houses and the streets were not the only places where the people were actively demonstrating their joy. The peace news was announced in the churches yesterday, and by some congregations it was received with applause. In all the churches of London prayers of thanksgiving were offered and special hymns were sung.

Pretoria, June 2.—A proclamation, which was issued Saturday, in connection with the signing of the peace terms Saturday night, declares that notwithstanding the proclamations of Mr. Kruger that interest on the bonds of the Transvaal republic would be suspended so long as the war lasted, such interest shall begin to accrue June 1.

June 26 and June 27, the days of King Edward's coronation, have been proclaimed public holidays here.

Likely to Help American Trade.

Washington, June 2.—The impression prevailed in official circles last night that the terms of surrender named by the British in their negotiations with the Boers have been very liberal in character, perhaps from the double desire to bring the war to a close and to have this happy event formally proclaimed before the coronation of King Edward in June.

From a commercial point of view the cessation of hostilities will result beneficially to American exports to South Africa, the reports issued from time to time by the foreign commerce bureau of the state department showing that they have suffered considerably since the beginning of the war, several years ago.

FRENCH SAILED FOR HOME.

Splendid Dinner on the Gaulois Before That Vessel Left.

Boston, June 2.—The sentiments of gratitude felt by the members of the mission delegated by the president of France to come to America to attend the unveiling at Washington of the statue of Count de Rochambeau found final expression yesterday afternoon, on the battleship Gaulois, which conveyed the mission to this country, and which late yesterday afternoon left for Lisbon, whence it will go to France.

A dinner was served on the battleship Gaulois, attended by the special representatives of President Roosevelt, representatives of the state of Massachusetts and the city of Boston, the members of the French embassy at Washington and the members of the Rochambeau mission, representatives of the navy and some ladies. Toasts were exchanged. Salutes were exchanged as the Gaulois sailed.

The majority of those who did not return to France will visit the site of the exposition at St. Louis. They left for New York yesterday afternoon. Among these are M. Lagrange, M. Jean Guillemin, M. Robert de Billy, the secretary of the embassy at Washington; the vicomte de Chambrun, the attaché to the French embassy at Berlin; the Count and Countess de Rochambeau and the Count de Lafayette.

M. Croiset, the dean of the faculty of letters of the University of Paris, will first visit Yale university and later proceed to Columbia university, where it is expected he will be given a degree. M. Cambon, the French ambassador, and Mme. Cambon will remain in Boston for several days.

Major Berthelot, the aide de camp to General Brugere, who had his leg fractured at the Charleston navy yard Saturday, was much improved yesterday. He returned to France on the Gaulois.

BUENCAMINO TESTIFIED.

He Said Filipinos Would Like to Have Their Political Status Declared.

Washington, June 2.—Felipe Buencamino, former secretary of state in the cabinet of Aguinaldo, was heard Saturday, for the first time since his arrival, by the house committee on insular affairs. His testimony was in part:

Under the Taft system, he said, the Filipinos have greater liberty than they would have enjoyed under the Aguinaldo government had it been established. Governor Taft was now the ideal of the people. He said the people of the Philippines would like to have their political status fixed, whether they are Americans or Filipinos. He preferred that they should be Americans. The happiness of the people depended upon American sovereignty.

He spoke of the many schools and the improved educational methods, the Filipino families no longer finding it necessary to send their children to Manila, as the local schools were ample. Instead of 1,200 American teachers, he said, there should be 6,000, and the salaries should be doubled in order to secure the best material.

Large Percentage of Illiteracy.

Among the facts he stated were the following: Eighty-five per cent of the people are illiterate and cannot read or write. There are many dialects, which may be reduced to eight main dialects, if education means protection to life, property and rights, then the Filipinos are as well educated as any other people; if it means culture, then they are uncultured.

"Are the people capable at this time of independent self-government?" he was asked.

"It would not be advisable," he said, turning to the map of the archipelago. Russia was near at hand, at Port Arthur; Japan also was near; Australia and other British possessions were nearby. Beside, he said, Great Britain and Germany had on file at the American state department large claims for damages, growing out of the bombardment of Iloilo, etc. "Suppose the United States abandons us," he said, "then all those claims will be presented against the Philippines, backed up by squadrons."

"Would the Filipinos take independence after eight years of tutelage by the United States?" asked Mr. Patterson, referring to the plan of the minority.

Other Nations Might Seize Islands.

"If the congress so determined, that result would be accepted," answered Senor Buencamino, "but congress would become responsible if the Philippines were devoured by other nations, and the Filipinos would be left to damn the congress for bringing about such a result."

He contended that annexation was the solution satisfactory to the people.

U.P. DELEGATES HEARD

Preached in Churches of Pittsburg, Allegheny City and Suburbs.

NEW MODERATOR IN PULPIT.

He Preached in the Eighth U. P. Church, in Allegheny—Assembly on Saturday Voted Against Change in the Church Doctrines.

Pittsburg, June 2.—Many pulpits in the two cities and suburbs were filled yesterday by delegates to the general assembly of the United Presbyterian church, which is in session in Allegheny. At the Eighth United Presbyterian church, Allegheny, the newly elected moderator, Rev. Dr. J. C. Wilson, preached at the morning service. By a majority of 70 the United Presbyterian church of America made public proclamation Saturday, through its general assembly, convened in the Eighth church, Allegheny, that its attitude on the question of secret societies, psalmody, close communion, and a host of other radical innovations embraced in the new covenant question would not be changed. In brief, the assembly voted down the new covenant.

The attack on it was of such a vigorous nature and came so unexpectedly that the leading agitators in the new covenant question were thunder struck. The feature of the session was the onslaught of the Rev. Dr. John A. Wilson, of Allegheny seminary.

The request of the Allegheny presbytery to make a distinction between the mode of reception of a baptized person and an unbaptized person was granted.

Members of the Allegheny Theological Seminary Alumni association met Saturday afternoon in the chapel of the building and listened to addresses of reminiscent character.

Catholic Society Officials to Meet.

Cincinnati, June 2.—The national officers and other members of the executive board of the American Federation of Catholic societies will meet at the Hollenden hotel in Cleveland next Sunday to arrange a postponed date for their next national convention, which was to have been held at Chicago, July 15. Owing to that date conflicting with other occasions, it is thought that the national convention may be held in Chicago a month later.

NOTES AND NOTIONS

A VARIETY OF TALES PICKED UP ABOUT TOWN.

Opinions And Observations of Interest As Noted By News Review Reporters.

In the office of Justice of the Peace Daniel McLane is an unassuming looking desk, but still it has a history that few of the city are fully acquainted with. Just at this time, when the city and county were completely surprised by the action of Congressman Tayler in declining to run for congress for another term, the story of this desk may be timely.

When Congressman Tayler was just a plain attorney-at-law with a small office in this city and probably at that time had no thought of entering the congressional halls at Washington, this desk served its purpose long and well. Then came the turn in the career of Mr. Tayler. He was nominated for congress, elected, and the rest is history that is well known. Mr. Tayler went to congress, and the desk he had used so long remained here. For several years it occupied a prominent place in the office of Grosshans Brothers, when this law firm had offices in the Stevenson building, and soon afterwards the room where it stood was leased by the county as a justice's office. There the old desk of Congressman Tayler remained, and there it is today. Though worn some by time and extensive use, it is still in active service and will likely remain so for years to come.

It has been the custom of the township to furnish all justices with a desk, and this one was selected by Justice McLane and the township paid Congressman Tayler the small sum of $15 for it.

There is now fear and trembling in Justice McLane's office. Congressman Tayler once said: "If the time comes when I can use this desk again I would like to have it, as it is one of the most commodious I have ever seen." Will Mr. Tayler reclaim his desk and remit the purchase price or will he forget about it? This is the question that is worrying the 'squire.

In one of the hill districts a carpenter who is kept busy most of the time working for other people, is building a house of his own, and taking his own time about it. He has the dwelling so far advanced that he occupies one room as sleeping and living quarters, and is finishing the rest as time and opportunity permit. He is a single man and expects to rent or sell the house after it is built. Meantime, it affords him a comfortable lodging place.

The first snake story of the season comes from the West End, where a 10-year-old boy declares he was chased by a reptile seven feet long. A companion of the lad spoils the story, however, by declaring that the snake was not over four feet in length and appeared friendly, rather than hostile.

That famous gold-toothed dog, the property of Dr. J. M. Little, had an experience Friday unprecedented in the history of the canine family. Kidnaped and taken to the wilds of West Virginia was the most undesirable plight in which the animal was placed. At an early hour two men were seen playing with the dog, and several spectators, not aware of the true situation, it is said, watched the men as they enticed the dog away. Hardly had the men disappeared with the treasure until Dr. Little missed his pet and in a short time notified the police. A search was instituted by them, but to no avail, and when early in the evening the dog knocked on the door at its master's home there was joy in profusion. It has been learned that the dog was taken to Wellsville on the street cars; over to Congo and thence down to a point back of New Cumberland, where it managed to get away from its abductors and went to the river, swam across and made a run for home.

Convert Our Millionaires!

By WARNER VAN NORDEN, Millionaire and President of the Bank of North America, New York

WHETHER has heard of a sinner being converted in one of our big churches? I MEAN A REAL SINNER—SOME BIG MILLIONAIRE, PURSE PROUD AND HARD HEARTED—OR SOME CRIME TAINTED, HARDENED CRIMINAL. Not one of you; at least, not one of you has heard of such a thing in the past twenty years.

What we ought to strive for is to convert millionaires and take them out of their wretched, selfish lives, and the women, those foolish butterflies, who are wasting their lives.

A MAN LOOKS LESS TO HIS CREATOR AND TO HIS FELLOW MEN WHEN FORTUNE SMILES ON HIM. AND WHEN WILL WE BE STRONGER? ONLY WHEN THE MENTAL ATTITUDE IS EQUAL TO OUR INCREASED PROSPERITY.

The sordid grasping after wealth and the things of this world which are only mortal has taken away the attention of the human race from the supernatural and ideal. The soul is forgotten. Our mental attitude is unequal to our temporal, making a condition really abnormal.

SCALED PELEE'S PEAK.

DARING FEAT OF A PENNSYLVANIAN.

Most of Time Prof. Heilprin Was in Fearful Danger—Made Valuable Discoveries.

Fort De France, Island of Martinique, June 2.—The National Geographical society has scored a great triumph through its representative here, Prof. Angelo Heilprin, who, Saturday morning, with three guides, ascended to the top of the crater on the summit of Mont Pelee. Prof. Heilprin is also president of the Philadelphia Geographical society.

Prof. Heilprin had gone to the plantation Vive, which is near the crater, in company with Fernand Clerc and Mr. Reid, landed proprietors of Martinique. This expedition had been especially organized by United States Consul Ayne and Prof. Heilprin, and was led by the latter.

The expedition left Fort de France last Thursday, May 29, at noon. Friday was spent in studying the newly formed craters on the north flank of the mountain. Saturday morning Prof. Heilprin determined to attempt the ascent to the top of the crater, and with this purpose in view he set out at 5 o'clock.

Volcano Was Vexy Active.

The volcano was very active, but amid a thousand dangers Prof. Heilprin reached the summit and looked down into the huge crater. Here he spent some time in taking careful observations. He saw a huge cinder cone in the center of the crater. The opening of the crater itself is a vast crevice 500 feet long and 150 feet wide.

While Prof. Heilprin was on the summit of the volcano several violent explosions of steam and cinder laden vapor took place, and again and again his life was in danger. Ashes fell about him in such quantities at times as to completely obscure his vision. One particularly violent explosion of mud covered the professor from head to foot with the hideous, viscid and semi-solid matter. He still persisted in his study and observations, however, and twice more was showered with mud. He learned, as had been suspected, that there were three separate vents through which steam issued. Full details of the professor's observations cannot be had until he returns to Fort de France.

Prof. Heilprin's journey down the side of the mountain was fully as perilous as the ascent. Mont Pelee seemed to resent the intrusion of a puny human being into her most awful precincts, and belched out huge volumes of steam, ashes and boiling hot mud.

Made an Important Discovery.

The professor made the important discovery that the crater at the head of the river Fallaise has synchronous eruptions with the crater at the summit of the volcano, and that it ejects precisely the same matter at such times. The river Fallaise crater and the crater at the summit showed during Prof. Heilprin's visit a new phenomenon. Mud was thrown up in high columns. Heretofore the mud has bubbled or boiled out and flowed downward in huge streams. In the course of one eruption of the river Fallaise crater an enormous mass of intensely hot mud was ejected. This flow reached the rum distillery on the Vive plantation and extinguished all the fires there. This torrent of mud may invade the entire plantation, and as Vive is the center of one of the richest districts of the island, it is feared the damage may be great.

George Kennan and his party, who went to Morne Rouge, found on their return trip that a bridge across the road had been carried away by a torrent of hot mud. Negroes managed to get the party across the obstruction. They took the carriages to pieces and carried them and the members of the party to the other side of the river of mud, which was still hot. All the members of Mr. Kennan's party are well.

Mothers lose their dread for "that terrible second summer" when they have Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry in the house. Nature's specific for bowel complaints of every sort.

HAVE WOMEN INTUITION?

One Writer Says They Have Never Shown It in Literature.

Literature is the final expression of human thought. If women can lay claim to a special faculty of intuition, why do they not manifest it in their writings? Intuition, if it means anything, means the faculty that gets down to the germ of actions and characteristics and focuses external traits into a central verity recognizable to the general public. Now, there are more female writers than male. No woman poet has ever written an inevitable line, a line that flashes spontaneously out of the unknown and casts an illuminating light upon the abyss. Woman has added practically nothing to our stock of familiar quotations. Take down your Bartlett or your anthology, and you may be surprised to find that from Mrs. Browning to Mrs. Meynell women have never coined a phrase which has passed into the common currency of speech. Mrs. Browning has indeed written fine lines, but nothing of hers can be said to have become a household word.

Nor has any woman novelist created any character that is generally recognized as typical. George Eliot has come closest with her Tito Melema and Mrs. Poyser. You would appeal only to the educated few if you described a person as a Tito or a Poyser. But call a man a Don Quixote, a Micawber, a Dogberry, a Falstaff, a Colonel Newcome, a Bilfil, a Parson Adams or Bob Acres, call a woman a Mrs. Malaprop, a Becky Sharp, a Beatrice, a Diana Vernon, a Meg Merrilies, and even the illiterate will mentally classify the individual as you wish him or her to be classified.

"Ah, but," you say, "in real life women are the true intuitives. They slow up a man or a woman at a glance. They are never mistaken when they trust to their instincts."

I can only testify to my own experience. I have not found that women's snap judgments of character are imbued with any special verity. They form likes or dislikes quicker than a man does because they are quicker on the trigger of conjecture. They can only be one of two things, right or wrong. If time proves that they are right, as they must be in 50 per cent of cases, the right guess is remembered and treasured up by the slower minded man as an extraordinary instance of intuition. The wrong guess is forgotten.—William S. Walsh in Era.

Miniature Holland.

The striking thing about Holland is that everything except the old parish churches, the town halls, the dikes and the trees is in miniature. The cities are not wide, and one can go from the most northern point in the country to the most southern or from the extreme west to the extreme east in a single day and, if it be a summer day, in daylight, while from the top of the tower of the cathedral at Utrecht one can look over a large part of the country. The Hague and Rotterdam are only sixteen miles apart and The Hague and Amsterdam only forty miles. Arnhem and The Hague are the two most cosmopolitan cities in the kingdom, and one meets in the streets all sorts and conditions of Netherlanders.—Boston Transcript.

Brass and Bronze.

Brass and bronze are two alloys of copper. The first is composed of copper and zinc, the latter of copper and tin. Both historically and scientifically these two compound metals are of greater interest than almost any others. Copper was one of the first metals discovered, extracted and utilized in the earliest periods of our history, and antiquaries are accustomed to speak of a "bronze age" to express that interval of time during which this metal formed many of the implements used for industrial purposes and in warfare.

ORDINANCE NO. 719.

An Ordinance to Amend Ordinance No. 513, Entitled, "An Ordinance Granting Permission to George P. Rust, his Heirs and Assigns, to Construct and Operate a Street Railway Over and Along Street Railroad Route No. 2, as Established by Ordinance No. 509.

Be it ordained by the council of the city of East Liverpool, Ohio, that ordinance No. 513 passed March 9, 1897, be amended to read as follows:

Be it ordained by the council of the city of East Liverpool, Ohio, that section 1, of ordinance No. 513, entitled "an ordinance granting permission to George P. Rust, his heirs and assigns, to construct and operate a street railway over and along street railroad route No. 2, as established by ordinance No. 509," which said section reads as follows:

"Section 1. That permission be and the same is hereby granted to George P. Rust, his heirs and assigns, to construct and operate said street railway route No. 2, as follows:

"Commencing at the north end of the bridge of the E. Liverpool Bridge

Co. on Cook street, thence westward along Cook street to Broadway; thence westward across Broadway to Third street; thence westward along Third street to Union street; thence southward along Union street to the north line of the C. & P. railroad company's right of way, the number of tracks on each street to be one, with turn outs on Union street south of Second street and on Cook street east of College street" be amended to read as follows:

Section 1. Be it ordained by the council of the city of East Liverpool, Ohio, that George P. Rust, his successors and assigns, be and they are hereby granted permission to construct and operate said street railway route No. 2 on and along the following named streets (said extension being deemed by the city council as beneficial to the public, and the written consent of the majority of the property owners on said streets or parts thereof, on the line of the proposed street railroad, represented by the foot frontage of the property abutting upon the several streets, having been filed with the city clerk.) to-wit:

Commencing at the north end of the bridge of the E. Liverpool Bridge Co. on Cook street; thence westward along Cook street to Broadway; thence westward across Broadway to Third street; thence westward along Third street to Union street; thence southward along Union street to the north line of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railway company's right of way, the number of tracks on each street to be two, with the exception of Union street below Third street, which is to be one track, with the necessary poles, wires turnouts and other necessary appurtenances.

Section 2. That all parts of ordinance No. 513 in conflict with this ordinance be and the same are hereby repealed.

Section 3. It is expressly understood as a condition of this grant, that George P. Rust, his successors or assigns, shall keep and maintain the streets between the outside rails of said tracks and for a space of two feet beyond the outside rails on either side in such condition as shall be satisfactory to the city engineer of the city of East Liverpool, or such other person as council may appoint.

Section 4. In case any of the provisions of the foregoing ordinance are not complied with after thirty days, written notice from the clerk of the city of East Liverpool, all rights, privileges and other interests moving under this ordinance shall cease, determine and be utterly void as it regards the said George P. Rust, his heirs and assigns.

Section 5. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and legal publication.

Passed this 27th day of May, 1902.

O. D. NICE,
WILLIS DAVIDSON,
City Clerk.

What we ought to strive for is to convert millionaires and take them out of their wretched, selfish lives, and the women, those foolish butterflies, who are wasting their lives.

A MAN LOOKS LESS TO HIS CREATOR AND TO HIS FELLOW MEN WHEN FORTUNE SMILES ON HIM. AND WHEN WILL WE BE STRONGER? ONLY WHEN THE MENTAL ATTITUDE IS EQUAL TO OUR INCREASED PROSPERITY.

The sordid grasping after wealth and the things of this world which are only mortal has taken away the attention of the human race from the supernatural and ideal. The soul is forgotten. Our mental attitude is unequal to our temporal, making a condition really abnormal.

DARING FEAT OF A PENNSYLVANIAN.

Most of Time Prof. Heilprin Was In Fearful Danger—Made Valuable Discoveries.

Fort De France, Island of Martinique, June 2.—The National Geographical society has scored a great triumph through its representative here, Prof. Angelo Heilprin, who, Saturday morning, with three guides, ascended to the top of the crater on the summit of Mont Pelee. Prof. Heilprin is also president of the Philadelphia Geographical society.

Prof. Heilprin had gone to the plantation Vive, which is near the crater, in company with Fernand Clerc and Mr. Reid, landed proprietors of Martinique. This expedition had been especially organized by United States Consul Ayme and Prof. Heilprin, and was led by the latter.

The expedition left Fort de France last Thursday, May 29, at noon. Friday was spent in studying the newly formed craters on the north flank of the mountain. Saturday morning Prof. Heilprin determined to attempt the ascent to the top of the crater, and with this purpose in view he set out at 5 o'clock.

Volcano Was Vrey Active.

The volcano was very active, but amid a thousand dangers Prof. Heilprin reached the summit and looked down into the huge crater. Here he spent some time in taking careful observations. He saw a huge cinder cone in the center of the crater. The opening of the crater itself is a vast crevice 500 feet long and 150 feet wide.

While Prof. Heilprin was on the summit of the volcano several violent explosions of steam and cinder laden vapor took place, and again and again his life was in danger. Ashes fell about him in such quantities at times as to completely obscure his vision. One particularly violent explosion of mud covered the professor from head to foot with the hideous, viscid and semi-solid matter. He still persisted in his study and observations, however, and twice more was showered with mud. He learned, as had been suspected, that there were three separate vents through which steam issued. Full details of the professor's observations cannot be had until he returns to Fort de France.

Prof. Heilprin's journey down the side of the mountain was fully as perilous as the ascent. Mont Pelee seemed to resent the intrusion of a puny human being into her most awful precincts, and belched out huge volumes of steam, ashes and boiling hot mud.

Made an Important Discovery.

The professor made the important discovery that the crater at the head of the river Fallaise has synchronous eruptions with the crater at the summit of the volcano, and that it ejects precisely the same matter at such times. The river Fallaise crater and the crater at the summit showed during Prof. Heilprin's visit a new phenomenon. Mud was thrown up in high columns. Heretofore the mud had bubbled or boiled out and flowed downward in huge streams. In the course of one eruption of the river Fallaise crater an enormous mass of intensely hot mud was ejected. This flow reached the rum distillery on the Vive plantation and extinguished all the fires there. This torrent of mud may invade the entire plantation, and, as Vive is the center of one of the richest districts of the island, it is feared the damage may be great.

George Kennan and his party, who went to Morne Rouge, found on their return trip that a bridge across the road had been carried away by a torrent of hot mud. Negroes managed to get the party across the obstruction. They took the carriages to pieces and carried them and the members of the party to the other side of the river of mud, which was still hot. All the members of Mr. Kennan's party are well.

Mothers lose their dread for "that terrible second summer" when they have Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry in the house. Nature's specific for bowel complaints of every sort.

HAVE WOMEN INTUITION?

One Writer Says They Have Never Shown It In Literature.

Literature is the final expression of human thought. If women can lay claim to a special faculty of intuition, why do they not manifest it in their writings? Intuition, if it means anything, means the faculty that gets down to the germ of actions and characteristics and focuses external traits into a central verity recognizable to the general public. Now, there are more female writers than male. No woman poet has ever written an inevitable line, a line that flashes spontaneously out of the unknown and casts an illuminating light upon the abyss. Woman has added practically nothing to our stock of familiar quotations. Take down your Bartlett or your anthology, and you may be surprised to find that from Mrs. Browning to Mrs. Meynell women have never coined a phrase which has passed into the common currency of speech. Mrs. Browning has indeed written fine lines, but nothing of hers can be said to have become a household word.

Nor has any woman novelist created any character that is generally recognized as typical. George Eliot has come closest with her Tito Melema and Mrs. Poyser. You would appeal only to the educated few if you described a person as a Tito or a Poyser. But call a man a Don Quixote, a Micawber, a Dogberry, a Falstaff, a Colonel Newcome, a Bliffl, a Parson Adams or Bob Acres, call a woman a Mrs. Malaprop, a Becky Sharp, a Beatrice, a Diana Vernon, a Meg Merrilies, and even the illiterate will mentally classify the individual as you wish him or her to be classified.

"Ah, but," you say, "in real life women are the true intuitions. They slap a man or a woman at a glance. They are never mistaken when they trust to their instincts."

I can only testify to my own experience. I have not found that women's snap judgments of character are imbued with any special verity. They form likes or dislikes quicker than a man does because they are quicker on the trigger of conjecture. They can only be one of two things, right or wrong. If time proves that they are right, as they must be in 50 per cent of cases, the right guess is remembered and treasured up by the slower minded man as an extraordinary instance of intuition. The wrong guess is forgotten. —William S. Walsh in Era.

Miniature Holland.

The striking thing about Holland is that everything except the old parish churches, the town halls, the dikes and the trees is in miniature. The cities are not wide, and one can go from the most northern point in the country to the most southern or from the extreme west to the extreme east in a single day and, if it be a summer day, in daylight, while from the top of the tower of the cathedral at Utrecht one can look over a large part of the country. The Hague and Rotterdam are only sixteen miles apart and The Hague and Amsterdam only forty miles. Arnhem and The Hague are the two most cosmopolitan cities in the kingdom, and one meets in the streets all sorts and conditions of Netherlanders.—Boston Transcript.

Brass and Bronze.

Brass and bronze are two alloys of copper. The first is composed of copper and zinc, the latter of copper and tin. Both historically and scientifically these two compound metals are of greater interest than almost any others. Copper was one of the first metals discovered, extracted and utilized in the earliest periods of our history, and antiquaries are accustomed to speak of a "bronze age" to express that interval of time during which this metal formed many of the implements used for industrial purposes and in warfare.

ORDINANCE NO. 719.

An Ordinance to Amend Ordinance No. 513, Entitled, "An Ordinance Granting Permission to George P. Rust, his Heirs and Assigns, to Construct and Operate a Street Railway Over and Along Street Railroad Route No. 2, as Established by Ordinance No. 509."

Be it ordained by the council of the city of East Liverpool, Ohio, that ordinance No. 513 passed March 9, 1897, be amended to read as follows:

Be it ordained by the council of the city of East Liverpool, Ohio, that section 1, of ordinance No. 513, entitled "an ordinance granting permission to George P. Rust, his heirs and assigns, to construct and operate a street railway over and along street railroad route No. 2, as established by ordinance No. 509," which said section reads as follows:

"Section 1. That permission be and the same is hereby granted to George P. Rust, his heirs and assigns, to construct and operate said street railway route No. 2, as follows:

"Commencing at the north end of the bridge of the E. Liverpool Bridge

Co. on Cook street, thence westward along Cook street to Broadway; thence westward across Broadway to Third street; thence westward along Third street to Union street; thence southward along Union street to the north line of the C. & P. railroad company's right of way, the number of tracks on each street to be one, with turn outs on Union street south of Second street and on Cook street east of College street" be amended to read as follows:

Section 1. Be it ordained by the council of the city of East Liverpool, Ohio, that George P. Rust, his successors and assigns, be and they are hereby granted permission to construct and operate said street railway route No. 2 on and along the following named streets (said extension being deemed by the city council as beneficial to the public, and the written consent of the majority of the property owners on said streets or parts thereof, on the line of the proposed street railroad, represented by the foot frontage of the property abutting upon the several streets, having been filed with the city clerk.) to-wit:

Commencing at the north end of the bridge of the E. Liverpool Bridge Co. on Cook street; thence westward along Cook street to Broadway; thence westward across Broadway to Third street; thence westward along Third street to Union street; thence southward along Union street to the north line of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railway company's right of way, the number of tracks on each street to be two, with the exception of Union street below Third street, which is to be one track, with the necessary poles, wires turnouts and other necessary appurtenances.

Section 2. That all parts of ordinance No. 513 in conflict with this ordinance be and the same are hereby repealed.

Section 3. It is expressly understood as a condition of this grant, that George P. Rust, his successors or assigns, shall keep and maintain the streets between the outside rails of said tracks and for a space of two feet beyond the outside rails on either side in such condition as shall be satisfactory to the city engineer of the city of East Liverpool, or such other person as council may appoint.

Section 4. In case any of the provisions of the foregoing ordinance are not complied with after thirty days, written notice from the clerk of the city of East Liverpool, all rights, privileges and other interests moving under this ordinance shall cease, determine and be utterly void as it regards the said George P. Rust, his heirs and assigns.

Section 5. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and legal publication.

Passed this 27th day of May, 1902.

Home Sweet Home!

Mid pleasures and palaces though we may roam,
Be it ever so humble there's no place like home;
A charm from the skies seems to hallow us there
Which seek through the world is ne'er met with elsewhere.

An exile from home, pleasure dazzles in vain,
Ah, give me my lowly thatched cottage again,
The birds singing sweetly that came to my call,
Give me them and that peace of mind, dearer than all.

THE poet when he wrote these immortal verses touched a note that finds an echo in every Anglo-Saxon breast. How we love the sentiment expressed! Perhaps your home has been so varied by many movings that these lines don't find their responsive chord? Is it wise to live in a house that is not your own, putting up with all the inconveniences of a tenant house, the ups and downs with the landlord and a thousand vexations that arise when almost by the reaching out of your hand a home comes within your reach? Through us is offered to you your choice of more than in the city, at all prices, in all locations and at all kinds of terms of purchase. Whether you have much money or little, we would like to have you see what we can do for you toward your owning a home. We are not entirely mercenary in this plea for your consideration. Profit we must have, yet we hope that your profit will be the greater. Hundreds of satisfied purchasers throughout the city will tell you of us. SATURDAY'S GAME CLEAN AND PRETTY

Local Team Won by One Run in a Most Interesting Contest.

MUCH SKILL WAS SHOWN

By the Players on Both Sides — How Godwin Distinguished Himself—A Hard Fought Battle, Especially Toward the End.

If a few more games similar to that played in West End park Saturday afternoon by the locals and the Windsor Athletic club, of Allegheny, in which the former won by a score of 6 to 5, are witnessed here in the near future, base ball in this city will certainly be a success and no longer will the fans leave for the park with the expectation of seeing a rank exhibition, such as the first of the series with the Allegheny boys, for instance.

It was indeed a fast game. Both teams tugged and used all the skill they possessed and by so doing the rather large crowd in attendance was on the verge of a collapse all the time, the excitement being so intense. The appearance of Godwin at short for the locals was most gratifying to the rooters and all others, with perhaps the exception of the visitors. It was not known until a few hours before the game that he was going to play, and even the players were surprised when he walked on the field in uniform.

Although the showing made by Godwin in the first part of the game was not all that was desired by his numerous friends, he was destined not to disappoint them throughout the contest. His sensational running catch and double play in the seventh and his three-base hit in the eighth which scored two runs when the visitors were in the lead made ample amends for his bad start and once more he was the hero of the game. The two errors marked against him were forgotten, and had it been in order he would have left the field in the arms of his admirers. However, to him is not due the total complement of laurels.

Grier, the young left fielder for the visitors, who is of small physique and a rather dominant manner, deserves credit and praise for his exhibition among the clouds so prevalent in the swamp where he played. It is seldom that a fielder on the local grounds has six chances in a game and more seldom yet that one of them takes advantage, as did Grier, without making a fumble, a stumble or a fall down. His repeated long runs and never failing catches soon had the locals staring like a child when attending its first circus. Not once was he found wanting when an opportunity was presented, and the way he clutched on to the ball was highly commendable.

It would also be a shameful wrong to omit to mention Winters. Because the visitors were ahead and everything seemingly in their favor for a time during the game, Winters was censured very unjustly by the greater part of the crowd. They would say: "What did Walsh put him in for?" "He is no good." In such assertions they were wrong in every particular, as all are now strongly convinced. The fact is he has the best record of any pitcher at present signed. He has won every game he has pitched this season, and that the visitors were allowed to make their start in this game was not in the least his fault. It was due entirely to the errors bunched at inopportune times for the opposing team.

It was in the ninth that Winters so cleverly demonstrated his ability. There was but one out, two men on bases, one being on second and the other on third, with the score lacking but one of being a tie and the crowd in awful suspense, when he steadied himself and made the next two men up beat the wind terrifically.

None will soon forget Harker at second, either. He played the same game that made him so popular last season, and if anything gave evidence of being more skilled. When one remembers that he belongs to the famous Kiskiminetas team, his playing can readily be accounted for. Grier, as in the two previous games, was the first up, and as usual got his base on balls. Briney went out on a grounder to second; Stevenson made his base on a misjudgment, credited a fielder's choice, and Grier, who had forged to third, scored. Moar grounded to third; Glassburner made first on Davis error and it also cost another run. Fleeson quit at the plate. Godwin walked and scored by clever base running.

In the second and third each team seemed satisfied with nothing. The locals, however, made three hits. Glassburner in the fourth pounded one for three bases, and scored on an unexcusable error made by J. Heckathorn on Fisher's high fly. Fisher scored on Hoban's hit and the inning was cut short by Blakely's grounder to third. In the sixth they made one more score while the locals were able to make but two up to the seventh. That was when Godwin came to the rescue with his long hit and won the game, which will go down in the annals of base ball history as one of the cleanest and hardest fought ever played on the home grounds.

BEATEN BY ECLIPSE

CARROLL CLUB BASE BALL TEAM SUFFERED DEFEAT.

Their Opponents Played an Errorless Game—An Interesting Contest.

The Carroll club base ball team made its first appearance in pretty new uniforms this morning and suffered defeat at the hands of the Eclipse team in West End park. Rumor had it that the teams were to play for $50, but the contest was for honors only.

The park was well filled with fans, many of them being of the fair sex, and all were eminently satisfied with the exhibition, each team playing a hard game. Despite their fine appearance, the members of the Carroll club team found it impossible to hold out against Challis, another boy wonder, picked up from the backyards. He showed himself to be Maley's equal and perhaps should be classed with still faster company.

It is remarkable how many fine players are being discovered among the boy teams. Before the season closes it is probable that the first team will be composed of them. H. McCarron, pitcher for the Carroll club, was batted in all directions and it was expe-

Home Sweet Home!

Mid pleasures and palaces though we may roam,
Be it ever so humble there's no place like home;
A charm from the skies seems to hallow us there
Which seek through the world is ne'er met with elsewhere.

An exile from home, pleasure dazzles in vain,
Ah, give me my lowly thatched cottage again,
The birds singing sweetly that came to my call,
Give me them and that peace of mind, dearer than all.

HE poet when he wrote these immortal verses touched a note that finds an echo in every Anglo-Saxon breast. How we love the sentiment expressed! Perhaps your home has been so varied by many movings that these lines don't find their responsive chord? Is it wise to live in a house that is not your own, putting up with all the inconveniences of a tenant house, the ups and downs with the landlord and a thousand vexations that arise when almost by the reaching out of your hand a home comes within your reach? Through us is offered to you your choice of more than in the city, at all prices, in all locations and at all kinds of terms of purchase. Whether you have much money or little, we would like to have you see what we can do for you toward your owning a home. We are not entirely mercenary in this plea for your consideration. Profit we must have, yet we hope that your profit will be the greater. Hundreds of satisfied purchasers throughout the city will tell you of us. Come and let us do the thinking and planning for you that you may own a home, realizing that it is yours, and join in the chorus and sing

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature and of Matters About Town.

The Patient Recovered—Sanitary Officer J. H. Burgess yesterday fumigated the home of Michael Reynolds, of Sugar-alley, where there was a case of scarlet fever. The patient has now recovered.

Funeral at Madison—The funeral services over the remains of James L. Moore, who died at his home in Madison township Saturday morning, were held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at Madison church. Interment was made at Madison cemetery.

Sunday School Picnic—The Sunday school of the First M. E. church will hold its annual picnic at Stanton park June 12. While the Sunday school is making all arrangements for the affair, the entire congregation is invited, and it is expected a large part of it will go.

Barbers' Meeting—The journeymen barbers of this city will hold an important meeting in their rooms on Sixth street this evening. A special meeting was held last Monday, when the closing hours for Decoration day were fixed, and the meeting this evening will be of just as much importance.

A Day in the Country—The Junior Epworth League of the M. E. church has received an invitation from Mr. and Mrs. Frank Conkle to bring their baskets and spend tomorrow in the country. The children have accepted, and will go under the direction of the superintendent, Mrs. Henry Goodwin.

and deaconess, Miss Wallace. The Conkle farm is located just beyond Calcutta, and the children expect a splendid time.

Presented a Fine Memento—Robert McElravy, whose resignation as superintendent of the Rock Springs railway went into effect Saturday evening, was not allowed to depart without being shown by the employees their appreciation of his kindness. They presented him a handsomely engraved watch and chain, the design being beautiful. Conductor Harvey Allison made the presentation speech and the departing superintendent replied impressively.

SATURDAY'S GAME CLEAN AND PRETTY

Local Team Won by One Run in a Most Interesting Contest.

MUCH SKILL WAS SHOWN

By the Players on Both Sides — How Godwin Distinguished Himself—A Hard Fought Battle, Especially Toward the End.

If a few more games similar to that played in West End park Saturday afternoon by the locals and the Windsor Athletic club, of Allegheny, in which the former won by a score of 6 to 5, are witnessed here in the near future, base ball in this city will certainly be a success and no longer will the fans leave for the park with the expectation of seeing a rank exhibition, such as the first of the series with the Allegheny boys, for instance.

It was indeed a fast game. Both teams tugged and used all the skill they possessed and by so doing the rather large crowd in attendance was on the verge of a collapse all the time, the excitement being so intense. The appearance of Godwin at short for the locals was most gratifying to the rooters and all others, with perhaps the exception of the visitors. It was not known until a few hours before the game that he was going to play, and even the players were surprised when he walked on the field in uniform.

Although the showing made by Godwin in the first part of the game was not all that was desired by his numerous friends, he was destined not to disappoint them throughout the contest. His sensational running catch and double play in the seventh and his three-base hit in the eighth which scored two runs when the visitors were in the lead made ample amends for his bad start and once more he was the hero of the game. The two errors marked against him were forgotten, and had it been in order he would have left the field in the arms of his admirers. However, to him is not due the total complement of laurels.

Grier, the young left fielder for the visitors, who is of small physique and a rather dominant manner, deserves credit and praise for his exhibition among the clouds so prevalent in the swamp where he played. It is seldom that a fielder on the local grounds has six chances in a game and more seldom yet that one of them takes advantage, as did Grier, without making a fumble, a stumble or a fall down. His repeated long runs and never failing catches soon had the locals staring like a child when attending its first circus. Not once was he found wanting when an opportunity was presented, and the way he clutched on to the ball was highly commendable.

It would also be a shameful wrong to omit to mention Winters. Because the visitors were ahead and everything seemingly in their favor for a time during the game, Winters was censured very unjustly by the greater part of the crowd. They would say: "What did Walsh put him in for?" "He is no good." In such assertions they were wrong in every particular, as all are now strongly convinced. The fact is he has the best record of any pitcher at present signed. He has won every game he has pitched this season, and that the visitors were allowed to make their start in this game was not in the least his fault. It was due entirely to the errors bunched at inopportune times for the opposing team.

It was in the ninth that Winters so cleverly demonstrated his ability. There was but one out, two men on bases, one being on second and the other on third, with the score lacking but one of being a tie and the crowd in awful suspension, when he steadied himself and made the next two men up beat the wind terrifically.

None will soon forget Harker at second, either. He played the same game that made him so popular last season, and if anything gave evidence of being more skilled. When one remembers that he belongs to the famous Kiskiminetas team, his playing can readily be accounted for. Grier, as in the two previous games, was the first up, and as usual got his base on balls. Briney went out on a grounder to second; Stevenson made his base on a misjudgment, credited a fielder's choice, and Grier, who had forged to third, scored. Moar grounded to third; Glassburner made first on Davis error and it also cost another run. Fleece quit at the plate. Godwin walked and scored by clever base running.

In the second and third each team seemed satisfied with nothing. The locals, however, made three hits. Glassburner in the fourth pounded one for three bases, and scored on an unexcusable error made by J. Heckathorn on Fisher's high fly. Fisher scored on Hoban's hit and the inning was cut short by Blakely's grounder

A SUCCESS IN EVERY RESPECT IS THE POTTERS' BIG PICNIC

Special Trains From Various Points Brought in Crowds of Visitors.

FULLY 2,500 STRANGERS

Came and, Added to East Liverpool
Operatives, Made a Great Throng.

SEBRING IS ALMOST DESERTED

The Bulk of Its Population Coming on
the Excursion—Baseball and Other Amusements Make the Day Enjoyable.

The annual outing of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters,
held at Rock Springs today, was a success in every sense of the word. No
less than three special trains came
to the city, and every one was well
loaded with operatives and their
friends, who came prepared to thoroughly enjoy the day.

The first train arrived on the New Cumberland branch at about 10 o'clock,
and contained people from Wheeling,
Tiltonville and Steubenville. On the Ohio side two trains arrived, bringing
visitors from Alliance, Sebring, Salem,
East Palestine, Beaver Falls, Rochester and Beaver. Another train brought
a large delegation of potters and their
friends from New Castle. It was during the afternoon that the crowds began to gather at the park. Eight cars
were operated on the East Liverpool
and Rock Springs railway all day,
commencing at 9 o'clock this morning, and the same number will be run
all evening.

The crowds which arrived on this
side of the river, instead of going to
the park at first, began making a
tour of East Liverpool, where friends
met friends. There was a general
hand shaking all the morning, and as
many of the visitors have friends and
relatives in this city, the day was
spent at their homes. There were
more than 2,000 visitors in the city,
but as all the East Liverpool potters
were closed at noon, the crowds at
the park were greatly augmented.

From one of the committeemen in
charge of the outing the following list
of visitors was obtained:

Wheeling sent a delegation of 380,
many of whom were mill workers.
Tiltonville delegation was composed
of about 50, while less than that number were at the park from Steubenville. New Castle brought several
hundred to the park, while Sebring
locked up the town and threw the key
away. Nearly 700 people came from
that town. The visitors from Lisbon
numbered several hundred, while East Palestine sent over about 175. A large
delegation was present from Salem,
probably 200 persons. Wellsville was present in all its glory, but the crowds
from there did not commence to arrive until after noon.

During the afternoon a baseball
game was scheduled to be played between the jiggermen and pressers of East Liverpool, the club from New Cumberland deciding not to play. This
was a disappointment, but still a good
game was expected.

SUNDAY BALL GAME

Not Enjoyed By Residents of Pleasant
Heights, Who Want Playing Stopped.

A large crowd of young men and a
few older ones annoyed the residents
of Pleasant Heights yesterday by engaging in a game of base ball. There were about 20 of the men and the
game was carried on with as much
hilarity and profanity as if it had been
any other day than Sunday.

An effort was made to stop the ball
playing, but no attention whatever was
paid to the repeated requests on the part of the residents. An effort will
be made to induce the police department to send a man to that locality another Sunday.

CHILDREN'S DAY

Observed at the Christian Church—A Beautiful Cantata
Presented.

The annual Children's day exercises
of the Sunday school of the Christian church were held last evening. The
church was profusely decorated with
flowers, palms, etc., and was thought
by many persons to be more beautiful than ever before. A cantata entitled "Beside Many Waters" was participated in by about 25 or 30 children,

and occupied the entire service hour.
A ribbon drill in the cantata was a
special feature.

The entire exercise was one of great
success, the children having been previously drilled by a committee of
which Miss Mary Lloyd was chairman.
The exact amount of the Children's
day offering is not yet known.

RIOUS WOUND.

They Were Hunting Ground Hogs
With a Rifle And the Weapon
Was Discharged.

Lisbon, June 2.—(Special)—
Harry Grimes, aged 12, son of Reuben
Grimes, of West Point, was accident-
ally shot in the face yesterday by James Lewis, a playmate. The boys were hunting ground hogs, when in some
way the gun, a 22-caliber rifle, was discharged.

The bullet entered Grimes' right
cheek, passed through his mouth and
came out at the nose, causing an ugly
wound.

Wants the Law's Aid Because She
Was Called a Long
Reacher.

Boiling over with rage, her hair
floating madly in the air, her eyes
gleaming fiercely and her entire make-
up presenting that of a caged animal
just freed, an unknown woman of perhaps 30 years' went dashing into Squire McCarron's court this morning
and the awful tirade of words and
phrases propounded by her made the
sedate justice of the peace crouch far
below where his dignity dictates.

She wanted Mrs. T. Eisenhuth, of Ravine street, arrested for calling her a
"Hoop-poler," a "Rubber neck," a
"Long Reacher," and other names. The squire did not take the case.

HIGH VALUATION

Placed By Appraisers on the Property
of the Fort Wayne
Railroad.

Lisbon, June 2.—(Special)—
The Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago
railroad was appraised at Canton Saturday by the auditors of counties
through which it passes. The main
line was appraised at $25,000 per mile,
a higher appraisement than that of any
other railroad in the state, being
$8,000 higher than the Lake Shore,
which is considered as good a road.

The rolling stock was appraised at $7,500 per mile; the second track at $8,000 and the sidings at $4,000. The
buildings in Columbiana county were
valued at $30,285, and the county's portion of the total moneys and credits
at $11,150.

TAKEN TO JAIL

Mrs. Alice Rutter, of Salem, Makes a Partial Con-
fession.

Salem, June 2.—Mrs. Alice Rutter
made a confession that will probably
prove her an accomplice in the crime
of infanticide, and was taken to the county jail. She wanted her youngest
child to go with her, but this was refused. It is said that she has threatened suicide. Al Rutter is in jail as
an accomplice.

The coroner has not yet returned his
verdict.

Order of Sale Issued.

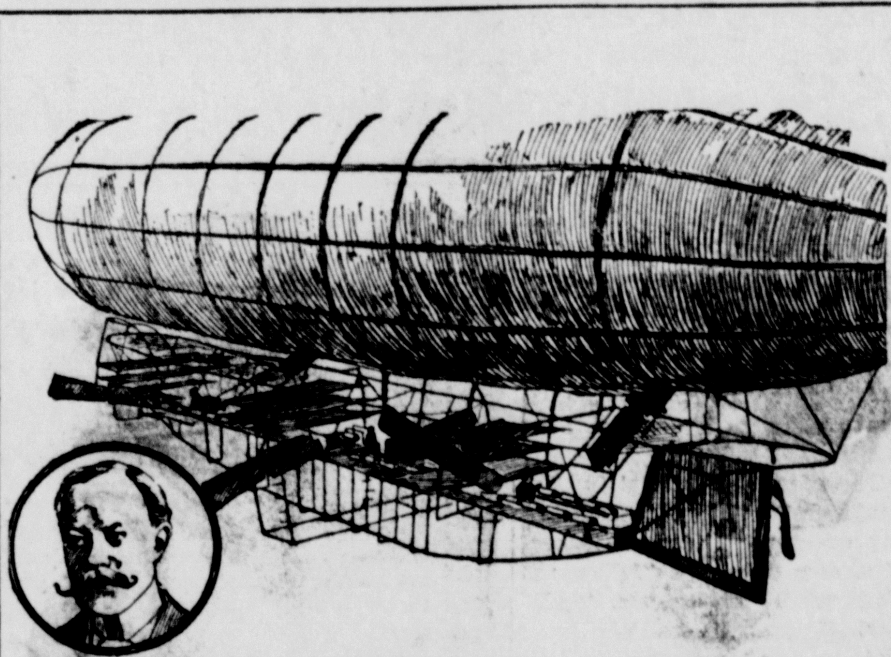

Lisbon, June 2.—(Special)—
In the case of Mary R. Welsh vs. Catherine W. Sell, the common pleas court
found that the estate of Jacob W.
Sell, late of Salem township, could
not be partitioned and ordered the
sheriff to sell the property, consisting
of 35.96 acres of land subject to the
homestead of Catherine W. Sell, consisting of the house and three-quarter
acres of ground.

Train Jumper in Jail.

Lisbon, June 2.—(Special)—
John Jenkins was lodged in the county
jail yesterday charged with train
jumping at East Palestine.

To Vote On Local Option.

Columbiana, June 2.—Columbiana
will vote today on the question of continuing as a dry town. A lively contest is assured.

THE NEW AIRSHIP OF F. A. BARTON.

The British war department is having built a new airship invented by Dr. F. A. Barton, who admits that his machine will surpass Santos-Dumont's "antidivorian type" as the most recent electric car surpasses the old horse drawn vehicles. He is ready, he says, to run Santos a race from London to Edinburgh, 400 miles, on a wager of $50,000, but the Brazilian says that Dr. Barton must make his flying machine fly before he will deign to acknowledge him as a competitor. The Barton machine is fish shaped, divided internally into four compartments, with a driving mechanism consisting of six screw propellers, each 17 feet in length, coupled to three motors. Its total length is 104 feet, with a deck width of only 2 1/2 feet. It is intended to carry a crew of five, one man at each of the three motors, one at the steering gear and an aeroman proper. The machine has all the latest improvements, such as water ballast, safety netting, petrol for fuel, etc.

NEW CUMBERLAND SUFFERS BIG LOSS

An Incendiary Fire Saturday
Morning Destroyed Ten
Buildings.

A Building Was Probably Intentionally
Burned And the Destruction of Others Followed—The Total Loss Likely to Exceed $5,000.

New Cumberland, June 2.—Property
worth $5,000 or more went up in flames
and smoke Saturday morning. The
buildings burned were:

H. A. Cassidy's residence, facing the railroad. Three houses belonging to David Ward, on Pearl street. Row of
three one-story houses on Chester
street. House and millinery store, the property of the late Mrs. Headley, occupied for years by Mrs. Headley, and
of late by Mrs. Green. Jack Melvin's
livery stable.

The buildings burned were all old
ones. The residences burned would
average in value $700 each. Not all
were insured.

The fire started about 2 a. m., in
the row of vacant houses on Chester
street. It is supposed to have been
the work of an incendiary. An attempt was made by some one to burn
these houses last Monday night, but
the fire was discovered before it had gained much headway. It was so far
under way Saturday morning that the firemen could not control it. They
centered their energies in saving property across the street. It was only
above the dump was destroyed.

The old houses burned fast and the
occupants were able to get only a
part of their household goods out.
Those who lost their homes and the
contents of their houses are quartered
with friends. The property destroyed
belonged chiefly to people of limited
means and the loss to them will mean
great hardship.

The building where the fire started
was not tenanted. It had been used
as quarters for smallpox patients and
for that reason is thought to have
been set on fire.

WHOLESALE POISONING

Dogs Suspected of Chicken Stealing
Slaughtered on Fairview
Street.

On Fairview street yesterday there
was a case of wholesale poisoning. A short time ago dogs killed 48 chickens
in one night. The owners of the chickens swore vengeance. This morning a
mother dog and a large litter of pups
were found dead in the road. There,
by the roadside, they are still lying.

More Picnics Booked.

Manager J. Howard Maxwell continues to make additions to his already
long string of picnics for Rock Springs
park, and no less than four more have
been booked within the last week.
Louisville, O. merchants have secured
a date, while others are from Wheel-
ing carpenters; Christian church, Al-
legheeny and the Junior Mechanics of
Pittsburg. This makes a total of 69
picnics that have been booked so far,
and there are many more to be heard
from.

HAPPY CHILDREN FILLED THE PARK

A Day of Unalloyed Enjoyment for
3,000 East Liverpool School
Pupils.

FREE RIDES WERE GIVEN

On the Street Cars and on the Merry-
go-round and Roller Coaster—No
Accidents or Mishaps to Mar Their Pleasure.

Probably 3,000 school children, a great many of them accompanied by
parents or relatives, enjoyed the free
outing provided for their benefit on Saturday by the management of the Rock Springs park and of the East
Liverpool & Rock Springs street rail-
way. It was a beautiful day, and nothing occurred to prevent unalloyed
pleasure.

Never was an outing of more success. All day long the East Liverpool
school children had the freedom of the
park, running up hill and down dale,
until eventide, when little feet began
to become tired, and then there was
a longing for home.

Games of all sorts were played during the morning and afternoon, while
in the afternoon there was a basket
ball contest and a base ball game. Of course the main attraction for the
children was the merry-go-round and
the roller coaster. About 3 o'clock
Saturday afternoon the park management distributed a number of tickets
to the children for the merry-go-round
and roller coaster. When this fact became known they crowded around the
man with the tickets, and within half
an hour all the complimentary tickets
had been distributed. There was little to mar the pleasure of the day. Every one seemed contented and the children only wished that more days like Saturday would come about once a
month.

During the afternoon a little child
was seen running down the hillside
near where the old bowling alley
stood. The child fell, its dress was
soiled and the mother, seeing this,
called the child to her. The woman,
who was inside the old alley, reached
over the railing, commenced to chastise
the little one, much to the dis-
gust of a number of older persons who
were watching the affair. The woman
first hit the child on the head, then on
the arm, and although the little one
was crying piteously, she pulled the
child's right ear so hard that it almost
lifted the little one from the ground.
Then the crowd began to yell at the
woman, who soon made a retreat to
another part of the building, evidently
ashamed of her actions.

But most of the mothers were there
to see that the children enjoyed themselves. There were picnic luncheons
in profusion, and the woods and beautiful grounds were alive with happy
little ones all day long.

Rev. W. H. Gladden Chosen for the Fourth Year of the Second Term.

At the annual congregational meeting held yesterday in the First Methodist Protestant church, the present
pastor, Rev. W. H. Gladden, was called

THE SUPREME COURT TO TEST WILLIS TAX LAW'S VALIDITY

to that pulpit for the fourth year of a second pastorate. The meeting was
one of the largest held by that congregation in recent years.

The annual conference meets the
first of September in Knoxville, a suburb of Pittsburg. That church is already making elaborate preparations
for the approaching conference. Next Sunday in this city a delegates to
the conference will be elected and instructed.

THE PEACE TERMS

UNDER WHICH THE WAR IN AFRI-CA CEASES.

Boers Not to Be Taxed For Cost of War—Rebels to Be Disfranchised.

London, June 2.—(Special)—Secre-
tary Balfour announced in the house
of commons today the terms of peace.
The Burgher forces lay down arms
and hand over all rifles, guns and munitions of war in their possession or
under their control. All prisoners are
to be brought back as soon as possible to South Africa without loss of liberty or property. No action is to be taken against prisoners except
where guilty of breaches of the rules
of war. Dutch is to be taught in schools if desired by parents and used
in courts if necessary.

Rifles are allowed for protection.
Military occupation is to be withdrawn
as soon as possible, and self government substituted. There will be no
tax on the Transvaal to pay the cost
of war. Fifteen million dollars is to be provided for re-stocking Boers' farms.

Rebels are liable to trial according
to law of the country to which they
belong. The rank and file will be disfranchised for life. No death penalty.

BAKERS ORGANIZE

AND ADOPT A UNIFORM SCALE
OF PRICES.

Bread And Pies Will Be Eight Cents Each at Whole-
sale.

The boss bakers of this city last Thursday evening held a meeting at Anderson's bakery on Sixth street and
decided to form an association similar
to that which was recently formed by
the butchers. While practically every bakery in the city was represented, a
permanent organization will not be
formed until Wednesday evening,
when another meeting will be held and
permanent officers elected.

Commencing today every baker in
the city will not sell a large loaf of
bread at wholesale for less than eight
cents, or buns and small cakes for less
than eight cents. Pies will also be wholesale at eight cents. The retail
price of all breadstuffs will remain the
same as heretofore.

Organ to Be Dedicated And Large
Class Confirmed at St. Stephen's.
Bishop to Be Present.

The new organ will be dedicated and
confirmation services held at St. Stephen's Episcopal church tonight. The organ will be dedicated by Rt. Rev. W.
A. Leonard, D. D., bishop of the Ohio
diocese. The dedication sermon will be preached by Rev. Dr. Hinkle, of Steubenville.

This service will be followed by confirmation, when a class of 40 candidates will be presented by the rector.
The service will commence promptly
at 8 o'clock. Special music by the large vested choir will be furnished.

W. A. Tarr Once More Arrested For Drunkness And Wife Beating.

Lisbon, June 2.—(Special)—
Infirmary Director W. A. Tarr is in trouble again. Saturday after he was acquitted of the charge of assault and
battery, he celebrated by getting
drunk, after which he went home and
again got into trouble with his wife.
She promptly had him arrested, and
he lay in jail Sunday. She claims
that he struck her and threatened to
do her serious harm, and that she was afraid to have him at large. He will be given a hearing this evening.

Stark County Corporations With

It Is Unconstitutional.

A TEMPORARY INJUNCTION

Is Issued Restraining the State
From the Collection of
the Tax.

DOUBLE TAXATION IS ALLEGED

By the Companies to the Suit—Large
Class for Bar Examination at Columbus—The Socialist Party's
State Ticket.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, June 2.—The suit filed in
common pleas court Saturday by about 50 Stark county corporations to test
the validity of the Willis law, impos-
ing a tax of one tenth of one per cent,
will be taken to supreme court for
final adjudication as soon as possible.
The plaintiffs allege that the law is
unconstitutional on the ground that it
imposes double taxation, and that it is
in conflict with the constitution of
Ohio and of that of the United States.
Attorney General Sheets, as the attorney of Secretary of State Laylin,
will file answer in the case at once,
and will ask that it be dismissed, on
the ground that it does not state facts
sufficient for a cause of action. A temporary injunction has been issued,
restraining the secretary from paying
the money collected into the state
treasury. All annual fees paid by domestic corporations for profit under
the Willis law will be restrained by
him until the decision of the suit, so
that in the event of the invalidity of
the Willis law, the annual fees so paid
by all such corporations may be re-
funded.

The aggregate capital stock of the
plaintiff companies approximates $11-
000,000. The Morgan Engineering company, the Review and Leader, of Alliance, and the News Democrat of Canton, are among the plaintiffs in the
suit.

Theodore Adams, of Columbus, who
has been nominated for secretary of
state on the Socialist Labor party, is
the man who narrowly escaped being
mobbed in this city for giving utter-
ance to seditious sentiments upon receiving the news of the assassination
of President McKinley. Samuel Dor-
ton, of Salem, is the party's nominee
for judge of the supreme court. He was on the ticket a year ago. He is a stone mason, and while credited to Salem, resides at Valley, about five miles
southwest of that city.

A class of 250 applicants will appear
before the state board in this city
tomorrow to take the examination for
admission for the bar. It is believed
the examination this time will be unusually severe.

Senator William E. Decker, of
Paulding, will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for secretary
of state. His is the first name mentioned.

The Y. M. C. A. Athletic Park in Chester Will Soon Be Finished.

If work continues without interruption as it has for the past ten days the
Y. M. C. A. park in Chester will be completed before the time contracted
for. All of the rough grading will be finished in a few days and the contract
for the high board fence surrounding
the park will be let this week. When
this is completed the park will be
practically ready for a formal opening,
but it is not likely that the opening
will take place until the Fourth of July, when the Homestead base ball
team may be the attraction.

Manager Wright is in communication with them and hopes to be able to have them on the above date. As before announced the members of the
association are using the grounds of Rock Springs park for the playing of
their games and have now several interesting games scheduled.

Wednesday evening the second team
will cross bats with the Carroll club,
and an exciting contest is assured.

LOST CHILDREN

A Little Girl Walked From Chester to East End And a Boy From Wellsville.

From the manner some people of the East End talk, none of their children will be able to attend the public school picnic next year, if there is one. Some of the children became lost Saturday, and did not return to their homes until 11 o'clock in the evening. Mrs. Smith, residing on Railroad street, opposite the Laughlin pottery, allowed her two young children to go to the outing, and about 10 o'clock Saturday morning one of the children, a little girl, lost her ticket. She had spent all her money except five cents, and this she was compelled to pay for bridge toll. The child walked from the park over to the bridge, and there paid the only money she had for toll. The child, penniless, was then compelled to walk to her home in the East End.

An eight-year-old son of Mrs. Smith, when he arrived at the Diamond, became bewildered and got on a Wellsville car. Not until he reached Wellsville did he discover his mistake, and then he was compelled to walk home. At the Jethro bridge he met a little boy whom he knew and there sufficient car fare was obtained to allow his return to the East End.

A little child of Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell, of the East End, also got lost when he alighted from a car in the Diamond, and at 11 o'clock he was found wandering up the Calcutta hill.

The claim is made that the officials of the schools should have had some person at the cars to direct the smaller ones to their homes when they arrived in the city, and by so doing avoided trouble and anxiety.

DUMPING OF GARBAGE

Must Receive Township Trustees' Attention, as It Is Outside the City.

While much has been said about the dumping of garbage in the vicinity of the powder house of the American Sewer Pipe company, on Lake's Run, it may be interesting to learn that this garbage was dumped or buried outside the city limits, and the matter is beyond the jurisdiction of the East Liverpool board of health. It is now up to the township board of health, which is composed of the township trustees. A few days ago Sanitary Officer Burgess made an investigation of the matter, and finding it to be outside the city limits, notified the township authorities.

THE FIRST CARS

Run Over the New Extension as far as the State Line Yesterday.

The East Liverpool railway company yesterday operated cars over the new East End extension as far as the state line, the extension being completed this far.

The company will commence next Sunday to run regularly over this part of the road, and would have commenced this morning, but some repairs have to be made to the track before regular operations are commenced.

Travel on this road yesterday was unusually heavy.

The same service will also be observed in the Erie street M. E. church and a program is being arranged. Sunday evening baptism service will also be observed.

Suit of Baker vs. Moates.

The case of Baker vs. Moates, which was to have been heard before Justice L. W. Carman Saturday evening, was deferred until tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, when the case will be tried by a jury. Baker seeks to recover $24.

Quarterly Conference.

The quarterly conference of the Erie street M. E. church was held Saturday evening. Dr. C. E. Manchester, presiding elder of the Steubenville district, presided. At the service last evening the quarterly communion was observed.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

The Federal Building and Loan association today removed to its new quarters in the Dixon property on Mulberry street. The main office has all the appearance of a bank.

The tribe of Ben Hur of the East End and of East Liverpool will attend a memorial service in a body next Sunday morning at the Second M. E. church. The sermon will be delivered by Rev. George W. Orcutt.

Rev. Mr. McVey, of Lawrence, Mass., yesterday conducted both morning and evening services at the Second U. P. church. A meeting of the congregation of this church will be held on Wednesday evening to call a pastor.

The next meeting of the Prohibition Alliance of the East End, will be held next Thursday evening at the residence of Archie Searight on Pennsylvania avenue next Thursday evening. Several new members are to be admitted.

EXCITED WARM DEBATE

Committee Cut It to $100, But Rev. J. G. Reinartz Got It Up to $200.

New Castle, Pa., June 2.—At the sessions of the Pittsburgh synod of the Evangelical church here Saturday the appropriation of $400 for the Wilkinsburg congregation caused a warm discussion. Rev. J. L. Smith wanted to have the appropriation cut out. The appropriation was finally agreed upon unanimously.

The question of the East Liverpool appropriation brought about another warm fight. The committee had reduced it to $100 from $225. The pastor of the East Liverpool congregation was here to protest against the reduction. He said the cost of living had increased 30 or 40 per cent during the last few years, but instead of the church raising his salary to meet the demand, it sought to reduce it $100 a year.

The pastor, Rev. J. G. Reinartz, said: "My credit is at stake in that town. I have been able to meet my obligations, but if my salary is reduced I will not be able to do so. Rather than lose my credit I would leave the ministry and dig dirt."

The discussion revealed the fact that Rev. Mr. Reinartz had received a number of calls from other churches, all offering him more salary than he receives in East Liverpool, and one offer even doubling this amount. He has been in East Liverpool for 16 years, and has built the church from 8 to 173 members. They have a fine church property, but are not yet self-supporting. The discussion became very warm, but was finally settled by an almost unanimous vote favoring an appropriation of $200 for this year.

GRADUATING CLASS

Commencement Exercises Last Week at East Palestine and Columbiana.

The commencement exercises of the graduating class at East Palestine were held Memorial day evening. The class numbered 12. The address was delivered by Prof. F. J. Roller, of the Niles public schools. The following are the names of the graduates: Clifford W. Allcorn, John S. Atchison, H. Edward Crowl, Sadie Early, Eliza A. Fleming, Myrtle Frankland, Minnie Harding, Harold D. Lincoln, Maude Pancake, Earl Lincoln, Grace Suthern, William A. Suthern.

The graduating exercises of the Columbiana high school were held Thursday evening. The class is composed of nine members, as follows: Ralph Mellinger, Leon Houlette, Roy Weaver, Earl McCurry, Vera Windle, Aldine Metzler, Iva Renkenberger, Clarence Rupert and Mabel Caughey. The class address was made by Charles C. Bow, a prominent attorney of Canton.

SALINEVILLE

Salineville, June 2.—Memorial services were conducted May 25 by Rev. Messrs. Dean, Grimm and Rader at the United Presbyterian church. In a union service, Rev. Mr. Dean, of the U. P. church, preached an able and patriotic sermon. The G. A. R. and a number of ex-soldiers occupied front seats. The Memorial day services Friday were well carried out.

Mrs. John C. Haverfield, of Cadiz, after a brief visit at the parental home in this town, has returned to her family.

Miss Cassie Harvey, a colored young lady of Hayti, fell and fractured both bones of her ankle. Dr. Blazure, of the East End, reduced the fracture. At last accounts she was doing well.

Miss E. Anna Thompson, after a 10-days' visit among her East Liverpool and Salineville relatives, has returned to New York city.

DECLARED STRIKE UNFAIR.

Thompson Said It Would Make Independent Furnaces Pay More For Production Than Combine.

Youngstown, O., June 2.—The furnacemen's strike, affecting all the independent and the Republic Iron and Steel company's furnaces in the Mahoning and Shenango valleys, began yesterday morning. The Hubbard furnace, the only one in operation yesterday, closed down last night, throwing, all told, 3,600 men out of work.

No United States Steel corporation mills were affected, but President McMahon, of the union, asserted that some of them will be closed within a few days.

President Thompson, of the Republic Iron and Steel company, said yesterday that the strike is an unfair one to that company, the union forcing the independent furnaces into a position which requires 50 per cent greater cost for production than the United States Steel corporation pays.

No word has been received from the Pittsburgh and Ohio river districts, although four Pittsburgh furnaces may be closed down today.

Four Dead; One Reported Dying.

New York, June 2.—Max Kasten, 32 years old, and Mrs. Lydia McKrow, the same age, lost their lives yesterday in a fire which swept away many buildings at Rockaway Beach. Thomas S. McKrow and his 5-year-old son, Frank; Martin Hanson, 28, an Morris Kasten, 75, were injured and taken to the hospital in Long Island city. Several hours later young McKrow died and the father was reported to be dying. The body of a man was found burned to a crisp in one of the buildings. He is supposed to have been a candy maker. A number of persons received slight burns. Loss estimated at about $120,000.

MAY FLOOD MINES.

to Go Out Went Into Effect
This Morning.

TEST OF THE UNION STRENGTH.

If the Employers Can Keep the Water Out of Their Workings, the Strike of the Anthracite Miners May Be Lost.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., June 2.—At 7 o'clock this morning the order of the United Mine Workers of America calling out all the stationary engineers, firemen and pumpmen, unless the companies granted them an eight-hour day at present wages, went into effect, and no one can foretell the outcome of the new movement. Victory for either side will be of immense advantage, and both parties to the controversy are striving with all the power at their command to win. If the union succeeds in shutting down the pumps the mine properties will suffer damage that may reach into millions of dollars, and if the employers should be able to keep the water out of their workings without the aid of organized labor it means that the power of the union in the anthracite region has reached its limit and that all help in the effort to force the mine owners to grant the demands of the great army of 147,000 men must come from some outside source. The mine workers say they will preserve the property of the companies if the engineers, pumpmen and firemen are given what they ask for, and the companies say they will permit no outsiders to fix the hours and wages of their men. Neither side last night showed the slightest disposition to yield, and in the words of one mining superintendent, "It is a fight to the finish." President Mitchell said last night that it is the first time in the history of his organization that the union was compelled to call out this class of employees and thus endanger the safety of the mines. In all other instances, he said, the demands of the men were granted.

Non-Union Men In the Region.

Practically all the non-union men to be employed are now in the region. The companies say that the number of those who have volunteered to fill strikers' places has been surprisingly large, and that no difficulty has been encountered in selecting good men. An army of approximately 3,000 armed coal and iron policemen, sworn in under a law of the state of Pennsylvania, was in the field last night, ready to protect these men and the mining properties. There are also scattered through the coal country, it is said, 1,000 men who are doing secret work for the companies. Every colliery in the coal belt has either a board or a barbed wire fence around it. At some of the mines "camp" cars are lying on the sidings for the accommodation of non-union men, most of whom will live within the colliery confines during the suspension. Hazleton, Pa., June 2.—The scene that occurred here Saturday night upon the arrival of a deputation of special officers was repeated at 7:30 o'clock last night, when about 20 officers, in charge of a coal company agent, boarded a trolley car at the Hazleton house for Freeland. The streets of the city were crowded and when the officers came into sight about 500 men rushed at them, hissing and yelling. It was feared that the crowd would attack the officers and trouble would undoubtedly have occurred had not Chief of Police Ferry and four of his men held the excited strike sympathizers back until the car left. As the car started the yelling and hissing was resumed. Two of the imported men remained in the city, and as they proceeded through the crowd under police protection to their hotel they were also hooted.

Servant Girls Wouldn't Serve Them.

The ten servant girls at the Hazleton house, where some of the officers are quartered, were prevailed upon immediately after this episode to quit and they left their posts with declarations that they would not wait upon the imported men.

NICARAGUA CANAL BILL.

It is to Come Up After the Philippine Bill Is Disposed of in the Senate.

Washington, June 2.—Under the terms of the unanimous agreement reached last Wednesday the senate will vote at 4 o'clock Tuesday on the bill providing a form of civil government for the Philippine islands, and the entire intervening time of the senate's sessions will be devoted to 15-minute speeches on the bill. The senate will meet at 11 o'clock today and tomorrow for the purpose of giving additional time for the discussion. A large number of short speeches will be made, but no order for their delivery has been agreed on.

Canal Bill to Come Up.

The general understanding now is that on Wednesday, after the disposal of the Philippine bill, the Nicaragua canal bill will be called up and made the regular order of business. There will be an effort made to substitute for the Nicaragua bill the bill introduced by Senator Spooner, leaving to the discretion of the president the selection of an isthmian canal route, and its champions are claiming a majority of the senate will support them. The friends of the Nicaragua route and also the advocates of a policy that would leave the president discretion as to routes now say there is no necessity or prospect for prolonged debate. A number of speeches, however, already have been announced. Senator Hanna will speak at length for the Spooner bill, as will Senator Kittredge. Among those who have indicated their purpose of addressing the senate in the interest of the Nicaragua route are Senators Harris, Mitchell, Foster, of Louisiana; Turner and Morgan.

The present understanding is that the Cuban reciprocity bill will not be discussed during the week. That measure is still in committee, but probably will be reported on Tuesday or Wednesday, its terms having been practically agreed on by the Republican members of the committee, and Senator Platt, of Connecticut, chairman of the committee, having indicated his purpose to lay the bill before the full membership at an early day. The bill agreed on provides for a straight reduction for five years of 20 per cent of the duty on Cuban goods coming into the United States without imposing conditions as to immigration and labor laws, or, indeed, any other conditions.

Republican Senators to Caucus.

It is the present intention to have the Republican senators caucus on the bill when reported, with the hope of making it a party measure and of thus avoiding the division in the party ranks which was experienced over the question in the house of representatives.

The naval and District of Columbia appropriation bills probably will be reported during the week, but their immediate consideration will depend largely on the readiness of senators to continue the discussion of the canal question.

DECISION ON SHERMAN'S WILL.

Opinion Handed Down Against Mrs. McCallum's Claims.

Mansfield, O., June 2.—Judge Dirlam rendered an opinion in construction of the will of John Sherman in the common pleas court Saturday morning. Mrs. Mary S. McCallum, of Washington, Mrs. Sherman's adopted daughter, contended that the devisees of Mrs. Sherman fell to her as sole heir, and did not return to the estate for division under the will of Mr. Sherman. Judge Dirlam held against this contention, finding that the devisees and the legacies to the wife fell into the residuum of the estate and were carried by the residuary clauses.

The effect of this is to divide the property which Mrs. McCallum claims as heir of Mrs. Sherman among the six legatees under Mr. Sherman's will, five of the Sherman blood and Mrs. McCallum, the adopted daughter. It amounts to about $35,000. Mr. Sherman gave Mrs. McCallum a marble residence in Washington when she was married. Under the will she received a bequest of $100,000 and by a codicil the Sherman residence in Washington. The residuary clauses are said to carry about $2,000,000 worth of property.

Fire in Hollidaysburg, Pa.

Hollidaysburg, Pa., June 2.—A fire of incendiary origin Saturday night destroyed the Phoenix fire engine house, W. H. Goodfellow's Sons' warehouse, wrecked the Hollidaysburg opera house and damaged the Law-leet business block. The stock of merchandise in Frank Glessner's department store, W. H. Goodfellow's Sons' hardware store and John Law's clothing store were damaged by fire and water. The total loss approximated $41,000.

Prominent Hotel Proprietor Dead.

Cincinnati, June 2.—A. G. Corne, aged 61 years, president and principal owner of the Grand hotel and the Gibson house, in this city, died yesterday, after an illness of three months. He had been in the hotel business here more than 49 years, as proprietor of the old Spencer house and the Broadway hotel, in former years, and accumulated a large fortune.

COUNTY AND NEIGHBORHOOD

John Archibald, of East Palestine, has bought the Noontide newspaper, of Rogers.

'Squire George Carson, the oldest resident of Berlin, Mahoning county, is dead, aged 90.

William Curvan, an old soldier from Franklin Square, fell from the high bridge on the Ft. Wayne railroad below Salem and broke his hip.

Major H. B. Ramey, of Warren, was elected colonel of the Fifth regiment, Ohio National Guard, to succeed Colonel D. H. Pond, of Cleveland.

Lewis Farlow, an electrician at the Ohio steel plant, Youngstown, was injured and died a short time after. He was crushed between two cars.

George Holdereith, of Boston, visited his father, John Holdereith, in Salem. It was 20 years since they had met and neither knew the other at first.

The resignation of Rev. C. C. Waite as pastor of the Sharon (Pa.) Christian church has been accepted, and he will preach his farewell sermon June 8.

On petition of Samuel Irwin, a stock holder, William H. Campbell has been appointed receiver for the Buckeye Waterproof Sign company, of Toronto.

The Melbourne brick plant at Malvern was sold to the Crown Clay company, of Akron, for $55,000. The new company will also manufacture conduits and hollow ware.

E. C. Moore, of Painesville, a B. & O. fireman, was pinioned down under a wreck at Youngstown for hours, during which time his leg was nearly burned off. He is likely to recover.

The Greer-Beatty Clay company, which is building a plant on the Beatty farm, near Magnolia, has organized by electing Wallen M. Beatty, president; R. E. Greer, vice president; C. S. Greer, secretary.

Benjamin S. Lawrence, a bridge builder, of Toronto, has married his own stepmother, Hattie Lawrence, widow of his father, who died recently. She is about 30, or nearly the same age as her husband, and it is her third marriage.

Wintering in Colorado And Utah.

The climate of Colorado and Utah has long been world famous, but it is only within recent years that attention has been given to the delightful winter climate of these states. Today physicians all over the United States send their patients to Colorado and Utah to escape the rigors of eastern winters and to benefit by her invigorating atmosphere and health-giving sunshine.

It is not necessary to add an elaborate argument—the conclusion is self-evident and inevitable. The winter climate of Colorado and Utah on the whole presents advantages for the invalid and the pleasure-seeker that cannot fail to command attention.

An erroneous impression prevails that because the Rocky mountains have a high elevation the mercury in the thermometer drops down below zero in the winter season and stops there, and that the snow mounts up with the altitude. The fact is that the average precipitation of moisture in the lowlands of the mountain region during the entire year is only 14.15 inches. With such average precipitation there is practically no danger of snow blockades on the railroads, save at a few points exposed to drifts and these points have been amply protected. This is especially true of the lines of the Denver & Rio Grande and the Rio Grande Western between Denver and Ogden at all seasons of the year. Facts speak for themselves, and the fact is that travel over "The Scenic Line of the World" has gone on with less interruption from snow blockades during the last ten winters than it has upon the majority of railroads in other localities which are popularly supposed to be more free from such delays than the mountain systems. THREE IMPORTANT BILLS.

House Will Likely Act Upon Them This Week.

Washington, June 2.—During the coming week the house probably will act on three important bills which the rules committee decided, some time ago, to bring before that body at the earliest opportunity. These are the anti-anarchy bill, the Pacific cable bill, and the senate irrigation bill. No time limit is to be set on the anti-anarchy bill, consideration of which will be entered on today, but it is not believed that it will occupy more than two days.

A day is to be given to the bill for the government cable to the Philippines and three days to the irrigation bill. In case the general deficiency bill, the last of the big appropriation bills, is ready before the end of the week, the program above outlined may be interrupted, as appropriation bills and conference reports are to have the right of way under the terms of the special orders which the committee on rules has passed.

Reid Has Sailed.

New York, June 2.—Whitelaw Reid, the ambassador of the United States to the coronation of King Edward, sailed Saturday for England on the Cunard liner Umbria. Mr. Reid was accompanied by his wife and daughter.

The Best Liniment

"I have derived great benefit from the use of Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism and lumbago," says Mrs. Anna Nagelgans, of Tuckahoe, N. J. "My husband used it for a sprained back and was also quickly relieved. In fact it is the best family liniment I have ever used. I would not think of being without it. I have recommended it to many and they always speak very highly of it and declare its merits are wonderful." For sale by Alvin H. Bulger, Druggist.

NEURALGYLINE FOR THE NERVES

relieves neuralgia and other nervous pains. It relieves them quickly. It is absolutely harmless. By quieting the nerves, it removes the cause of all nervous diseases. When your head feels as if thousands of pins were sticking in it, when your night's rest is broken by those awful neuralgic pains, when, on account of your awful suffering, you become morose and cross, when you are tired of your very existence, when, in short, you are in the grasp of that fiendish disease, Neuralgia, buy a box of Neuralgyline.

Take one pill. Twenty minutes after you have taken it, your pains will have vanished as if by magic. You only have yourself to blame now if you continue to have Neuralgic pains, for Neuralgyline relieves pain permanently.

TESTIMONIALS.—Every box of Neuralgyline features a satisfied customer, who by telling of its merits, makes new customers. Mr. E. FELL, Druggist, Canton, Ohio. I recommend Neuralgyline as a permanent cure for Neuralgia and neuralgic headaches. W. SCOTT, M. D., Orlando, Florida.

They have been relieved of their awful suffering, as you can see. Every first-class druggist in town sells Neuralgyline. Price 50c. a box. If you find that Neuralgyline is not as represented, money will be cheerfully refunded. Samples free on request.

There is rejoicing in London and in Pretoria, and there will be rejoicing throughout the world as the news spreads that the struggle between Boer and Briton is at an end. It was,
as all the world except the Boers recognized at the start, a vain and useless contest. In the years of warfare
they have gained nothing except a reputation for valor, which is indeed small compensation for the lives and treasure sacrificed. However America may sympathize with the republican spirit that started the revolt and kept it alive, the outcome of the struggle is only what the world expected. The Boers are not progressive, and their leaders have been men who typified their people. Their government was primitive. It was also tainted with dishonesty and injustice. There was neither freedom of religion, freedom of education, nor equal rights in the so-called republics. Education, industry and commerce; the reclamation of Africa and the development of its magnificent resources will all move forward faster than would have been possible under the old conditions. Repairing war's waste is a weary and difficult task. But it is not a profitless
one. The cessation of warfare and the revival of industry in South Africa
will be felt throughout the world.
There are old railroads to be rebuilt,
re-equipped and put in running order;
new railroads to be constructed and provided with rolling stock. Farming implements, building material and countless other things will be in demand, and the outside world will profit by the avenues of trade soon to be opened. The misfortunes of the Boers mean gains for other peoples.
This is the history of wars, the world over. But the fact on which the world is most to be congratulated is that peace has been established, and that it is likely to be permanent.

The approaching completion of the great Trans-Siberian railway calls public attention afresh to one of the most colossal engineering enterprises of the century. All that remains to complete the great undertaking is a tunnel through the Hinkan mountains in Manchuria, which is now under construction. When the imperial ukase for the completion of this road was issued in May, 1891, it was estimated that it would cost 24,000,000 rubles,
and that it would take five years to build it. It has taken over eleven years to build it, and the cost has reached the enormous sum of 750,000-000 rubles, or about $375,000,000. American interest has been stimulated in this enterprise not only through the important part that American tools
and machinery have played in the construction of the road, but because of its effect upon commercial conditions
and upon the markets of the world.
Whatever may be the result to America, it is certain that the completion of the road will add millions to the wealth of Russia, and stimulate industry in a part of the world where such stimulus is sadly needed.

Commenting on the fact that Congressman Taylor finds it necessary to quit the national legislature in order to make money, the Mansfield

News remarks: "Congressman Taylor, unlike some men who go to congress,
does not see his way clear to amassing a fortune on a salary of $5,000 a year." And that is one excellent reason why his absence from the national legislature will be regretted.

Inventor Edison, like Tesla, is not given to boasting. His announcement, therefore, that he has perfected a light, cheap and serviceable storage
battery which can be attached to vehicles and do the work of the horse better than any horse possibly could,
is bound to attract attention. Edison has invented hundreds of devices and has never fathered a failure.

There is an intimation that ex-Attorney General Judson Harmon, of Cincinnati, is willing to sacrifice himself
on the altar of Democracy by becoming a candidate for president. Besides being a gold standard man, he is, in the words of Artemus Ward, "no politician and his other habits are good,"
so that it is improbable that his party
will seriously consider him.

Aguinaldo is not to be a paramount issue in the coming congressional campaign of the Democracy. That party will attack the trusts and the tariff, under the delusion that they are kindred.

Welcome to the visiting potters!

WHAT IS GOING ON IN THE POTTERIES

While the eastern trade journals are filled from cover to cover with announcements that trade in the potteries is picking up, this in some particular cases is far from being so.
In fact, in some plants in this city business is just the reverse. Such was the statement made to a representative of the News Review this morning, and by a person who is closely identified with the pottery industry. It may not be generally known, but some of the local potter-ies are making nothing but flat ware,
and it is said that as soon as a large stock of flat ware is on hand business in the clay shops of some of the plants will be very slack. In some of the East Liverpool potteries nothing but jiggers are at work. These firms have completed making a large amount of hollow ware, and as the sales so far this year are not up to what they were last season, the warehouses are fast becoming filled, and as high as the roof.

Of course there is generally a good trade in flat ware, but for this time of the year considerable of this class of ware is being made. One of the lower potteries, a plant that has been operated to its capacity for months, is now running very slowly.
No hollow ware is being made
there and the kilnmen are making two less kilns a pay than ever before. When asked why such conditions prevailed a representative of this company said that it was almost impossible to tell the primary cause.
Not only was his plant suffering from dullness in trade, but others as well. Some of the warehouses are filled with dinner and toilet sets, and a flat stock is being rapidly accumulated. If these conditions prevail for any length of time, there is every reason to believe that business with some plants during the summer will be unusually slow. Under such conditions in East Liverpool is it any wonder pressers, jiggersmen and other employees of a clay shop seek positions elsewhere? Generally a new shop is picked out, and one workman makes a trip there. If conditions look favorable, it is not long after his return that others are writing to the firm for a position, and generally with some success.

Just at this point the question naturally arises, if the East Liverpool potteries are not running full, how is it to be expected that a new shop in an outside territory is to be operated to its full capacity? While the owners of these shops may claim
they have a large number of orders to work upon, it is not reasonable to believe that the older firms will stand idly by and allow their trade to be taken away from them. That is not customary with the local manufacturers. It is well also to remember that when a new shop is erected in the west, a certain amount of trade is taken from East Liverpool,
and right here comes the thought:
What will the manufacturers do should some individual come along and succeed in forming a combination among the manufacturers? Would they be given easy positions with the new company, or would they dispose of their interests for a cash basis and again enter the pottery business on their own account?
That, no doubt, would be one trouble with a combination which would permit the present owners of potteries
to enter the field again, as the rule

has been that independent factories
generally do a good business.

A good story is going the rounds about a pottery firm whose plant is located not a thousand miles from this city, and one which has not been in business for more than two years.
Recently a pottery buyer from New York entered the office of this firm and told of his wants. Knowing the man to be a shrewd buyer, the office man, who was one of the largest stockholders in the concern, said:
"Yes, we will sell you all the ware
you want for $1,250, even if it's a carload," designating the ware by the gesture of the hand. "Won't give you more than $850," said the buyer,
"and that is all." After talking the matter over for a time the deal was made and the ware ordered shipped immediately. A check for the amount was written at once and the buyer left the office. In walking to the station to board a train for the city
the New Yorker saw three cars standing near the station, one of them a furniture car, and empty. This was ordered sent to the pottery and soon the packers were working on the car. Finally, seeing that more ware was being loaded into the car than was expected, the man who made the sale commenced counting up the cost of a carload of ware, and the production. He expressed his surprise when it was discovered that it cost the company just $2,500 to produce the amount that was sold for $850.

Business is said to be so good with the New Castle Pottery company that work will be commenced at once erecting two additional kilns. The contract for their erection has been let to Gamble & Surles, of this city, and the work is to be completed not later than July 1. This company is said to be also considering the plan of building another plant of seven kilns for the making of thin china exclusively.
The company has been experimenting on this class of ware for several months, and it is reported that all of these experiments have been entirely successful.

At the last meeting of the pottery
printers employed in Trenton plants
a preliminary organization was completed, and at a meeting that will be held in eastern Brotherhood headquarters next Thursday evening permanent officers will be elected. An application will at once be made for a charter from the Brotherhood. This is said to be the result of the recent convention at Trenton.

All the machinery has been shipped from this city to the new clay mines to be opened up at Henry, Va., by the Blue Ridge Kaolin company, of which
D. E. McNicol is president. Charles N. Forster will have charge of the mines for the present. Mr. Forster is also interested with Mr. McNicol. The clay deposits at this mine are very large, and the clay is of an extremely fine nature.

It is said that one firm in the city
which has received some large orders from in the vicinity of Scranton, in the heart of the coal trouble at present, had considerable of the business canceled during the week.

The m erected

Brewer is to be placed in Riverview cemetery in that city. It seems this has not met with the approval of some of the Trenton people, who would like to see the tribute in a more public place, or in a business center.

There is said to be a closeness in the purchasing of all pottery materials. "What is the best quotation?"
is the first question that is now asked of all salesmen when an attempt is made to sell clays, colors or other materials.

Strikes in various lines of business
in other states have had some effect on orders for crockery. While some of the smaller strikes have been settled, the coal strike in Pennsylvania

Pat's Test.
A good story is told of an Irishman,
more patriotic than clever, who enlisted in one of the smart cavalry regiments.
The fencing instructor had experienced rather a difficult job in the matter of explaining to him the various ways of using the sword. "Now,"
he said, "how would you use the sword if your opponent feinted?" "Bedad," said Pat, with gleaming eyes,
"I'd just tickle him with the point to see if he was shamming."—St. James

BURGLARS ROBBED TWO BUSINESS PLACES LAST NIGHT.

Lloyd's Tailor Shop Lost $300 Worth of Goods and Blackburn's Store $25.

Lloyd's tailor shop and Blackburn & Blackburn's novelty store were robbed of property valued at about $325 last night.

The man or men, it is not yet known how many there were, gained an entrance in both instances from the rear windows of the stores by using a glass cutter, and cutting the glass around the catches of the windows.

In Lloyd's shop they succeeded in getting away with four coats, seven or eight pairs of trousers and seven or eight rolls of cloth, amounting in all to about $300. At Blackburn's they stole about $25 worth of cheap jewelry. The Wellsville police have no clue.

COUNCIL MEETING

Will Consider Important Business And Hear Interesting Reports Tonight.

Several very interesting topics are to be brought before council this evening. Reports are to be heard from several committees, the most important being that of the sewer committee which has several matters to report on. It is thought that President Whitacre's suggestion relative to the establishing of a sub-sewer on Lisbon street, a matter which was left in the hands of this committee, will be carried out. This will undoubtedly be the cheapest way for the city to dispose of the question.

Several property owners on this street are anxious to connect their property with the sanitary sewer, and council will not grant permits, because of the sewer being located about 30 feet underground, nor will it allow them to connect with the manholes, holding that this would be protested against by the board of health. The matter will be disposed of this evening.

Some definite action will probably be taken tonight relative to the construction of the city tool house in the West End. As yet only one kind, that of J. S. Kennedy, a local contractor, has been received. This bid specifies the construction of a frame building 30x40 feet and 10 feet high. Shoul's roofing to be used, and the cost to be $385. Other bids will probably be received.

NEW COAL MINES

To Be Opened in Jefferson County on the W. & L. E. Railroad.

The Lone Tree Coal company has commenced work on the openings for two large mines near the Wheeling & Lake Erie railroad, between Mt. Pleasant and Long Run in Jefferson county.

This coal land, which amounts to several thousand acres, was first taken up by Mr. Gallagher, one of the leading promoters in the new enterprise, and was sold by him to Hitchcock & Reese, of Cleveland. Later Mr. Gallagher purchased it again and sold it to E. T. Hitchcock, who is interested in the McMeahan plant, of Toronto.

The mines will be placed in operation as soon as possible and according to present indications the best of coal will be mined from them.

SORRY LOOKING LOT

SEVEN PRISONERS BEFORE MAY-OR FOR SENTENCE.

Most of Them Got the Customary $5.60—Two Taken to Canton.

A sorry looking lot, seven in all, were before the mayor this morning. He pronounced the words that cost them each $5.60.

Fred Carroll was compelled to pay a dollar more than the rest, having made himself more conspicuous. Officer Mahoney brought him to the jail. In Smoky Row Vence Conkel was found by Officer McDermott and Edward Garrison by Officer Dunn. They were plain drunks. Another inhabitant of this section, Robert Cooley by name, was in the toils. Officer Dunn said he was guilty of throwing stones at and through windows in the Severs pottery. No charge being preferred by the proprietors, he was fined for the drunk only. John Culp and Charles Messer were wandering in a sleepy state around the Diamond when apprehended by Officers Dawson and Morris. They were given a bed in the city bastille and were charged Astor house rates. Mike Cassidy fell into the arms of Officer Aufderheide at 12:30 a. m. and was assessed the full amount.

"Jabbers" Hoskins and Dave Gourley, found fighting in the Diamond the other night, were taken to the Stark county workhouse by Officer Dawson for 80 days.

TO HOUSE A GIFT.

Harvard Plans New Museum For Casts Sent by Kaiser.

The Germanic museum at Harvard university will soon be installed in a building especially designed for the proper display of its growing collection of German art. The need of such a building has been vastly increased by Kaiser Wilhelm's splendid gift to the museum, which was formally presented by Prince Henry on his recent visit to this country.

The Kaiser's gift is almost a complete museum of typical German sculpture in itself, for the collection of casts of which it consists includes examples of the finest accomplishments in this particular side of Teutonic art from the beginning of the eleventh century to the end of the eighteenth.

The Harvard Germanic museum is being built up under the auspices of what is called the Germanic Museum

association, a national organization, of which Carl Schurz is president and President Roosevelt one of the vice presidents. Its collections will not be confined to Germany alone. Beginning with the Roman invasions against the early Germans, the museum will embrace the arts and customs of the vikings and the early Saxons, thus involving Scandinavia and Denmark, for example, from whom it will gradually narrow down to the Low Countries, German Austria, the German cantons of Switzerland and the present German empire.

The Kaiser's gift, which covers much of this period of time, is more than a mere reproduction of a few architectural and artistic treasures; therefore, it is an important and interesting chapter out of the book of man. Several of the casts are of great size.

The Kaiser's gift was formally presented to the association in form of an album of photographs, and the casts themselves are expected to reach this country next summer.

PEACE TERMS SIGNED

General Kitchener Cables Good News to the British Foreign Office.

BOERS ATTACHED THEIR NAMES

Prayers of Thanksgiving in All the Churches in London—The People Rejoiced on the Streets, in Hotels, Clubs and Public Houses.

London, June 2.—An official cablegram from Lord Kitchener, dated Pretoria, Saturday, May 31, 11:15 p. m., says:

"A document containing terms of surrender was signed here this evening at half-past 10 o'clock by all the Boer representatives, as well as by Lord Milner (the British high commissioner in South Africa) and myself."

The news of peace in South Africa contained in the foregoing dispatch from Lord Kitchener was not expected in London yesterday. Soon after the receipt of the dispatch, however, the news spread to the clubs and hotels and was received with much enthusiasm. The church bells were rung to acclaim the good news. A crowd gathered at the Mansion house and the lord mayor of London, Sir Joseph C. Dimdale, announced from the balcony that terms of surrender had been signed in South Africa.

Communicated to King Edward.

Lord Kitchener's definite announcement of peace was received at the war office at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon and was communicated to King Edward and all the members of the cabinet before it was given to the public. Last night the Sunday evening calm of the London streets was broken by enthusiastic singing, shouting and horn blowing. The hotels, the clubs, the public houses and the streets were not the only places where the people were actively demonstrating their joy. The peace news was announced in the churches yesterday, and by some congregations it was received with applause. In all the churches of London prayers of thanksgiving were offered and special hymns were sung.

Pretoria, June 2.—A proclamation, which was issued Saturday, in connection with the signing of the peace terms Saturday night, declares that notwithstanding the proclamations of Mr. Kruger that interest on the bonds of the Transvaal republic would be suspended so long as the war lasted, such interest shall begin to accrue June 1.

June 26 and June 27, the days of King Edward's coronation, have been proclaimed public holidays here.

Likely to Help American Trade.

Washington, June 2.—The impression prevailed in official circles last night that the terms of surrender named by the British in their negotiations with the Boers have been very liberal in character, perhaps from the double desire to bring the war to a close and to have this happy event formally proclaimed before the coronation of King Edward in June.

From a commercial point of view the cessation of hostilities will result beneficially to American exports to South Africa, the reports issued from time to time by the foreign commerce bureau of the state department showing that they have suffered considerably since the beginning of the war, several years ago.

FRENCH SAILED FOR HOME.

Splendid Dinner on the Gaulois Before That Vessel Left.

Boston, June 2.—The sentiments of gratitude felt by the members of the mission delegated by the president of France to come to America to attend the unveiling at Washington of the statue of Count de Rochambeau found final expression yesterday afternoon, on the battleship Gaulois, which conveyed the mission to this country, and which late yesterday afternoon left for Lisbon, whence it will go to France.

A dinner was served on the battleship Gaulois, attended by the special representatives of President Roosevelt, representatives of the state of Massachusetts and the city of Boston, the members of the French embassy at Washington and the members of the Rochambeau mission, representatives of the navy and some ladies. Toasts were exchanged. Salutes were exchanged as the Gaulois sailed.

The majority of those who did not return to France will visit the site of the exposition at St. Louis. They left for New York yesterday afternoon. Among these are M. Lagrande, M. Jean Guillemin, M. Robert De Billy, the secretary of the embassy at Washington; the vicomte de Chambrun, the attaché to the French embassy at Berlin; the Count and Countess de Rochambeau and the Count de Lafayette.

M. Croiset, the dean of the faculty of letters of the University of Paris, will first visit Yale university and later proceed to Columbia university, where it is expected he will be given a degree. M. Cambon, the French ambassador, and Mme. Cambon will remain in Boston for several days.

Major Berthelot, the aide de camp to General Brugere, who had his leg fractured at the Charleston navy yard Saturday, was much improved yesterday. He returned to France on the Gaulois.

BUENCAMINO TESTIFIED.

He Said Filipinos Would Like to Have Their Political Status Declared.

Washington, June 2.—Felipe Buencamino, former secretary of state in the cabinet of Aguinaldo, was heard Saturday, for the first time since his arrival, by the house committee on insular affairs. His testimony was in part:

Under the Taft system, he said, the Filipinos have greater liberty than they would have enjoyed under the Aguinaldo government had it been established. Governor Taft was now the ideal of the people. He said the people of the Philippines would like to have their political status fixed, whether they are Americans or Filipinos. He preferred that they should be Americans. The happiness of the people depended upon American sovereignty.

He spoke of the many schools and the improved educational methods, the Filipino families no longer finding it necessary to send their children to Manila, as the local schools were ample. Instead of 1,200 American teachers, he said, there should be 6,000, and the salaries should be doubled in order to secure the best material.

Large Percentage of Illiteracy.

Among the facts he stated were the following: Eighty-five per cent of the people are illiterate and cannot read or write. There are many dialects, which may be reduced to eight main dialects. If education means protection to life, property and rights, then the Filipinos are as well educated as any other people; if it means culture, then they are uncultured.

"Are the people capable at this time of independent self-government?" he was asked.

"It would not be advisable," he said, turning to the map of the archipelago. Russia was near at hand, at Port Arthur; Japan also was near; Australia and other British possessions were nearby. Beside, he said, Great Britain and Germany had on file at the American state department large claims for damages, growing out of the bombardment of Iloilo, etc. "Suppose the United States abandons us," he said, "then all those claims will be presented against the Philippines, backed up by squadrons."

"Would the Filipinos take independence after eight years of tutelage by the United States?" asked Mr. Patterson, referring to the plan of the minority.

Other Nations Might Seize Islands.

"If the congress so determined, that result would be accepted," answered Senor Buencamino, "but congress would become responsible if the Philippines were devoured by other nations, and the Filipinos would be left to damn the congress for bringing about such a result."

He contended that annexation was the solution satisfactory to the people.

U.P. DELEGATES HEARD

Preached in Churches of Pittsburgh, Allegheny City and Suburbs.

NEW MODERATOR IN PULPIT.

He Preached in the Eighth U. P. Church, in Allegheny—Assembly on Saturday Voted Against Change in the Church Doctrines.

Pittsburg, June 2.—Many pulpits in the two cities and suburbs were filled yesterday by delegates to the general assembly of the United Presbyterian church, which is in session in Allegheny. At the Eighth United Presbyterian church, Allegheny, the newly elected moderator, Rev. Dr. J. C. Wilson, preached at the morning service.

By a majority of 70 the United Presbyterian church of America made public proclamation Saturday, through its general assembly, convened in the Eighth church, Allegheny, that its attitude on the question of secret societies, psalmody, close communion, and a host of other radical innovations embraced in the new covenant question would not be changed. In brief, the assembly voted down the new covenant.

The attack on it was of such a vigorous nature and came so unexpectedly that the leading agitators in the new covenant question were thunderstruck. The feature of the session was the onslaught of the Rev. Dr. John A. Wilson, of Allegheny seminary.

The request of the Allegheny presbytery to make a distinction between the mode of reception of a baptized person and an unbaptized person was granted.

Members of the Allegheny Theological Seminary Alumni association met Saturday afternoon in the chapel of the building and listened to addresses of reminiscent character.

Catholic Society Officials to Meet.

Cincinnati, June 2.—The national officers and other members of the executive board of the American Federation of Catholic societies will meet at the Hollenden hotel in Cleveland next Sunday to arrange a postponed date for their next national convention, which was to have been held at Chicago, July 15. Owing to that date conflicting with other occasions, it is thought that the national convention may be held in Chicago a month later.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

At Newark, O., Mrs. William M. Hall, wife of a wealthy farmer, brought suit for divorce, charging infidelity and cruelty. They were married over 40 years ago.

Alexander Bryson sued Paschal P. Dyke for $10,000 for alienating the affections of his wife, at Newark, O.

At Sandusky, O., Simon Schlacht, now living in Erie, Pa., who was treasurer of the cemetery board in 1892, was found to have been short $1,300. He sent his check for $2,100 to cover the shortage and interest.

At Upper Sandusky, O., Joe Balduf and Harry Mease, two brothers-in-law, got into an altercation because Mease, it is said, insulted Balduf's wife. The latter was stabbed in the abdomen, but it is thought not seriously.

At Kenton, O., while digging a trench, a cave-in occurred, burying A. C. Davis. T. B. Miller, his companion, escaped, and later dug Davis out, finding him not even bruised.

At Springfield, O., Ed Rinker and Warren Kadel, aged 12 and 9 respectively, were bound over to the grand jury in police court for burglarizing Clinger's cigar store.

At Springfield, O., Arthur Staley of Lancaster, died at the hospital, after his legs had been cut off by a Dayton, Springfield and Urbana traction car.

At North Baltimore, O., the young daughter of William Updyke took a dose of turpentine by mistake, and no hopes were entertained for her recovery.

Lou Jonas, a tool dresser, was probably fatally injured by being caught under a mass of wreckage when a derrick fell, at Fostoria, O.

Clarence Carey, aged 27, of Galesburg, Ill., was fatally injured by a Hocking Valley freight train, at Toledo, O.

The old National bank of Martinsburg, W. Va., has been authorized to begin business, with a capital of $100,000, William T. Stewart, president, and George S. Hill, cashier.

The application of George H. Smith and others for authority to organize the Valley National bank of Chillicothe, O., with a capital of $150,000, and George D. Landwehr and others for authority to organize the First National bank of Richwood, W. Va., have been approved.

The government of France has bestowed upon Assistant Secretary Pierce, Colonel Bingham and Commander Rodgers the decoration of the Legion of Honor in recognition of the satisfactory manner in which they entertained the Rochambeau visitors.

John D. Rhodes, of Jackson, O., has been appointed a $900-clerk in the war department.

Attorney General Knox is slowly recovering from the cold he contracted on his recent trip from Pittsburg. His condition is reported to be distinctly improved.

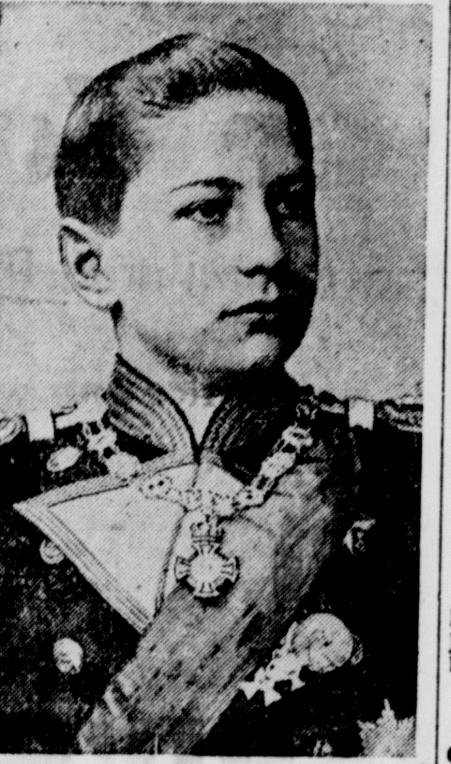

KAISER'S THIRD SON.

Prince Adelbert a Cadet on a German Naval Training Ship.

Prince Adelbert, third son of Kaiser Wilhelm, in whom much interest has been aroused in America by the report that he would soon follow Prince Henry's example and visit the United States, will not be seen here for the present.

Prince Adelbert is a cadet on the Imperial German training ship Charlotte, and it was expected that he would come to these shores simply as an officer of the navy and in no official capacity. Besides the Kaiser's son, there are fifty other cadets on board this training vessel, which is one of a fleet of such ships maintained by the German navy.

On board these vessels the young officers are schooled in practical seamanship, gunnery and all that pertains to the handling of a warship in active service. At the same time their technical studies are continued under a corps of instructors. The idea of the Imperial navy is that the practical knowledge thus acquired will be of great benefit to the embryo captains and admirals in fitting them for their future work.

Prince Adelbert, the third son of the German emperor, is eighteen years of age. He was born at the Marmorspalais, near Potsdam, July 14, 1884. In his tenth year he was entered in both the army and the navy as an officer. He is a lieutenant of the First regiment of the Imperial Foot guards and at present holds active rank in the navy as a lieutenant of the training ship Charlotte.

EXERCISE AND EATING.

Remember That a Tired Stomach is a Weak Stomach.

A good dinner at night is necessary for those whose pleasure or work keeps them up very late. But for ordinary folk who dine at 6 or 7 and go to bed about 10:30 only a light wholesome repast should be taken at the end of the day, when muscles and nerves are more or less exhausted.

A "tired stomach is a weak stomach" is a golden rule to remember. Yet how often one hears people say, "I've been rushing about all day and am tired to death; I must have a big meal to make up for it." You may put the big meal into the stomach, but you cannot make the stomach digest it.

A belief lives strong in the hearts and minds of the majority of mankind, including persons of weak digestions, that a quick, brisk walk taken before a meal gets up an appetite and helps the stomach to digest the food. Now this is exactly what it doesn't do. Exercise spreads the blood throughout the body. For the proper digestion of food the blood is needed in the stomach. Few realize this important fact.

After a long, exhausting walk, bicycle spin or any severe physical or mental strain take a good half hour's rest in a comfortable armchair or lying on a sofa before you eat a substantial meal.

A Telephone Whistle.

When the earpiece of a telephone receiver is held to the mouthpiece of the transmitter, a more or less shrill tone or whistle is heard in the receiver. This occurs when the apparatus is in good working condition and when the transmitter is on short circuit. This effect is seemingly due to a series of reactions analogous to but much more complex than those which occur in an electric bell when its circuit is closed. A movement of the diaphragm of the receiver toward its magnet tends to weaken the pressure on the carbon of the transmitter, which causes a weakening of the current, allowing the diaphragm to fall away, with the further result that the air column is compressed, increasing the pressure on the carbon again and also increasing current strength, whereby the diaphragm in again attracted, and this action is repeated over and over again.—Cassier's Magazine.

NOTES AND NOTIONS

A VARIETY OF TALES PICKED UP ABOUT TOWN.

Opinions And Observations of Interest As Noted By News Review Reporters.

In the office of Justice of the Peace Daniel McLane is an unassuming looking desk, but still it has a history that few of the city are fully acquainted with. Just at this time, when the city and county were completely surprised by the action of Congressman Taylor in declining to run for congress for another term, the story of this desk may be timely.

When Congressman Taylor was just a plain attorney-at-law with a small office in this city and probably at that time had no thought of entering the congressional halls at Washington, this desk served its purpose long and well. Then came the turn in the career of Mr. Taylor. He was nominated for congress, elected, and the rest is history that is well known. Mr. Taylor went to congress, and the desk he had used so long remained here. For several years it occupied a prominent place in the office of Grosshans Brothers, when this law firm had offices in the Stevenson building, and soon afterwards the room where it stood was leased by the county as a justice's office. There the old desk of Congressman Taylor remained, and there is a today. Though worn some by time and extensive use, it is still in active service and will likely remain so for years to come.

It has been the custom of the township to furnish all justices with a desk, and this one was selected by Justice McLane and the township paid Congressman Taylor the small sum of $15 for it.

There is now fear and trembling in Justice McLane's office. Congressman Taylor once said: "If the time comes when I can use this desk again I would like to have it, as it is one of the most commodious I have ever seen." Will Mr. Taylor reclaim his desk and remit the purchase price or will he forget about it? This is the question that is worrying the 'squire.

In one of the hill districts a carpenter who is kept busy most of the time working for other people, is building a house of his own, and taking his own time about it. He has the dwelling so far advanced that he occupies one room as sleeping and living quarters, and is finishing the rest as time and opportunity permit. He is a single man and expects to rent or sell the house after it is built. Meantime, it affords him a comfortable lodging place.

The first snake story of the season comes from the West End, where a 10-year-old boy declares he was chased by a reptile seven feet long. A companion of the lad spoils the story, however, by declaring that the snake was not over four feet in length and appeared friendly, rather than hostile.

That famous gold-toothed dog, the property of Dr. J. M. Little, had an experience Friday unprecedented in the history of the canine family. Kidnaped and taken to the wilds of West Virginia was the most undesirable plight in which the animal was placed. At an early hour two men were seen playing with the dog, and several spectators, not aware of the true situation, it is said, watched the men as they enticed the dog away. Hardly had the men disappeared with the treasure until Dr. Little missed his pet and in a short time notified the police. A search was instituted by them, but to no avail, and when early in the evening the dog knocked on the door at its master's home there was joy in profusion. It has been learned that the dog was taken to Wellsville on the street cars; over to Congo and thence down to a point back of New Cumberland, where it managed to get away from its abductors and went to the river, swam across and made a run for home.

Convert Our Millionaires!

By WARNER VAN NORDEN, Millionaire and President of the Bank of North America, New York

WHOEVER has heard of a sinner being converted in one of our big churches? I MEAN A REAL SINNER—SOME BIG MILLIONAIRE, PURSE PROUD AND HARD HEARTED—OR SOME CRIME TAINTED, HARDENED CRIMINAL. Not one of you; at least, not one of you has heard of such a thing in the past twenty years.

What we ought to strive for is to convert millionaires and take them out of their wretched, selfish lives, and the women, those foolish butterflies, who are wasting their lives.

A MAN LOOKS LESS TO HIS CREATOR AND TO HIS FELLOW MEN WHEN FORTUNE SMILES ON HIM. AND WHEN WILL WE BE STRONGER? ONLY WHEN THE MENTAL ATTITUDE IS EQUAL TO OUR INCREASED PROSPERITY.

The sordid grasping after wealth and the things of this world which are only mortal has taken away the attention of the human race from the supernatural and ideal. The soul is forgotten. Our mental attitude is unequal to our temporal, making a condition really abnormal.

SCALED PELEE'S PEAK.

DARING FEAT OF A PENNSYLVANIAN.

Most of Time Prof. Heilprin Was in Fearful Danger—Made Valuable Discoveries.

Fort De France, Island of Martinique, June 2.—The National Geographical society has scored a great triumph through its representative here, Prof. Angelo Heilprin, who, Saturday morning, with three guides, ascended to the top of the crater on the summit of Mont Pelee. Prof. Heilprin is also president of the Philadelphia Geographical society.

Prof. Heilprin had gone to the plantation Vive, which is near the crater, in company with Fernand Clerc and Mr. Reid, landed proprietors of Martinique. This expedition had been especially organized by United States Consul Ayne and Prof. Heilprin, and was led by the latter.

The expedition left Fort de France last Thursday, May 29, at noon. Friday was spent in studying the newly formed craters on the north flank of the mountain. Saturday morning Prof. Heilprin determined to attempt the ascent to the top of the crater, and with this purpose in view he set out at 5 o'clock.

Volcano Was Vey Active.

The volcano was very active, but amid a thousand dangers Prof. Heilprin reached the summit and looked down into the huge crater. Here he spent some time in taking careful observations. He saw a huge cinder cone in the center of the crater. The opening of the crater itself is a vast crevice 500 feet long and 150 feet wide.

While Prof. Heilprin was on the summit of the volcano several violent explosions of steam and cinder laden vapor took place, and again and again his life was in danger. Ashes fell about him in such quantities at times as to completely obscure his vision. One particularly violent explosion of mud covered the professor from head to foot with the hideous, viscid and semi-solid matter. He still persisted in his study and observations, however, and twice more was showered with mud. He learned, as had been suspected, that there were three separate vents through which steam issued. Full details of the professor's observations cannot be had until he returns to Fort de France.

Prof. Heilprin's journey down the side of the mountain was fully as perilous as the ascent. Mont Pelee seemed to resent the intrusion of a puny human being into her most awful precincts, and belched out huge volumes of steam, ashes and boiling hot mud.

Made an Important Discovery.

The professor made the important discovery that the crater at the head of the river Fallaise has synchronous eruptions with the crater at the summit of the volcano, and that it ejects precisely the same matter at such times. The river Fallaise crater and the crater at the summit showed during Prof. Heilprin's visit a new phenomenon. Mud was thrown up in high columns. Heretofore the mud has bubbled or boiled out and flowed downward in huge streams. In the course of one eruption of the river Fallaise crater an enormous mass of intensely hot mud was ejected. This flow reached the rum distillery on the Vive plantation and extinguished all the fires there. This torrent of mud may invade the entire plantation, and, as Vive is the center of one of the richest districts of the island, it is feared the damage may be great.

George Kennan and his party, who went to Morne Rouge, found on their return trip that a bridge across the road had been carried away by a torrent of hot mud. Negroes managed to get the party across the obstruction. They took the carriages to pieces and carried them and the members of the party to the other side of the river of mud, which was still hot. All the members of Mr. Kennan's party are well.

Mothers lose their dread for "that terrible second summer" when they have Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry in the house. Nature's specific for bowel complaints of every sort.

HAVE WOMEN INTUITION?

One Writer Says They Have Never Shown It In Literature.

Literature is the final expression of human thought. If women can lay claim to a special faculty of intuition, why do they not manifest it in their writings? Intuition, if it means anything, means the faculty that gets down to the germ of actions and characteristics and focuses external traits into a central verity recognizable to the general public. Now, there are more female writers than male. No woman poet has ever written an inevitable line, a line that flashes spontaneously out of the unknown and casts an illuminating light upon the abyss. Woman has added practically nothing to our stock of familiar quotations. Take down your Bartlett or your anthology, and you may be surprised to find that from Mrs. Browning to Mrs. Meynell women have never coined a phrase which has passed into the common currency of speech. Mrs. Browning has indeed written fine lines, but nothing of hers can be said to have become a household word.

Nor has any woman novelist created any character that is generally recognized as typical. George Eliot has come closest with her Tito Melema and Mrs. Poyser. You would appeal only to the educated few if you described a person as a Tito or a Poyser. But call a man a Don Quixote, a Micawber, a Dogberry, a Falstaff, a Colonel Newcome, a Bilfil, a Parson Adams or Bob Acres, call a woman a Mrs. Malaprop, a Becky Sharp, a Beatrice, a Diana Vernon, a Meg Merrilies, and even the illiterate will mentally classify the individual as you wish him or her to be classified.

"Ah, but," you say, "in real life women are the true intuitions. They size up a man or a woman at a glance. They are never mistaken when they trust to their instincts."

I can only testify to my own experience. I have not found that women's snap judgments of character are imbued with any special verity. They form likes or dislikes quicker than a man does because they are quicker on the trigger of conjecture. They can only be one of two things, right or wrong. If time proves that they are right, as they must be in 50 per cent of cases, the right guess is remembered and treasured up by the slower minded man as an extraordinary instance of intuition. The wrong guess is forgotten. —William S. Walsh in Era.

Miniature Holland.

The striking thing about Holland is that everything except the old parish churches, the town halls, the dikes and the trees is in miniature. The cities are not wide, and one can go from the most northern point in the country to the most southern or from the extreme west to the extreme east in a single day and, if it be a summer day, in daylight, while from the top of the tower of the cathedral at Utrecht one can look over a large part of the country. The Hague and Rotterdam are only sixteen miles apart and The Hague and Amsterdam only forty miles. Arnhem and The Hague are the two most cosmopolitan cities in the kingdom, and one meets in the streets all sorts and conditions of Netherlanders.—Boston Transcript.

Brass and Bronze.

Brass and bronze are two alloys of copper. The first is composed of copper and zinc, the latter of copper and tin. Both historically and scientifically these two compound metals are of greater interest than almost any others. Copper was one of the first metals discovered, extracted and utilized in the earliest periods of our history, and antiquaries are accustomed to speak of a "bronze age" to express that interval of time during which this metal formed many of the implements used for industrial purposes and in warfare.

ORDINANCE NO. 719.

An Ordinance to Amend Ordinance No. 513, Entitled, "An Ordinance Granting Permission to George P. Rust, his Heirs and Assigns, to Construct and Operate a Street Railway Over and Along Street Railroad Route No. 2, as Established by Ordinance No. 509."

Be it ordained by the council of the city of East Liverpool, Ohio, that ordinance No. 513 passed March 9, 1897, be amended to read as follows:

Be it ordained by the council of the city of East Liverpool, Ohio, that section 1, of ordinance No. 513, entitled "an ordinance granting permission to George P. Rust, his heirs and assigns, to construct and operate a street railway over and along street railroad route No. 2, as established by ordinance No. 509," which said section reads as follows:

"Section 1. That permission be and the same is hereby granted to George P. Rust, his heirs and assigns, to construct and operate said street railway route No. 2, as follows:

"Commencing at the north end of the bridge of the E. Liverpool Bridge

Co. on Cook street, thence westward along Cook street to Broadway; thence westward across Broadway to Third street; thence westward along Third street to Union street; thence southward along Union street to the north line of the C. & P. railroad company's right of way, the number of tracks on each street to be one, with turn outs on Union street south of Second street and on Cook street east of College street" be amended to read as follows:

Section 1. Be it ordained by the council of the city of East Liverpool, Ohio, that George P. Rust, his successors and assigns, be and they are hereby granted permission to construct and operate said street railway route No. 2 on and along the following named streets (said extension being deemed by the city council as beneficial to the public, and the written consent of the majority of the property owners on said streets or parts thereof, on the line of the proposed street railroad, represented by the foot frontage of the property abutting upon the several streets, having been filed with the city clerk) to-wit:

Commencing at the north end of the bridge of the E. Liverpool Bridge Co. on Cook street; thence westward along Cook street to Broadway; thence westward across Broadway to Third street; thence westward along Third street to Union street; thence southward along Union street to the north line of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railway company's right of way, the number of tracks on each street to be two, with the exception of Union street below Third street, which is to be one track, with the necessary poles, wires turnouts and other necessary appurtenances.

Section 2. That all parts of ordinance No. 513 in conflict with this ordinance be and the same are hereby repealed.

Section 3. It is expressly understood as a condition of this grant, that George P. Rust, his successors or assigns, shall keep and maintain the streets between the outside rails of said tracks and for a space of two feet beyond the outside rails on either side in such condition as shall be satisfactory to the city engineer of the city of East Liverpool, or such other person as council may appoint.

Section 4. In case any of the provisions of the foregoing ordinance are not complied with after thirty days, written notice from the clerk of the city of East Liverpool, all rights, privileges and other interests moving under this ordinance shall cease, determine and be utterly void as it regards the said George P. Rust, his heirs and assigns.

Section 5. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and legal publication.

Passed this 27th day of May, 1902.

VORYS, Superintendent of Insurance of the State of Ohio, hereby certify that the Orient Insurance Company, located at Hartford, in the State of Connecticut, has complied in all respects with the laws of the State, applicable to it, and is authorized to transact in this State its appropriate business of insuring property against loss or damage by fire and lightning and tornadoes, and by explosions from gas, dynamite gun powder and other like explosions, and making all kinds of insurance on goods and other property in course of transportation on land and water and on any vessel or boat, as prescribed in section 3641, paragraph first, and section 3641a, revised statutes of Ohio, during the current year. Its condition and business, on the thirty-first day of December of the year next preceding the date hereof, is shown by the statement, under oath, as required by section 284, of said revised statutes, to be as follows:

Aggregate amount of aggregate assets, $2,164,321 05

Aggregate amount of liabilities (except capital) 960,732 52

Net assets, 1,203,588 53

Amount of actual paid up capital, 500,000 00

Surplus, 703,588 53

Amount of income for the year in cash, 1,144,631 65

Amount of expenditures for the year in cash, 1,268,078 27

In witness whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name and caused my Official Seal to be fixed, the day and year first above written.

(Sael.) A. I. VORYS,

Superintendent of Insurance.

Home Sweet Home!

Mid pleasures and palaces though we may roam,
Be it ever so humble there's no place like home;
A charm from the skies seems to hallow us there
Which seek through the world is ne'er met with elsewhere.
An exile from home, pleasure dazzles in vain,
Ah, give me my lowly thatched cottage again,
The birds singing sweetly that came to my call,
Give me them and that peace of mind, dearer than all.

THE poet when he wrote these immortal verses touched a note that finds an echo in every Anglo-Saxon breast. How we love the sentiment expressed! Perhaps your home has been so varied by many movings that these lines don't find their responsive chord? Is it wise to live in a house that is not your own, putting up with all the inconveniences of a tenant house, the ups and downs with the landlord and a thousand vexations that arise when almost by the reaching out of your hand a home comes within your reach? Through us is offered to you your choice of more than in the city, at all prices, in all locations and at all kinds of terms of purchase. Whether you have much money or little, we would like to have you see what we can do for you toward your owning a home. We are not entirely mercenary in this plea for your consideration. Profit we must have, yet we hope that your profit will be the greater. Hundreds of satisfied purchasers throughout the city will tell you of us. Come and let us do the thinking and planning for you that you may own a home, realizing that it is yours, and join in the chorus and sing

Home, home, sweet, sweet home
There's no place like home.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature and of Matters About Town.

The Patient Recovered—Sanitary Officer J. H. Burgess yesterday fumigated the home of Michael Reynolds, of Sugar alley, where there was a case of scarlet fever. The patient has now recovered.

Funeral at Madison—The funeral services over the remains of James L. Moore, who died at his home in Madison township Saturday morning, were held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at Madison church. Interment was made at Madison cemetery.

Sunday School Picnic—The Sunday school of the First M. E. church will hold its annual picnic at Stanton park June 12. While the Sunday school is making all arrangements for the affair, the entire congregation is invited, and it is expected a large part of it will go.

Barbers' Meeting—The journeymen barbers of this city will hold an important meeting in their rooms on Sixth street this evening. A special meeting was held last Monday, when the closing hours for Decoration day were fixed, and the meeting this evening will be of just as much importance.

A Day in the Country—The Junior Epworth League of the M. E. church has received an invitation from Mr. and Mrs. Frank Conkle to bring their baskets and spend tomorrow in the country. The children have accepted, and will go under the direction of the superintendent, Mrs. Henry Goodwin.

and deaconess, Miss Wallace. The Conkle farm is located just beyond Caledonia, and the children expect a splendid time.

Presented a Fine Memento—Robert McElravy, whose resignation as superintendent of the Rock Springs railway went into effect Saturday evening, was not allowed to depart without being shown by the employees their appreciation of his kindness. They presented him a handsomely engraved watch and chain, the design being beautiful. Conductor Harvey Allison made the presentation speech and the departing superintendent replied impressively.

When you buy a Boy's Suit at $3.00 or over don't forget to ask us for a free ticket to Robinson's show, June 10.

DANCING AT ROCK SPRINGS WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON AND EVENING.

Dr. Wilson, the Osteopath, is having wonderful success in curing all cases of constipation, liver and kidney diseases and female disorders that come to his office on Sixth street, in Oyster building, over 5 and 10 cent store. Call and talk with some of his patients.

We want you to see our windows this week for a swell English Flannel Suit for Decoration Day.

Local Team Won by One Run in a Most Interesting Contest.

MUCH SKILL WAS SHOWN

By the Players on Both Sides — How Godwin Distinguished Himself—A Hard Fought Battle, Especially Toward the End.

If a few more games similar to that played in West End park Saturday afternoon by the locals and the Windsor Athletic club, of Allegheny, in which the former won by a score of 6 to 5, are witnessed here in the near future, base ball in this city will certainly be a success and no longer will the fans leave for the park with the expectation of seeing a rank exhibition, such as the first of the series with the Allegheny boys, for instance.

It was indeed a fast game. Both teams tugged and used all the skill they possessed and by so doing the rather large crowd in attendance was on the verge of a collapse all the time, the excitement being so intense. The appearance of Godwin at short for the locals was most gratifying to the rooters and all others, with perhaps the exception of the visitors. It was not known until a few hours before the game that he was going to play, and even the players were surprised when he walked on the field in uniform.

Although the showing made by Godwin in the first part of the game was not all that was desired by his numerous friends, he was destined not to disappoint them throughout the contest. His sensational running catch and double play in the seventh and his three-base hit in the eighth which scored two runs when the visitors were in the lead made ample amends for his bad start and once more he was the hero of the game. The two errors marked against him were forgotten, and had it been in order he would have left the field in the arms of his admirers. However, to him is not due the total complement of laurels.

Grier, the young left fielder for the visitors, who is of small physique and a rather dominant manner, deserves credit and praise for his exhibition among the clouds so prevalent in the swamp where he played. It is seldom that a fielder on the local grounds has six chances in a game and more seldom yet that one of them takes advantage, as did Grier, without making a fumble, a stumble or a fall down. His repeated long runs and never failing catches soon had the locals staring like a child when attending its first circus. Not once was he found wanting when an opportunity was presented, and the way he clutched on to the ball was highly commendable.

It would also be a shameful wrong to omit to mention Winters. Because the visitors were ahead and everything seemingly in their favor for a time during the game, Winters was censured very unjustly by the greater part of the crowd. They would say: "What did Walsh put him in for?" "He is no good." In such assertions they were wrong in every particular, as all are now strongly convinced. The fact is he has the best record of any pitcher at present signed. He has won every game he has pitched this season, and that the visitors were allowed to make their start in this game was not in the least his fault. It was due entirely to the errors bunched at inopportune times for the opposing team.

It was in the ninth that Winters so cleverly demonstrated his ability. There was but one out, two men on bases, one being on second and the other on third, with the score lacking but one of being a tie and the crowd in awful suspension, when he steadied himself and made the next two men up beat the wind terrifically.

None will soon forget Harker at second, either. He played the same game that made him so popular last season, and if anything gave evidence of being more skilled. When one remembers that he belongs to the famous Kiskiminetas team, his playing can readily be accounted for. Grier, as in the two previous games, was the first up, and as usual got his base on balls. Briney went out on a grounder to second; Stevenson made his base on a misjudgment, credited a fielder's choice, and Grier, who had forged to third, scored. Moor grounded to third; Glassburner made first on Davis error and it also cost another run. Fleeson quit at the plate. Godwin walked and scored by clever base running.

In the second and third each team seemed satisfied with nothing. The locals, however, made three hits. Glassburner in the fourth pounded one for three bases, and scored on an unexcusable error made by J. Heckathorn on Fisher's high fly. Fisher scored on Hoban's hit and the inning was cut short by Blakely's grounder
